MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

Opera Bouffe at the Academy of Music. The announcement that Mr. Bateman's Opera Bouffe Company is to appear next week at the Academy of Music will be welcomed with gratification by the numerous admirers of that gay and exhibarating form of musical entertainment. The past successes of La Grande Duchesse and La Belle Helene have made the name of Offenbach familiar in Philadelphia; and have sufficiently established his popularity, and it cannot be without interest that those who were captivated by the sparkling melodies and irresistible drolleries of those clever works will await the production of another of his operas bouffes, not less brilliant in composition nor less mirthful in subject, and equally fortunate in the manner of its representation. Barbe Bleue will introduce to us a number of artists who have not before been heard here, but who have already gained a reputation, by their performances in New York and else where, not second to that of Mad'ile Tostee and her associates. The European history of these artists was emple warrant for their cordial reception in America, and their remarkable accomplishments at once secured them the good will of the American public. Mad'lle Irma, the first prima donna whom we shall receive, and who performs the part of "Boulotte" in Barbe Beue, has long held an honorable position in Paris. For a con siderable period she was the leading mezzo soprano at the Opera Comique, and after her withdrawal from that theatre was chosen by Offenbach, at the Bouffes Parisiennes, to creat the principal roles in a number of his own com positions. Her last Freuch success was in Charle Lecocq's opera bouffe, F.eur-de-The, which sh successfully carried through an entire season a the Theatre de l'Athenee. Of the rapidity with which she established herself in popular favo at Niblo's, New York, it is hardly necessary fo us to speak; nor is it necessary to describe at length the characteristics of her style of singing and acting, or of her many and varied attractione, since she will so soon be among us to be judged of in her own person. M. Aujac, the representative of "Blue Beard," is in some respects the strongest addition that Mr. Bateman has made to his company. He is the ideal of the tenor needed for the proper illustration of comic opera or opera bouffe. His voice is fresh, clear, and elastic, and rings like a trumpet, and, what is almost of equal importance, he is an actor of the highest order. There are few comedians now upon the stage who can rival him in grace, vivacity, and gallant bearing. "Blue Beard" affords him abun" dant opportunity for exhibiting his best qualities in every capacity, and if it is not his mest import rale, it will be found to be the one in which he always makes the most forcible impression.

The majority of the other artists who appear next week are also new. They are clever and conscientions, and have done much to add to the successes already secured by Mad'lle Irma and M. Aujac. The best feature of Mr. Bateman's aunouncement is the assurance it gives us that every part in the operas he produces will be sustained with such fidelity as to give no opportunity for reproach in any particular. Care has been taken to provide an excellent chorus and a fine orchestra, and the well-known skill of the Musical Director of the Bateman troupe, Mr. A. Birgfeld, is sufficient assurance that nothing will be wanting in the control of these departments.

Barbe Bieue will be performed every evening, except Eaturday, next week, on Saturday afternoon. The sale of tickets commenced this morning at the academy and Boner's music store, No. 1102 Chesnut street, and from the lively rate at which the tickets were disposed of, we have no doubt of a most brilliant success, financially speaking, for the ECASOH. The City Amusements.

AT THE ARCH the drama of He's Got Money will be performed this evening.

On Monday next H. J. Byron's play of The Lan. cashire Lass will be produced.

AT THE WALSUT the drama of F; or, Branded, will be performed for the last time this evening. To-morrow Mr. E. L. Davenport will appear as "Long Tom Coffin" in the nautical drama of The Pilot, and as "Adam Trueman" in Mrs. Mowatt's comedy of Fashion.

AT THE CHESNUT the Worrell Sisters will appear this evening in an English adaptation of Offenbach's opera of Barbe Beus. On Monday next the drama of the Lancashire Lass will be performed.

AT THE AMERICAN there will be an entertaining variety performance this evening.

THE SALE of reserved seats for the season of twelve nights of opera boujje which will be opened at the Academy of Music on next Monday evening, will commence to-day at the Academy of Music and at the music store of Messrs. Boner & Co., No. 1102 Cuesnut Street.

THE GEBRANIA ORCHESTRA will give a public rehearsay at Horticultural Hall this afternoon. On Securday they will give a classical matinece. CARL SENTZ' and Mark Hassler's combined orchestras, will give a matince at Musical Fund Hall on Saturday.

To-mornow evening a concert will be given at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the Jefferson Grammar School. The object is to obtain funds for the purchase of a piano. A number of members of the Mendelssohn Society will assist, and a fine entertainment may be expected.

Dramatic Items.

-Mr. Sothern is performing at the Prince of Wales Theatre, London, in a piece entitled A Hero of Romance, in which it is said that he has -A new spectacle has been produced at the London Alhambra, with the suggestive title of The Festival of Bacchus.

-The St. Mark's Theatre, New Orleans, opened on Monday evening with Mr. Charles Pope as acting manager and Miss Heurietta Osborn as leading lady. Mr. Mark Smith wa announced as the first star.

-The Boston critics praise Janauschek's ward robe more than they do her acting.

-Boucicault's drama of Af er Dark is in rehearsal at the Boston Theatre. -Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence will conclude a very successful engagement at the Broadway Theatre, New York, at the end of the presen week. Mr Florence made a bit in the part o "Obenreizer," in No Thoroughfare, although it is more than hinted that his rendition of the part was copied from Fechter. On Monday, Mrs. Lander will succeed the Florences, and will produce Marie Antoinette. -Forrest has been doing the legitima'e drama at Niblo's Garden, New York, for the last three or four weeks, in the accustomed legitimate way, with shabby scenery and an indifferent support. The contrast between this manner of producing standard dramss and the style in which spectacles have been put upon the stage at Niblo's has been somewhat severely commented on by the critics, but not to the extent that it deserves.

Musical Items. -Mics Kellogg concluded bor engagement in

New York on Saturday, and on Wednesday eve. ning she appeared at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Boston will hear her next, and then we suppose that she will travel Philadelphia wards -M. Flotow will reside in Paris during the coming winter. His new opera, L'Ombre, will be brought out at the Theatre Comique. -The London musical journa's need waking up a little. The Orchestra announces that Miss Lydia Thompson remains seriously ill in America, and has not been able to appear since ber arrival, and the Musical Word informs its readers that M'me Rose Bell, the Offenbach expositress in New York, is just deal. Considering that both ladies are alive and kicking-not metaphysically-at the present moment in New York, there statements are remarkable. -A new musical journal, entitled Le Moniteur de l'Opheon, has recently been started in Paris. -The Loui-ville papers commend Irma's grecian bend as a piece of high art. -Ole Bull has for some time been superin. tending the construction of a piano, in New York, on an entirely new principle, by which he hopes to obtain greater concrity of sound without loss of quality.

THE GREAT MEDICAL MISTARE of former days was an utter neglect of sanitary precautions. No efficient means were adopted for the prevention of sickness. Sewerage was unknown in cities; drainage was rarely attempted in the country. Heaps of offal were left to rot in the public streets, and domestic cleanliness, the great antidote to febrile diseases, was sadly neglected. It is not so now. Wise laws, philanthropic institutions, and a vigilant sanitary police have, to a great extent, remedled the evil. Nor is this all. Pag-VENTIVE MEDICATION has helped materially to lessen the rates of mortality. It is not too much to say that TENS OF THOUSANDS escape sickness in unhealthy seasons in consequence of having rayran-BATED THEIR SYSTEMS IN ABVANCE by a course o HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This pure and the extracts and esances of a variety of roots and herbs, renowned for their strengthening, soothing vitalizing, and purifying properties. These medicinal agents are incorporated with a spirit absolutely free from the acrid poison which deflies, more or less, all the liquors of commerce, and their effect is diffused through the whole frame by this active yet harmiess stimulant. The result is such a condition of the system as renders it all but impervious to the exterio causes of disease, such as damp, fog, sudden alterna tions of temperature, etc. Strength, and the perfect regularity of all the functions of the body, are the best safeguards against atmospheric poison and the effects of unwholesome water, and Hosterrea's BITTERS are the best strengthening and regulating medicine at present known. For dyspepsia and billousness they are a specific absolute,
