From New York.

New York, Oct. 19.—The Tammany General Committee held a meeting to-night and ordered the primary meetings in view of the reported with-drawal of Seymour and Blair. An address was manimously adopted culogizing those candidates of he Democracy, expressing belief in the success of he cause, saying that the pending contest is pre-minently one of capital against labor, of money against popular rights, and or political power against the struggling interests of the masses, and calling for the relaxation of no efforts to secure a majority for the electoral ticket.

New York, Oct. 19.—The United States Indian Commission appointed at a public meeting of citizens last May were in session this morning, at the Cooper Institute, to listen to a report from Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota, on the present condition of the Indians of the United States territories. Vincent Colyer reported that during the summer vaca-tion a memorial had been presented to Congress on behalf of the Indians, and an address to the people sessed by the Commission. Bishop Whipple's ad-less contained a startling array of facts as to the ill-treatment and long-continued injustice of our seeple towards the Indians. Drs. Bellows, Osgood and Bishop Hemple also addressed the meeting, he latter instancing the result of the humane reatment of the six tribes in this State as an evi-lence of capacity in the Indians for improvement. They were civilized, and increasing in numbers. After the adoption of resolutions requesting Con-gress to give Bishop Whipple a hearing at its next ession, the meeting adjourned.

The chief business transacted to-day in the Epis-copal Convention was the reception of the report from the Committee on Canons. Debate occurred on the propriety of making certain alterations in the Prayer Book, which terminated by laying the matter on the table. The report on assistant bishops, which provides that in ease the attention of the bishop to his duties is likely to result in per-manent injury to his health, an assistant bishop way be elected, and said hishop assenting thereto.

and the type scattered. The editor and printers left for New Orleans this morning.

The city of Jefferson, adjoining New Orleans, has been considerably excited for several days over a police embroglio. That parish having been included in the lately created metropolitan police district, a force was appointed and sent to take charge, but the authorities refused to surrender the eity property, intending to have the matter tested charge, but the authorities refused to surrender the city property, intending to have the matter tested in the Courts. The metropolitans made several unsuccessful stempts to take possession by force, making no appeal to the Court, and finally established a station of their own, placing policemen on beats. A number of these, with the metropolitan captain, were arrested and released on bonds.
List night, at midnight, a negro named Saniy Parker, said to be the head of the Loyal League, was arrested, having a sword and revolver in his possession. He accounted for them by saying he was an officer of the metropolitan police guarding the an officer of the metropolitan police guarding the church. During the night several negroes were arrested parading the streets armed with Enfield rifles, with United States cartridge boxes and ammunition. Rumors are afoat that the metropol ans intend to attempt to take forcible possession which the existing authorities will resist. Negroes are congregating at Bradshaw City, Louisiana, where it is said one of the men assassinated at Franklin on Saturday night is to be baried. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 19. The body of Sheriff NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 19.—The body of Sheriff Pope, of St. Mary's parish, who was killed on Sa-turday night, arrived here this evening in charge of his wife, en route for Peoria. Illinois. Pope was formerly a Colonel in the 29th Illinois regiment. No clue to the assassins has been obtained. There is no immediate connection of the two murders with politics, except that both were prominent Radical Caders. The reports of families leaving the neighberhood for fear of violence appear to be unfounded. Quiet new prevails, though considerable excitement and apprehension existed at first.

Both Houses of the Legislature to day passed a bill appropriating $10,000 for the detection of the perpetrators of the Franklin assassinations. perpetrators of the Franklin assassinations.

The House sustained the Governor's veto of the bill authorizing the city to issue five millions in bonds, principal and interest payable in gold, to be placed on the market and the proceeds applied to the redemption of the city currency, by a vote of 50 to 27. The veto meets with universal approbation. To-morrow is the last legal day of the session. The Legislature is in session to-night.

From North Carolina.

RALEIGH, Oct. 19.—Both political parties are working vigorously in the canvas. The Republicans are jubilant over the northern elections and the Democrats disappointed, but confident of carrying this State. Both have full electoral and Conrying this State. Both have full electoral and Congressional tickets. The Republican electoral ticket has Byron Laflin, of New York, and A. S. Galloway, colored, on it. The rest are native whites. The Democratic electoral tickets are all native and all enfranchised. The Congressional Republican ticket has all natives on it except David Heaton, of Wisconsin, J. T. Dervise, of Indiana, and Mr. Boyden, who runs on the Republican ticket independent, opposes radicalism, yet votes for Grant. Mr. French, of Washington city, and Mr. Fourge, of Ohio, having been ruled off, the Democratic ticket is composed of all natives.

Governor Holden has suspended the order or-

Governor Holden has suspended the order organizing and detailing militia. General Miles has distributed the 40th U. S. regiment (colored) troops distributed the 40th U.
