MADRID, Oct. 10 .- The Provisional Junta has WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The Internal Revenue Bureau has just issued regulations and instructions concerning the tax on distilled spirits, supplemental NO. 107 N. EIGHTH STREET. Bureau has just issued regulations and instructions concerning the tax on distilled spirits, supplemental to those of August last. No distiller's bonds can be approved until his dis-tillery warehouse has been provided and estab-lished under the act of July, 1868; and no distillery is permitted to start until a storekeeper has been assigned to such warehouse by the Commissioner. No deduction can be made upon the capacity tax on suspension of work until the required notice is given to the assistant assessor. Any mashing or distilling done at night, or at any time when the storekeeper is not present, is prohibited. From and after November 1st, proximo, stamps for distilled spirits will be required to be used in all cases as provided by law. These stamps are engraved and bound in book form, the books of tax-paid stamps containing three hundred stamps cach, and the others four hundred tax-paid stamps, is $100 each, and the value of books of tax-paid stamps ranges from $4350 to $20,870, according to the number of gallons repre-sented.
