THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1868.

FROM EUROPE BY CABLE.

LONDON, Oct. 9 .- Mr. Gladstone has issued an Address to the electors of South Lancashire. After reciewing the progress of reform in England, he proceeds to criticise the course of government, estimates in Zogard to Ireland. He says the true policy would b) to make the law the friend of the Irish people. He repudiates the proposition for general endowment of the churches in Ireland, and says the case a rainst the Established Church is aggravated by the fact that it is the church of the rich. The arguments in favor of its continuance are a satire on misapplied funds. The Established Church is a mark of past oppression. Discatablishment will give the clergy of that Church more scope. The interests of the Irish people must be applied to public and social works, and not to religious establishments. Mr. Gladstone closed with an appeal to the voters of South Lancashire to support the only just policy that England can pursue.

Lonpon, Oct. 9 .- The Nowmarket races closed to-day. The Newmarket Derby was won by Seesaw, beating Typhicus and Samson. The Pendergast stakes were won by Wild Oats.

MADRID, Oct. 9 .- The Provisional Junta has made a declaration in favor of civil and religious liberty. It is received with enthusiasm, and extensive popular demonstrations have been made in Madrid in favor of religious toleration. Large numbers of workmen are ldle in consequence of political agitation. The Provisional Junta assures them that work will soon be provided for all who want it.

A rumor is current that the Dake and Duchess of Montpensier have teen allowed to re-enter Spain. Much excitement has been created in Catalonia by the reform in the customs tariff. MADRID, Oct. 9 .- The Cubans in this city demand that their island be represented at the deliberations of the Provisional Junta. PARIS, Oct. 9.- The Papal corvette Concezione has been ordered to Marsellies to take on board the Queen of Spain.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Treaties.

The Senate adjourned without acting upon the treaty so premptly ratified by Denmark for the ces-sion to the United States of the island of St. Tho-mas. The limitation for the ratification having expired, the President in September last proposed to the Danish government that the period of the ratification of the United States should be enlarged one year, in order that the Senate might be afforded time to act. The cable telegram relative to the postponement of the cession is by the State De-partment understood to mean that Denmark has accepted the Fresident's proposition. There is a rumor about the White House, which lacks confirmation, that Mr. Reverdy Johnson has signed a naturalization treaty between the United States and Great Britain. However this fact may be, there is every reason to believe that it is a mea-sure upon which the two governments are now diligently engaged.

Foreign Consuls.

The President has recognized the following named Foreign Consular officers: Jose Maria Munrose, Consul General of Bolivia in New York; J. W. Currier, Consul General of the Dominican Republic, at New York; Ricardo Rivas, Consul General of the United States of Colombia. to reside in New York; Carl Adolf Gottlieb Adae, Consul of the Grand Duchy of Baden, at Cincinanti, Jaco P. Dobren, Vice Consul of Portugal, at Springfield, Illinois; M. B. De Henriques, Vice Consul of Portugal, at Boston, Mass.; Christian Bors, Vice Consul of Sweden and Norway, at New York, and John F. Tucker, Vice Consul of Portu-gal, at New Bedford, Mass.

Revenue Officers.

The Secretary of the Treasury to-day made the following appointments of internal revenue officers Storekeepers-B. F. Urwiler, 3d district of Penn-sylvania; J. A. February. 2d district of Pennsyl-vania; W. K. Potts, 23d district of Pennsylvania.

Report of the Committee on the Peace and Good Order of the State-Lawlessness and Crime Unparalleled.

NEW OBLEANS, Oct. 9, -The joint committee of the General Assembly appointed to investi-rate the peace and good order of the State, Hon. Hush J. Campbell, chairman, report that within a short period 204 Unionists have been killed; 51 wereshot, and 143 other wise maltreated, making a total of 398. The report states that they have examined personally 141 witnesses, have received 81 letters iom various responsible and repu-table citizeus, and have taken 350 copies of afficiants from the originals in the possession of the Senate and House Committees on Elections at d seturns. Your coumittee are of the belief that not one tittle of the murders and ourages actually committed during the time embraced in our examination appears in he present report, owing to the shortness of the time given and the other causes above set orth. Your committee have reason to believe that if adequate time is given to take even such testimony as may be offered to them without search for it, from different parts of the State, the facts will disclose a state of lawlessness, terrorism, and crime that is unparalleled in any civitized convery, and di-graceful to the age in which we live and to the Caristian character which we profess. Humanity sickens at the contemplation of a bigotry so ferocious and a hate so ren dricless tounded solely on political differences, and having for its impelling motive not resistance to oppression, but an unrary de ire to coerce the sentiments and actions of others, and a bund feeling of rage and vengeance toward those whom they cannot cow nor slence. It is the mature couclusion of your committee, founded on the testimony before them, that the state of lawlessness and unpunished crime prevalent in this State is chargeable not alone to the desperate and intamous characters who are the immediate agents but to the spathy and silent connivance of that large and respectable class of the people of the State who, while they would score personally to commit any of those violest acts, if they do not actually sympathize with their perpetrators at least retrain studiously from any efforts to restrain or bring them to justice, and are therefore justly liable to the indictment of the peaceloving portion of the community for the offense of permitting such miscreants to roam at large unpunished.-Press.

paign. SCRANTON, Oct. 9.- A Democratic mass meeting was held here to-day. Speeches were made by James E. Fitzgerald, of Boston, and Francis J. Kierman, of Utica. A torchlight procession took place this evening. The procession contained about five thousand people. Speeches were made by Judge Woodward, Mr. Kiernan, Mr. Fitzgerald, Colonel Bennett, and D. Remak, Esq., of Philadelphia

CARLISLE, Pa., Oct. 9.—One of the largest mass meetings ever held in this place is in progress here to-day. Thousands of the Republicans of Cumberto-day. Thousands of the Republicans of Con-land have assembled. General Hawley, of Connecticut, and Governor Geary have spoken this afternoon. Milton S. Lytle, Esq., of Huntingdon, and Hon. R. Stockett Matthews, of Maryland, are the speakers for this evening.

From California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—A fire at the corner of Samsure and Broadway, last night, destroyed the Franklin House and three adjacent buildings. Five Arizona advices to October 3d say that a party of teamsters attacked a party of friendly Apache Mojave Indians near La Paz, and killed tifteen of them, including Cashco Kohanna, the head chief of the tribe. The outrage will undoubtedly inaugu-rate sucher war with the Mojave Indians If is rate another war with the Mojave Indians. It is expected they will retaliate by a general onslaught upon isolated settlers along the river.

Doylestown Fair.

DOVLESTOWN, Oct. 9 .- The fourth annual Fair of the Dovlestown Agricultural and Mechanics Institute closed to-day. Upwards of 50,000 visitors have been in attendance since Tuesday last. The weather being favorable the whole week brought many out that had never attended a fair before. The trotting match to-day between "Polly Ann" and "Fanny Allen" resulted in favor of the former. Time, 2.26%. ____

'We will upset the carpet-bag governments and inaugurate civil wat." If they do, we will whip then again. (Long continued applause.) The speaker then discussed the financial que tion at son e length, and declared that if the Democratic platform did not mean repudiation, it meant nothing at all. The speaker conclused by urging his bearers to stand by the party which had been right during the war, and had rathed around that good old flag, the Stars and Stripes.

Dr. Bell, the editor of the Irish Republic, was then infroduced, and said that, as an Irish Be-publican, he had come to say a tew words to the Irishmen of Philadelphia. He thought that the great quest on to be decided was, whether we were to have universal liberty, or are we to have the old tyrannical governments of Europe peated? or are we to have one enjoying rights of a fourizen and another denied it ? These questions are to be decided, not only for this country, but for the world. (Applause.) America was iree, and there are the people of Spain, France, and Ireland who are now only awaiting a chance for liberty. The ari-tocrais of Europe, who hate America because she is free, are now looking on and awaiting the issue of this contest, and we must suow them that we are catable of self-government.

In speaking of slavery, ne said that the Irish people, as a mass, were opposed to this peculiar institution, which had been wiped out by the The trailors of the South had brought on war. this war, and it would have been justice to have sold every acre and toch of land of these people and with the proceeds to have paid the debt which the Government was obliged to (Applause.) We can now say with meer. truth that the American flag does not wave over a slave. Ee then cautioned his hearers to ne care ul in exercising the right to vote, for by voting for Seymour and Biatr with such men as Liampton and Semmes, they were voting for a landed sristocracy as bloody and oppressive as it ever was in Ireland, With reference to General Grant, he said that he was a man who had not broken the oath he took to support the American republic, a man who had not forsaken his country during her hour of trial, a man who flung himself into the contest, a man who faithfully performed the duties of every position in which he was placed, and a man who never knew defeat, so that he can be pronounced the greatest military chieftain on whom the sun of heaven shines. Since that terrible war he has occupied prominent nositions, and when he was tried by cunning and treacherous men, he sourned all such bribes and stood true to Congress and the American people,

Speeches were made by several other Irish gentlemen, when the meeting, which was de-cidedly the most eathu-instic of the campaign, adjourned with cheers for Grant and Collax.

-The Republican voters of the Eighth Ward assembled in great numbers, last evening, at the corner of Twentteth and Watt streets, be-tween Fine and Lombard, to listen to several preannounced speakers, and to testify by their rescuce their adherence to the principles of the Republican party and its great standardpearers, Grant and Collax. Several houses m the vicinity were brilliantly itluminated, and there was a fine display of breworks. Speeches were made by Hon. T. J. Coffey, Hon. Charles O'Neill, and William Doniap, E-q. -A large and enthosisatic meeting was held last evening by the Republicans of the Sixteenth Ward, at the corner of Second and Laure streets, A find band of music was in attendance. which entivened the proceedings with several patriotic airs. The dwellings in the neighborwere brill autly illominated, and the greatest interest was manifested by all who were present. Mr. William J. McDonough was were present. Mr. William J. McDonough was called to the chair. Hon, Leonard Meyers was the first speaker. He spoke at length, pleading the cause of the Republican party, and urge upon his heaters the necessity of continued activity. The speaker closed his eloquent address by predicting a glorious victory for the whole ticket on Tuesday next. Addresses were made by D. W. Chambers, Edgar M. Chip-mon, E.g., and others, after which the meeting man, E-q., and others, after which the meeting adjourned with cheers for the whole ticket. -Last evening the Republican ladies of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, and Twenueth wards had a gala time with flag presentations. Those residing in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth wards determined they would have a Grant and Coliax When patriotic ladies of Philadelphia say flag. "they will," rest assured they mean it; and no scoper was the determination made than they ATLANTA, Oct. 9.—General Meade has issued General Order No. 27, which distributes the forces under his command so as to preserve order. Bructions to district commanders.] First. Commanders are to act in subordination to the civil authorities; they are to exercise discretion, unbiassed by political or other prejudices. Their object should be to uphold law and order. They must be satisfied that such is the object of the civil officer in calling on them for aid, and must, in all cases where time will permit, apply for instructions to superior authority, but they must at all hazards preserve the peace. Post commanders on being notified of the proposed holding of political meetings may send an officer or a detachment of men to see that peace is preserved.

holding of political meetings may send an officer or a detachment of men to see that peace is preserved. To the people of the State the Major General commanding appeals that they will co-operate with him in preserving peace and avoiding riot and bloodshed. He urges the abstaining from incen-diary appeals; closing of liquor shops on days of political meetings and of election, and the ab-staining from carrying arms. If there are disputed points of law, let them be referred to the courts. The Major General makes known that so far as be has the power he will not nermit the peace to be he has the power he will not permit the peace to be broken, and that he will not be restrained by technicalities of laws made when the present anomalou condition of affairs was not anticipated. The Governor also issued a proclamation, saying that whereas many lawless acts have occurred whereby the lives and property of citizens have been destroyed, the right of free speech impaired, the performance of the duties of offices to which the performance of the tintes of onlines to which citizens have been elected denied, the lives of citi-zens so threatened as to cause them to abandon their homes and property: Therefore I, Rufus B. Bullock, Governor of Geor-gia, issue this proclamation, commanding said She-riff, and every other civil officer in this State, to see that the lives and property of all citizens and the peace of the community are preserved, and that all persons are protected in the exercise of their civil and political rights; and charge upon every person that they render prompt obcdience to the Sheriff, and that they demand from said officers protectio when threatened or disturbed in person or property, or denied political or civil rights, and that, failing to receive such protection, they are to report the facts to this Department.

POLITICAL.-A meeting of Irishmen in favor of the election of Grant and Colfax, was held last evening at Concert Hall. The hall was crowded, and in the audience were many ladies. Colonel Thomas Fuzgerald presided.

Colonel Fitzgerald, ou taking the obair, said that he often wondered why the Irishmen adhered to the Democratic party. He thought that when the Republican party was organized for the support of justice, equality, and numanity, that they would join that party, and he had no doubt that the rank and i.e of the Den ocratic party-the Irish portion-are the well-wishers of the Republican party, but they now follow false leaders. General Mahon, of Boston, was introduced. He said that a few days ago he was astonished to hear that there was in this city no organization of Irish Republicans. The reason that there are no such organizations is because the An erican people believe that the Irish generally go with the Lemocratic party. For several years a large portion of the Irish have been with the Republicans. (Applause.) Hence the necessity of forming Republican Associations. The reason that the Irish supported the Demo-ratic party was because in dive gone by they ratic party was because in days gone by they cratic party was because in days pone by they rould support no other and vote for liberty. He, the speaker, honored the Democratic party in times past. The Democratic party of to-cay is not the Democratic party of the past. He had been asked why he supported the seculican party. It is very easy to denice how to go to this con-test, when he saw these men who had fought us during the war sitting in the New York Couvention and nominating Seymour, Never could he support such a man. He knew it was hard to give up a name, but that name now amounts to nothing, and all should support the party which now advocates the old Democratic doctrines. Although this Democratic party has a glorious record, it is in bad names now-that of Robols. In very bad hands when they re-fused to nominale Penu-ylyauia's favorite son, General Hancock (applause), when they had the power to do so. They wouldn't take anybody that was in favor of the war, not even a civilian. During the war the Democrats cried 'Peace !" "Peace!" sataon they are ofging and over the country, set about preparing a flag, and a beautiful one they buished. Of course, the gentlemen had to called to their aid, and they were fortunate in their selection, for who more competent to complement ladies than Hon. Henry D. Moore, who presided at a fine stand raised at Tenth and Ogeen streets? General Louis Wagner, Colonet William B. Mann, George H. Earl, Esq., and General William F. Small had gratulations lowards the ladies for their patriofic movements, and then referred briefly to the grand stroggle to aid which the flag was raised. The spieldid flag stretches across the street from the private residence of Mr. Lewis keimer, No. 852 N. Tenth street. In addition to the noble contributions of the flag, the ladies had prepared a very sumptions entertainment for the speakers and guests, the peculiarity of which was that every single article on the table, from an appie to a ham, had a small American flag in it. The table looked exceedingly pretty, profusely covered as it was with the miniature The speakers also went to Hutchinson street above Poplar, where the ladies of the Twentieth ward bad a superb flag, and the pleasing duty of complimenting bevies of ladies belonging to adjoining wards was performed with great satisfaction.
