

OCTOBER 13.

Pennsylvania—Ohio—Indiana—Nebraska.

The Approaching Contest at the Polls.

The Candidates of the Two Parties.

The Figures of Past Years.

On Tuesday next, October 13, the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Nebraska hold elections for State officers and members of the Forty-first Congress. These elections are doubly important, since they will serve as an index to the grand contest of November over the Presidential chair, which is to decide the fate of the Union for all time to come.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The following are the names of the candidates of the two parties:—

FOR AUDITOR-GENERAL. Republican, Gen. J. F. Hartman; Democrat, Charles E. Boyce.

FOR SURVEYOR-GENERAL. Republican, Gen. J. M. Campbell; Democrat, Wellington H. Eat.

Members of Congress. Dist. Republican. 1. Benj. L. Berry; Democrat, Samuel J. Randall.

FOR MAYOR. Republican, Geo. Hector Tyndale; Democrat, Daniel M. Fox.

FOR RECOVERER OF TAXES. Republican, Richard Peltz; Democrat, John A. Melloy.

FOR CITY CONTROLLER. Republican, Samuel P. Hancock; Democrat, George Getz.

FOR CITY COMMISSIONER. Republican, Major Alex. McCuen; Democrat, Major David P. Weaver.

FOR CITY SOLICITOR. Republican, Thomas J. Worrell; Democrat, Thomas J. Barger.

FOR PRESIDENT JUDGE OF THE DISTRICT COURT. Republican, J. I. Clark Hare; Democrat, William L. Hiral.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE. Republican, M. Russell Thayer; Democrat, Thomas Greenbank.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY. Republican, Charles Gibbons; Democrat, Thomas Sheppard.

FOR PROTHONOTARY OF COMMON PLEAS. Republican, Capt. Rich. Donegan; Democrat, Albert W. Fletcher.

The State Legislature. DIST. REPUBLICAN. 1. A. Wilson Hensley; Democrat, T. Sprole Leasing.

FOR MEMBERS OF THE SENATE. Republican, Geo. Connell; Democrat, Thomas Collins.

FOR ASSEMBLYMEN. 1. David Fox; Democrat, John McMillin.

Members of the last Legislature. 1. Col. John Clark; Democrat, E. K. Worrell.

Sketches of the Republican Candidates.

JOHN HARTMAN, Republican candidate for the office of Auditor-General, was born in Montgomery county, Pa., December 16, 1830. He graduated at Union College, Seneca county, N. Y., and at the time of the outbreak of the rebellion he was engaged in the practice of the law in Montgomery county. He raised the 4th Pennsylvania Regiment of Infantry, and in 1862 he was engaged in the practice of the law in Montgomery county. He raised the 4th Pennsylvania Regiment of Infantry, and in 1862 he was engaged in the practice of the law in Montgomery county.

JOHN CAMPBELL, Democrat candidate for the office of Surveyor-General, was born in Somerset county, Pa., in 1821. He was apprenticed to the printing business, and followed it for a number of years. Subsequently he engaged in other occupations, and in 1851 he went to California. In 1853 he established himself at Johnstown, Pa., and at the breaking out of the war he was connected with the Cameron Rifles. In 1861 he was one of the first to volunteer for the defense of the country. The company to which he was attached was engaged in the battle of Gettysburg, and he was distinguished in the campaign against Vicksburg, under General Grant, and after the capture of that place he commanded the 1st Regiment, under General Sherman, in the expedition to the sea. He suffered much from malaria, and was obliged to return to the North. In November, 1863, he returned to the army near Knoxville, Tenn., and commanded the second division of the Ninth Corps. He took part in the battle of Campbell's Station, and during the siege of Knoxville he distinguished himself by his gallant and heroic conduct. He was appointed Brigadier-General, to date from March 12, 1864, for gallant and meritorious services during the war. In the last battle of the war he took a distinguished part, and his hard-won victory over the Rebels at Fort Steadman gained for him his brevet of Major-General. In 1865 he was elected Auditor-General of the State of Pennsylvania, by a majority of 22,600 over W. H. H. Davis, the Democratic nominee.

GENERAL JACOB M. CAMPBELL, Republican candidate for the office of Surveyor-General, was born in Somerset county, Pa., in 1821. He was apprenticed to the printing business, and followed it for a number of years. Subsequently he engaged in other occupations, and in 1851 he went to California. In 1853 he established himself at Johnstown, Pa., and at the breaking out of the war he was connected with the Cameron Rifles. In 1861 he was one of the first to volunteer for the defense of the country. The company to which he was attached was engaged in the battle of Gettysburg, and he was distinguished in the campaign against Vicksburg, under General Grant, and after the capture of that place he commanded the 1st Regiment, under General Sherman, in the expedition to the sea. He suffered much from malaria, and was obliged to return to the North. In November, 1863, he returned to the army near Knoxville, Tenn., and commanded the second division of the Ninth Corps. He took part in the battle of Campbell's Station, and during the siege of Knoxville he distinguished himself by his gallant and heroic conduct. He was appointed Brigadier-General, to date from March 12, 1864, for gallant and meritorious services during the war. In the last battle of the war he took a distinguished part, and his hard-won victory over the Rebels at Fort Steadman gained for him his brevet of Major-General. In 1865 he was elected Auditor-General of the State of Pennsylvania, by a majority of 22,600 over W. H. H. Davis, the Democratic nominee.

views in the hands of the nation. For his bravery at the battle of Piedmont, and General Hunter, he was promoted to Brigadier-General. He took an active part in various battles and military manoeuvres under General Fremont and Sheridan, and in 1864, at the time of his being mustered out of the service, in the fall of 1864, he was never absent from his command except three weeks, and he was sitting on a Couch of Inquiry, and during a period of thirty days, when he was granted "leave of absence." General Campbell was originally a Democrat, but in 1858 he voted for the Free-soil candidates, Van Buren and Adams, and ever since he has acted with the party of Liberty and progress. In 1865 General Campbell was elected Surveyor-General of the State of Pennsylvania by a majority of 22,600; his competitor being J. F. Hartman.

GENERAL HECTOR TYNDALE.

The Republican candidate for Mayor, is a Philadelphia born and bred. He is about forty-seven years of age, having been born in this city in the year 1821. In 1837 he visited Texas, and remained there two or three years. Previous to this he had been a somewhat ardent admirer of the system of slavery, and the Democratic party in the slave States, caused him to alter his opinions, and when he returned home he attached himself to the Republican party, and became an ardent opponent of slavery. Mr. Tyndale succeeded his father in the management of a large business, and is probably known as one of the firm of Tyndale & Mitchell. As a merchant and a citizen he has always been a liberal supporter to all public enterprises and improvements, but he has never been a politician and has never sought any office. He has taken much interest in our national affairs, and has been connected with the Washington Grays for some time and was afterwards captain of the Cadwalader Grays. His military experience was obtained while Lieutenant-Colonel Tyndale was in Europe on private business, but he immediately returned, and was elected Lieutenant-Colonel of the 25th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, under Colonel (now Governor) John W. Geary. During the autumn and winter of 1861 and the spring of 1862 he was stationed at Camp Hook, opposite Harper's Ferry, for the purpose of guarding about ten miles along the Potomac river. He also participated with the Washington Grays for some time and was afterwards captain of the Cadwalader Grays. His military experience was obtained while Lieutenant-Colonel Tyndale was in Europe on private business, but he immediately returned, and was elected Lieutenant-Colonel of the 25th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, under Colonel (now Governor) John W. Geary. During the autumn and winter of 1861 and the spring of 1862 he was stationed at Camp Hook, opposite Harper's Ferry, for the purpose of guarding about ten miles along the Potomac river. He also participated with the Washington Grays for some time and was afterwards captain of the Cadwalader Grays.

THE FIGURES OF PAST YEARS.

THE VOTE OF PHILADELPHIA IN 1860.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1860: Rep. 20,323, Dem. 16,966, Majority 3,357.

THE VOTE OF PHILADELPHIA IN 1866 AND 1867.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1866: Rep. 48,817, Dem. 44,817, Majority 4,000.

THE VOTE IN THE SENATORIAL DISTRICTS.

Table with 4 columns: District, Rep., Dem., Majority. District 1: Rep. 1,699, Dem. 1,418, Majority 281.

THE VOTE IN THE ASSEMBLY DISTRICTS.

Table with 4 columns: District, Rep., Dem., Majority. District 1: Rep. 3,500, Dem. 3,204, Majority 296.

THE FIGURES OF THE PAST.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1860: Rep. 20,323, Dem. 16,966, Majority 3,357.

THE VOTE OF PENNSYLVANIA SINCE 1860.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1860: Rep. 20,323, Dem. 16,966, Majority 3,357.

COUNTIES.

Table with 4 columns: County, Rep., Dem., Majority. Adams: Rep. 2,910, Dem. 3,129, Majority 219.

GENERAL JACOB M. CAMPBELL.

The Republican candidate for the office of Surveyor-General, was born in Somerset county, Pa., in 1821. He was apprenticed to the printing business, and followed it for a number of years. Subsequently he engaged in other occupations, and in 1851 he went to California. In 1853 he established himself at Johnstown, Pa., and at the breaking out of the war he was connected with the Cameron Rifles. In 1861 he was one of the first to volunteer for the defense of the country. The company to which he was attached was engaged in the battle of Gettysburg, and he was distinguished in the campaign against Vicksburg, under General Grant, and after the capture of that place he commanded the 1st Regiment, under General Sherman, in the expedition to the sea. He suffered much from malaria, and was obliged to return to the North. In November, 1863, he returned to the army near Knoxville, Tenn., and commanded the second division of the Ninth Corps. He took part in the battle of Campbell's Station, and during the siege of Knoxville he distinguished himself by his gallant and heroic conduct. He was appointed Brigadier-General, to date from March 12, 1864, for gallant and meritorious services during the war. In the last battle of the war he took a distinguished part, and his hard-won victory over the Rebels at Fort Steadman gained for him his brevet of Major-General. In 1865 he was elected Auditor-General of the State of Pennsylvania, by a majority of 22,600 over W. H. H. Davis, the Democratic nominee.

Majorities in 1864, is given in the following table:—

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1864: Rep. 20,323, Dem. 16,966, Majority 3,357.

THE VOTE OF PHILADELPHIA IN 1860.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1860: Rep. 20,323, Dem. 16,966, Majority 3,357.

THE VOTE OF PHILADELPHIA IN 1866 AND 1867.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1866: Rep. 48,817, Dem. 44,817, Majority 4,000.

THE VOTE IN THE SENATORIAL DISTRICTS.

Table with 4 columns: District, Rep., Dem., Majority. District 1: Rep. 1,699, Dem. 1,418, Majority 281.

THE VOTE IN THE ASSEMBLY DISTRICTS.

Table with 4 columns: District, Rep., Dem., Majority. District 1: Rep. 3,500, Dem. 3,204, Majority 296.

THE FIGURES OF THE PAST.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1860: Rep. 20,323, Dem. 16,966, Majority 3,357.

THE VOTE OF PENNSYLVANIA SINCE 1860.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1860: Rep. 20,323, Dem. 16,966, Majority 3,357.

COUNTIES.

Table with 4 columns: County, Rep., Dem., Majority. Adams: Rep. 2,910, Dem. 3,129, Majority 219.

In the Second district, Samuel F. Cary was elected by the Republicans to fill the vacancy left by the death of Governor Hays. He subsequently joined the Democrats, and is now their candidate for re-election. In the Third district, General George W. Morgan was elected in 1866 by a majority of 271, but the Hon. Columbus Delano successfully contested his seat in the House.

INDIANA.

The following are the names of the Candidates for State Officers.

FOR GOVERNOR. Republican, Conrad Baker; Democrat, Thomas Hendricks.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE. Republican, Max F. Hoffman; Democrat, Edmund C. Kiss.

FOR LEGISLATIVE GOVERNOR. Republican, Will Cumberack; Democrat, Alfred P. Edgerton.

FOR SENATE. Republican, Walter G. Veatch; Democrat, Michael C. Kerr.

FOR HOUSE. Republican, George W. Julian; Democrat, John S. Reid.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Republican, William DeLoach; Democrat, Daniel W. Voorhes.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Republican, John Daley; Democrat, Nathan D. Manson.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Republican, John D. Miller; Democrat, Andrew Elliston.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Republican, John D. Miller; Democrat, Andrew Elliston.

NEBRASKA.

The following are the names of the Candidates.

FOR GOVERNOR. Republican, David Butler; Democrat, James R. Porter.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE. Republican, Thomas P. Kennard; Democrat, Victor Vilkunsky.

FOR STATE TREASURER. Republican, James Sweet; Democrat, J. A. Ware.

FOR CONGRESSMAN. Republican, John Taffe; Democrat, Andrew J. Poppleton.

FOR SENATOR. Republican, John Doolan; Democrat, John Logan.

FOR SENATOR. Republican, John Doolan; Democrat, John Logan.

THE WORK OF THE SUPREME COURT ON THE 30TH OF SEPTEMBER.

The names of a portion of the persons naturalized by the Justices of the Supreme Court on September 30 are given below. Only professional names figure extensively as John Ward, appearing ten times, and James A. Watson, five times. The following is a summary of the total work of the professionals:

Table with 4 columns: Name, Times. John Ward: 10; James A. Watson: 5; Philip Carson: 4.

THE CITY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

have authorized the publication of the following card, in connection with the lists which will be published from day to day:—

OUR NEW VOTERS.

Naturalized Wednesday, September 30.

The following are the names of the Candidates for State Officers.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE. Republican, R. J. Sherwood; Democrat, Thomas Hubbard.

FOR SENATE. Republican, William White; Democrat, William E. Fink.

FOR HOUSE. Republican, Charles M. Smith; Democrat, Nelson Barrere.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Republican, John A. Smith; Democrat, Nelson Barrere.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Republican, John A. Smith; Democrat, Nelson Barrere.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Republican, John A. Smith; Democrat, Nelson Barrere.

OHIO.

The following are the names of the Candidates for State Officers.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE. Republican, R. J. Sherwood; Democrat, Thomas Hubbard.

FOR SENATE. Republican, William White; Democrat, William E. Fink.

FOR HOUSE. Republican, Charles M. Smith; Democrat, Nelson Barrere.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Republican, John A. Smith; Democrat, Nelson Barrere.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Republican, John A. Smith; Democrat, Nelson Barrere.

THE VOTE OF OHIO SINCE 1860.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Rep., Dem., Majority. 1860: Rep. 20,323, Dem. 16,966, Majority 3,357.

COUNTIES.

Table with 4 columns: County, Rep., Dem., Majority. Adams: Rep. 2,910, Dem. 3,129, Majority 219.

Table with 4 columns: Name, Voter, Name, Voter. Lists names of voters and their corresponding names.

Table with 4 columns: Name, Voter, Name, Voter. Lists names of voters and their corresponding names.

Total for September 30. Published previously 3940. Grand total 3940.