STORY ADVERTISEMENTS.

renders the taking of weekly story papers almost superfluous, except to those who insist upon reading an exciting tale to the end. Upon taking up one of the four great dailies-for instance, the Times, the Tribune, the Berald, or the World-you can never be certain of no! finding three columns of the last page occupied by the first chapters of a story commenced in one of the weeklies.

Mr. Bonner commenced this expensive but paying means of advertisement, and several imitation Bonners are treading in his footsteps. Once a week, on the average, the eighth page of these immortal dallies beams with three columns of romances of the very tail-end of which appears the announcement that the remaining chapters of this exciting novelette will be found published in the Ingle-Nook Comrade, for sal everywhere; for heaven's sake buy it. I quote from memory.

It was Charles Reade, I believe, who set the example in ' Peg Woffington," of making a book out of a play.

This has become common work nowadays. A Fash of Lightning and The Lo ery of Life have undergone similar transmigration s.

THE DEMOCRATS couldn't hold their meeting last night, because Their arrangements consisted of one solitary ramsbackle plat orm erected in Eighth street, midway between the Bible House and Cooper Institute.

It was expected that there would be demon strations of an unhealthy character.

The only demonstrations that were so were those of the weather. The police arrangements that had been improvised at Mulberry street were unusually extensive and ingenious, but will not be called into requisition until the next fine night. It has been discovered that the are not quite as good at base ball as the Morrislanian's. In a recent game, that lasted two hours and twenty minutes, they lost a good deal by low, short throwing, used as they are to throw towards the wicket, and for the most part at a short distance.

An immense crowd witnessed the contest between them and the Union Club of Morrisiana at Hudson City.

Everything got equally applauded, the blunders as well as the brilliancies; every miss went for a hit.

DODWORTH'S HALL, Where Blitz and Bobby have for the last few weeks been holding forth, has just come under the ban of the police, and been pronounced unsafe. The buildings to the north of it have been torn down, and excavations are going on. It is therefore a matter for congratulation that Blitz and Bobby have removed to safer quarters, since the northern and western walls of the hall exhibit an unpleasant tendency to bulge. SUSAN THE SENSIBLE has been holding another meeting in behalf of sewing-machine operators.

The object was co-operation, She eloquently urged the formation of a Workingwoman's Union, and impressed upon her fellow-sisters the importance of their being able to do many things besides sewing.

The sober and quietly elegant parlors of the Carey sisters were filled on Tuesday evening by an audience who listened with great favor to some readings by

PROP. ROBERT B. BAYMOND, of Brooklyn.

His subjects were Shakespearlan, the selections being from Otnetto and Henry the Fourth The reading was a mere feeler upon the par of Prof. Raymond, preliminary to a public course in this city, and, if successful here throughout the United States.

THE DERBY ATHENAUM promises to be an excellent thing in its way. It has been established at No. 680 Broad, way, and besides exhibiting many good features, embraces departments where books, stationery, and papler-mache work are on hand. Every purchaser of articles of the value of $5 and upwards receives a certificate of ownership of an undivided interest in the works of art in the gallery, the distribution to be made at the end of four months.

It is proposed that at the Athenaum any work that has been published in the United States, whether cheap or costly, can be procured,

AT WEST POINT, the family and friends of the late General Sedgwick had a dreary time yesterday in witnessing the unveiling of the monument that had been erected to his memory. The monument consists of a statue in bronze, obtained from the melting of three large cannon captured by the 6th Corps in battle. Launt Thompson, the artist, of this city, furpished the design, and the Hero of the Wilder.

ness has a noble commemoration. Strange enough, the authorship of "TEAR DOWN THE FLAUNTING LIE" is being claimed by Mr. William Oland Bourne, editor of The Soldier's Friend.

The poem, such as it is, has been generally attributed to the late General Charles G. Hal. pine; but Mr. Bourne's story is that, as far back as 1854 he sent the verses anonymously to the Tribune, and, stranger still, that it was published by it, the title being changed to its present one from "Hall to the Stars and Stripes," the name with which Mr. Bourne baptized it.

THE GENUINE LEGTARD is coming here at last.

Under the management of Jerome Ravel, he makes his first appearance here next Thursday evening, at the Academy of Music. The long-promised Genevieve de Brabant is to be produced to-night. For all of which may we be duly thankful.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. AT THE WALNUT Mr. F. L. Davenport will appear this evening as "Sir Giles Overreach" in Massinger's play of A New Way to Pay Old Debts, and as "William" in the nautical drams of Black-eyed Susan.

A new romantic and sensational drama entitled F; or, Branded, written expressly for Mr. Davenport, witl shortly be produced.

AT THE CHESNUT the Hanlons and their fine troupe of acrobats and gymnasts will appear this evening. AT THE ARCH Lotts will appear this evening as "Fire fly." AT THE AMERICAN there will be an entertaining performance. CABL SENTZ and Mark Hassler's second Orchestral Matinee will be given at Musical Fund Hall on Saturday. The programme for Saturday afternoon will be "Unfinished Symphony," B minor (first time in America), Franz Schubert; overture, Robespierre, Littolf; waltz, S. Strauss; serenade, horn and flute obligato, Tittl; Dueppel Fertification Storm March, G. Pietke.

Mendelssohn's Refermation Symphony will be performed on October 31.

FINE FRENCH CALF BOOTS AND GAITFRS .- The man who has never experienced the pleasure of wearing a pair of boots made by William H. Helweg, is to some extent an object of commiseration. We speak knowingly, having worn Helweg's boots for years. Their comfort, however, is not their only recommendation, as they are made of the best material and in the very best manner Helweg will not employ an incompetent workman; therefore bis work is always first-class. His store and factory is at No. 535 Arch Street, next to the corner of Sixth.

JEWELRY.-Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 12 South second street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of fine jewelry and sliverware in the city. Purchasers can rely upon obtaining a real, pure article furnished at a price which cannot be equalled. He also has a large stock of American watches in all varieties and at all prices. A visit to his store is sure to result in pleasure and profit.

Good THINGS .- From Mr. A. Winch, of No. 505 Chesnut street, we have received the last number of the 'Illustrated London News," accompanied by an elegant colored supplement of "News from Abroad" and also the London "Punch," "Fun," and "Reynolds' Miscellacy." Mr. Winch has an extensive and varied collection of periodical literature, both domestic and foreign.
