ELECTION DAY.

The Disturbances in the City Yesterday -Democracy Rampant - Rows and Bloodshed in Profusion.

The following is additional to the disturb-nces at the polls mentioned in THE TELEGRAPH of yesterday, and it will be noticed that in al-most every instance a deputy sheriff was the prime mover. FUR ILLEGAL VOTERS, FRAUDULENTLY NATU-RALIZED CITIZENS, AND THE DEPUTY SHERIFFS. The illegal voters were out in force yesterday, but as a general thing confined their operations to the polls which gave the heaviest Democratic majorities, and where no Republican window-book keeper would consider himself safe in exercising the right of challenge. However, a few of these unnaturalized citizens ap-peared at the Republican precincts, where they were taken charge of.

Of these the following were held to answer at

Thomas Albright, First precinct, Seventeenth

Jacob Klaise, Seventh precinct, Sixteenth Wm. McLane, Fifth precinct, Fifteenth ward. Thomas McDonald, Second precinct, Twenty-fourth ward. Joseph C. Powell, Second precinct, Twentyfourth ward. Thomas Mullen, First precinct, Twenty-sixth ward. Jacob Harrington, Seventh precinct, Fourteenth ward.

Wm. Smith, Second precinct, Twelfth ward.
Hugh Magee, First precinct, First ward.

After the many trandulent naturalization papers which were tendered, we have the following cases which warranted arrests:-William Humphrey, Sixth precinct, Sixteenth ward; Frederick Gromach, Fifth precinct, Six-

The deputies sworn in by Sheriff Lyle figure conspicuously in the criminal calendar this morning.

They were, in the main, compased of men ignorant, illiterate, unlearned, and totally unaware of the duties of the position to which they had been elevated and, as a matter of course, were the ones who were the most capable of creating the most serious disturbances. First on the list comes Joseph Flanigan, who shot the lad Perkins, at the noils at Front and Otter streets.

the polls at Front and Otter streets.

The recovery of the injured boy being in doubt, Flanigan will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon. The chances now are that this murderous individual will be tried for his life. An important piece of evidence against him is, that some time since he made threats that he would shoot a policeman. Next on the list is the fellow Hamilton, who was shot by Policeman Swain, in the southern part of the city. His attending physician pro-nounces his recovery impossible, as he has been unable to extract the ball, which has lodged in his neck. If death were to ensue the police would hereafter be saved considerable trouble. Samuel Alloway and George Fortner were detailed for duty in the Eighteenth ward. Their conduct became intolerable, and they were arrested and taken before Alderman Eggleton, who held them for trial.

Joseph Lynd, Bernard McDermott, Michael

Foley, and James Caffrey created a disturbance at Second and Otter streets, and were taken mto custody and bound over by Alderman John Ryan and Philip Musker, for presuming to exercise supreme authority in the Fifth precinct of the Sixteenth ward, were overhauled and held to answer by Magistrate Eggleston. Alderman Pancoast bound Conrad Smith over for inciting to riot in the Eighth precinct of the In the Twentieth ward twenty arrests of deputies were made. In the Twenty-sixth ward a number of these worthies, giving the names of James Campbell, James Mellon, Matthew Moroney Berney Dugan, Thomas Cunningham, and Patrick Moroney, were held by Recorder Givin for riotous conduct, and carrying concealed deadly James McVeigh and A. Sennix, for inciting to riot in the Second precinct of the Nineteenth ard, were disposed of in the same manner as their bretbren.

There were any number of arrests of citizens made for disorderly conduct and interfering with the policemen while in the discharge of their duties.

A POLICEMAN MURDERED. At about half past six o'clock last evening a crowd of roughs from the lower section or the city paraded up Eighth street, and on arriving Lombard street assaulted a crowd of men who were standing there.

A regular row ensued, during which bricks were thrown and pistol shots fired. Policeman James Young, of the Fifth district, attempted to quell the disturbance, and in so doing received his death wound. A pistol-ball entered his mouth and lodged in the back of his head. Word was immediately conveyed to the Central Station and a detachment of police were ordered to the spot, but on their arrival found that the desperadoes had left. They found their brother officer lying on the pavement, and they took him to the hospital, where he lingued until morning, when he died. Thomas Finnegan, who had been shot in the melee, was taken into custody, and he is now held to await the result of the Coroner's investigation. He is lying at the hospital. lying at the hospital.

A DOUBLE HOMICIDE.

About 10 o'clock last night Edward and Christian Burns, who resided at No. 4 Mead street, were shot dead at Fourth and Stauley streets. They, with Charles F. Specht, had just left Mrs. Simons' saloon, and were walking towards German street, when, passing a dark alley, four shots were fired, and the brothers fell dead. Specht received a wound in the head, the ball entering above the left ear and emerging at the

On examination of the bodies, Edward was found to have been killed by a wound in the beart, caused by a large ball, while Christian had received one shot in the neck and another in the arm.

Specht was taken to the hospital, where he gave information which led to the arrest of Charles W. Powell and Samuel Holt, two of Charles W. Fowell and Semuel Holt, two cr Sheriff Lyle's deppties; they wore their badges when arrested. On Powell was found a very large six-barrel revolver, with two of the chambers empty, and on Holt a three-barrel revolver, with two chambers discharged. They were looked up in the Second District Station were locked up in the Second District Station Bouse to await the Coroner's investigation, which will take place to-morrow. The bodies were removed to the Niagara Hose

STRUCK DEAD BY A BLOW OF THE FIST.

Frederick Wentter, aged forty-six years, re-siding at No. 607 Wall street, below Catharine, was killed yesterday afternoon by a boy. Wentter had been sick, and, being feeble, carried When crossing Shippen street, above Sixth, he raised his cane to prevent a milk wagon from running over him, whereupon the driver descended and struck him under the left ear, felling him to the pavement a corpse. He then jumped into the wagon and drove off. The corpse was taken into the house of Charles Pfaff, No. 629 Shippen street. The deceased leaves a wife and three children. The deceased leaves a wife and three children. The milk wagon bore the name of Thomas Kelley, and was driven by his nephew, James Haydon, who stated, on his return to the depot, that a man had hit his horse twice with a stick, and he alighted and struck him, knocking him down, and the citizens around told him to drive off. It served the fellow right. On learning that he had killed the man Haydon surrendered himself to Alderman McCloskey, who committed him. The Coroner will hold an inquest on the

A "DEPUTY" COMES TO GRIEF. Yesterday afternoon, about half-past 4 o'clock, a notorious character named John Tobin, one of Lyle's "deputies," was arrested at the Continental Hotel by three of the Reserve officers, and escorted into the presence of Judge Allison, sitting in the Common Pleas Court, by a large growd of citizens. The causes which led to the arrest of this beautiful specimen of a "conserva-tor" of the public peace may be stated as follows:—Wearing his badge of office, he as follows:—Wearing his badge of office, he stationed himself at the polls on Sansom street, west of Eighth, and was there during the afternoon. In the neighborhood of 4 o'clock a gentleman by the name of J. Henshaw, who was in the line of voters waiting his turn, with the purpose of vouching for another gentlemen in the same line, was seized by this same Tobia and violently dragged from his place. After being pulled out, he was set upon by some eight of the associates of the 'deputy,' knocked down, kicked, and beaten. Escaping finally from the clutches of his assailants, he procured a warrant for the arrest of the "roughs," and proceeded with Sergeant Crout and a couple of the Reserve officers to hunt them up. They could find none of them except Tobin, who was first spied at Delmonico's salcon, on Ninth street, above Chesnut, and thence followed to the Continental hotel. thence followed to the Continental hotel.

As the Sergeant approached him, Tobin displayed a large two-feet long pistol, and uttering an oath, threatened to fire it if the officer came near. The Sergeant, not to be intimidated, still advanced, his comrades running around and getting in the rear of the belligerant deputy. Tobin seeing his predicament, did fire, as he said he would, and sent a ball, just clearing the head of one of the policemen. The weapon was then knocked from his hand and he was taken into custody.

After a hearing before the judge he was held in $1000 bail on the charge of unlawfully inter-fering with a citizen at the polls, and also in $5000 bail on the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons.

Mr. Whitney, the well-known brewer, went

The case did not end here, for the "deputy" and his sympathizers appeared before Alderman White, of the Fifth ward, and sued out a warrant for the arrest of Sergeant Crout, Reserve Officers Kendig, Newman, and Hess, charging them with a breach of the peace, assault and battery, and inciting to riot.

The "deputy" testified that a citizen had called on the Sergeant, and made complaint of a disturbance at the polls in Sansom street, above Eighth, and the officer, with assistance, had taken the party away without a warrant; further, that their presence did not tend to preserve the peace of the city, and that the Sergeant drew a revolver on Tobin. This latter statement was not true, for the Sergeant had no revolver when he advanced to Tobin, nor was one drawn by him.

After the evidence the Alderman held the officers in $800 bail to answer. Ball was omers in $800 om to answer. But was promptly offered and accepted.

While the hearing was going on, High Constable Clark, with a posse of men, remained at the door of the Alderman's office, with a writ of habeas corpus to produce the parties in Court before Judge Ludlow, but ball having been accepted, no action was taken on the writ. This fellow Tobin has already once or twice been charged with various offenses—can be daily seen loating at Niuth and Chesnut streets, and is a fair sample of the excellent "deputies appointed by Lyle.

ANOTHER POLICEMAN EXPECTED TO DIE. Since the decision of the partisan Justice Sharswood, on Saturday last, many of the roughs have an idea that the law will protect them in any assault they may make on policemen. KOn Monday night last there was a fracas at Seventh and Shippen streets, which was temporarily interrupted by the appearance of Officers Young and Johnson, of the First district force. However, the crowd rallied and beat back these conservators of the public peace, and in so doing inflicted injuries of such a nature upon Mr. Young that his life is despaired of. No arrests were made.

A FOREIGNER ASSAULTED. On Monday aight, a Portuguese gentleman was assaulted by a gang of fellows, on Chesnut street above Thirty-seventh, and beaten over the head with a club. Thomas McAnally, alleged to have been one of the perpetrators of this during outrage, has been arrested and committed to prison by Alderman Lungren.

ROUGHS ON THE RAMPAGE. The Democratic repeaters, colonists, and plugs, jubilant over their fruitless victory in this city yesterday at the polls, did not desert the vicinity of Chesnut street until almost daybreak this morning. "Benzine" and "bug juice," pro-cured at different Democratic drinking dens, warmed a fictitious courage in the hearts of these "unterrided." and, as might have been expected, they were eager and ready for a fray. About half-past one o'clock A. M. a party of them, alleged to have been headed by the notorious Sam. Carson, made a murderous assault on three police officers at Seventh and Chesnut streets. A number of citizens were quietly standing on the corner, and near by them the officers, when the roughs came up. Impudently swaggering and bragging, the latter began an altercation with the former, which soon grew heated and promised a row. The officers then interfered, when one of the roughs produced a revolver and shot Policeman Stiles through the breast, inflicting a wound which will in all likelihood result in his death.

Word of the shooting was communicated to the Central Police Station, where a large posse of police were in reserve. They proceeded up Chesnut street and came across the rioters about Eighth street. Here the party ran, and in their flight fired several shots at the officers following. OfficerWilliam Hodges, of the Eighth district, was shot through the ankle. A ball grazed the breast of Officer Bayletts, and Officer McKibben received a wound in the left cheek.

As soon as the firing commenced the rough separated, some running down Ninth street, and others into cellars along Chesnut street. The police drew their revolvers in the chase, intending to fire, but owing to the manner in which the fugitives ran, it was unsafe for them to discharge their weapons.

Robert Walker, one of the rioters, and a resident of Allegheny city, was noticed firing two shots, one of which, it is said, struck Officer Hodges. He was followed into a restaurant and captured, and when searched at the police station, two revolvers were found on his person, encased in a belt around his waist. Both had been fired, and a number of cartridges were ound in his pockets.

During the chase some eight shots were fired by the roughs. Sam Carson was arrested, as well as Charles Gerline, George Kirby, Owen McCabe, Hugh Barr, Marshal F. Barr, Oscar Regau, and Matthew McCusker, Nearly all of these rioters had revolvers in their possession. They were locked up for a hearing.

THE 'REPEATERS" HOMEWARD BOUND.

This morning the trains running from our city to New York and Baltimore were crowded with unwashed gangs of the colonizers who had come here for the purpose of casting Democratic ballo's in our election, and who, after finishing their dirty work, were on their way home. Happily for us, we are rid of the vil-lains; unhappily for the places where they live, bave gone to again molest them with their baleful presence.

A GERMAN STABBED. Yesterday Matthew Roser, an employe in Beckler's lager beer brewery, at Eleventh and Oxford streets, got into an alternation yesterday with the watchman of the place, during which the latter received two severe wounds with a knife—one between the second and third rib and the other in the back of the neck. The infuriated Teuton was subsequently arrested, and on being given a hearing before Alderman Hood, was sent below for a further hearing.

The "Tyng" Case in the Protestant Epis-copal Triennial Convention. In the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, at New York, yesterday, the case of Dr.

Tyng, Jr., was brought up.
The Committee on Canons, through the Rev. Dr. Benjamin L. Haight, made a report on the memorial presented on Friday last by the Esv. Dr. Goodwin, of Pennsylvania, asking for a change, or rather a liberal reform, in the canon of the Church restricting the officiating of ministers in other parishes, except under certain burdensome conditions. The canon sought to be changed by this memorial and the comtention throughout the Church at the time. The report of the committee was to the effect that after the word "necessary," in the twentieth line of the second clause of section six, canon twelve, title I, of the Digest, there be added these of the second clause of section six, canon twelve, title I, of the Digest, there be added these words:—

But nothing shall be construed to prevent any clergyman of the Church from officiating in any parish, church, or in any piace of public worship used by any congregation of the church with the consent of the clergyman in charge of such congregation, or, in his absonce, of the church wardens and vestry or trustees of such congregation or a majority of them.

With this addition the canon, sections one and two, will read as follows:—

Section I. No minister belonging to this Church shall chiciate, either by preaching, reading prayers, or otherwise, in the parish or within the parcental cure of another clergyman, unless he have received express permission for that purpose from the minister of the parish or cure, or in his absence, from the churchwardens and vestrymen, or trustees of the congregation or a mejority of them.

Section 2. Where parian boundaries are not defined by law or settled by diccessan authority under the second section of Canon V, of title III of this Digest, or are not otherwise settled, they snail, for the purpoves of this section, be defined by the civil divisions of the State as follows:—Parchial boundaries shall be the limits, as now fixed by law, of any village, town, township, incorporated borough, city, or the limits of some division thereof which may have been recognized by the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, as constituting the boundaries of a parish. If there be but one church or congregation within the limits of such village, town township, borough, city, or such division of a city or tiwn as herein provided, the same shall be deemed the parochial cure of the minister's thereof, and the assent of a majority of such ministers having charge thereof. If there be two or more congregations or churches therein, it shall be deemed the cure of the minister's thereof, and the assent of a majority of such congregation, or, in his absence, of the churchwar

The canon as proposed to be amended together with the report of the committee, was, on metion of Rev. Dr. Haight, ordered to be printed a..d made the special order on Friday, at noon. This vote was subsequently recon-sidered, as will be seen from the report of the

on the same day with the before mentioned memorial, Rev. Dr Goodwin presented another one from Pennsylvania, praying for a change in canon XI, title I, of the Digest. This canon, for the modification or conclusive interpreta-tion of which the memorial prays, is the fol-

Fection 1. No person shall be permitted to officiate in any coveregation of this Church without first producing the evidence of his being a minister thereof to the minister, or, in case of vacancy or absence, to the church wardens, vestrymen or trustees of the congregation. Section 2. No minister shall officiate transiently in a vacant parish, or in one the rector or min ster of which is sick or absent, unless the wardens or vestry are satisfied that he is at the time a minister in good and regular standing. When from another diocese, leiters commendatory from the ecotesiastical autho-rity thereof may be required.

Rev. Dr. Mahan made a report from the Committee on Canons, the substance of which was that it is inexpedient to change this canon probiblting persons not ordained ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church from officiating as Protestant Episcopal Church from officiating as such in any congregation of the Church, and pronounces it highly expedient and necessary to retain this restriction; but to prevent all am-biguous construction or its application to lay readers, a mere change in the phraseology of the title is recommended. Rev. Dr. Crane considered this subject to be intimately connected with the other, and moved it be recommitted to the committee and to be made the special order for Friday next. Dr. Goodwin, or Pennsylvania, called attention to the fact that the question may arise whether the canon would not include ministers of the Church of England, and hence the subject should be carefully looked into before a decision is reached. Mr. Welsh, of Pennsylvania, did not object to the canon, but to the interpretation given to it by the committee, it being a partial interpretation, and as such a dangerous thing. A desultory debate ensued, and the report was at last made the special order of the day mentioned immediately after the other special order.

Rev. Dr. Tyng, Jr.
This reverend gentlemen, to whom these repor's essentially referred, and whose course in the Church may probably undergo some criti-cism when the debate is opened on them, was present on the floor of the Convention engaged in occasional earnest conversation with a number of deputies of both orders, and listening also attentively to the reports as they were read, and to the remarks made upon them.

A HOAX.

A Reported Conspiracy to Assassinate President Johnson.

The New York Herald's special from Washington yesterday contains the following:-Considerable excitement exists here to-day among those who have obtained possession of the news over the supposed development of a plot said to be for some time in preparation in this city to procure the assassination of President Johnson. Yesterday evening a friend of the President's went to the currency printing division of the Treasury Department and asked for a man named Frank D. Evans, a night fireman to the engines of the printing division, stating that he was wanted at the White House. Mr. McCartee, the superintendent of the print ing division, being absent, Mr. Larmar, the chief engineer, gave permission for Evans to leave his work. Mr. Evans was taken to the house of Colonel William C. Moore, the President's private secretary, where he was examined as to what he knew of the assassinaamined as to what he knew of the assassina-tion plot. His story looks remarkably like a false alarm, and can be briefly repeated:—Last spring Evans and his wife were boarding at the house of his brother-in-law, named Himebur, in Twenty-first street, First ward, of this city. Himebur was formerly a Rebel officer, but is now an intense radical, and holds an office under our city authorities. One night, during the impeachment excitement, Hanebur, in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Evans and his own wife, stood up his own parlor and displayed with great flourishing an American flag. This flag, he said. had been given him by General Butler as one of a company of conspirators organized for the assassination of President Johnson. Evans said he felt alarmed at the disclosure, and did not know how to act-whether to tell the President or not. Finally he resolved to leave Himebur's house, and went to housekeeping for himself. But the fear of fatal results from the conspiracy still haunted him, and he told several friends the story of Butler and his flag. Evans says that his wife as well as himself was prepared to swear to its truth. Himebur, it appears, captain of a negro company, composed of fifty men, whom he drilled every night, and these negroes were supposed to be in the plot. Colonel Moore told the President something about the conspiracy last Sunday, while out driving with his Excellency, but the latter paid no attention whatever to the matter. Mr. Johnson treats the matter with indifference. He has not seen either Himebur, Evans, or his wife at all, and therefore the story, which has been most industriously circulated, that he sent for Evans to pump him, or ordered him to be sent to Hancock's head-quarters, is entirely erroneous. The whole story is evidently a piece of extravagance on the part of Himebur, magnified and perhaps embellished by the fears and imagination of Evans. By some friends of the President it is regarded in a more serious light. They believe that a conspiracy really did exist about the time of the achment, but that it failed to ripen in time, and that now all danger is past, and that nothing is to be gained by serious investigation. Others say that Evans and Himebur have been upfriendly, and that the story was invented by Evans to injure the other. Your correspondent had a talk with the President this afternoon on the subject, and found him not in the least disturbed.

The New York Meney Market.

The N.Y. Herald of this morning says:

The stock market was on the whole strong and active, and the Western shares experienced a forther advance. Erie fluctuated between 67% iand 47%, and the result of the annual election of the company had no apparent effect upon the course of the stock, it having been fully appreciated. There was much animation in the dealings in some of the misceliancous shares, and Mariposa preferred. Western Union Telegraph, and Quickeliver in particular; but Pacific Mail was quiet and steady. Mr. Durant, the Vice-president of the Union Pacific Railway Company, has written a letter to the President of the United States, protesting against the appointment of a special commission to re-examine the road, units all the other roads in receipt of a Government subsidy are also re-examined by the same commission. This protest was to be expected in view of the charges which have been made against the company for its manner of outdiding the road and its deviations from the proper route in laying the trace in order to avoid obstacles, and lengthen the line; for the greater the number of miles the larger the amount of the bends received from the Government, and consequently the larger the amount authorised to be issued by the Company. That the Commissioners failed in the proper performance of their duty when accepting the various sections of the road aiready built the evidence of all disinterested persons who have travelled over the line go to prove, and the fact that the President has appointed this special commission to re-examine it confirms the representations which have been made on the subject through the president has don't allow the length of the Government than the company could otherwise command, and the Freeident has done right in appointing this commission, which, it is to be hoped, will do its work without lear or favor, and make all the facts in relation thereto public as soon as possible.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph.

Effect of the Elections, Washington, Oct. 14.-Republicans are in excellent spirits this morning, and their number seems to have increased very greatly since yesterday. Office-holders and clerks by the hundred have suddenly discovered that they have been for Grant from the start. Democrats are so despondent that their gains of Congressmen and a report that they have carried Indiana, appear to afford them scarcely any comfort. Threefourths of them acknowledge that the election of Grant is placed beyond doubt. Business is virtually suspended, or lags heavily, and the reaction from the excitement of last night makes the city quiet and dull, and as a consequence there is a total lack of news.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE

DISTRICT COURT, No. 1-Judge Strond.—William Bates vs. George H. Hezleton. An action upon a promissory note. The defense set up that the note was given as the coesideration for an agreement for the conveyance of property unincumbered from the plaintiff to the defendent, which agreement had not been carried, therefore the defendant was not liable. On trial.

District T COURT, No. 2-Judge Thayer.—John Matthews vs. Charles Hoffn an. An action on a judgment note. Before reported. On trial.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Allison, P. J.—The preliminary hearing in the case of Sergean. Hacker and two other police officers, charged with violation of the election laws in violently oussing the election judge of the Tenth precinct of the Nineteenth ward, which was fixed by Judge Allison for to day, was continued until Friday on account of the liness of counsel for the efficers.

George H. Young vs. Andrew Gardner. An action on a book account for goods seld and delivered. In the course of the trial of this cauve, which was brought to this court from the Alderman's decision of it, the Judge asked counsel for the plaintiff what was his claim, and the gentleman replied stating a certain sum, and adding "which was the judgment given by the Alderman." Counsel for the defendant immediately asked the Court to instruct the jury to find for the defendant, which Judge Allison did, saying that it was a rule of law that in the trial of a case no expression of the result of any prior proceedings shall be wande, because it could only tend upduly to prejudice the jury.
