colonel Page offered an amendment to pay these men for one day's services.

Mr. Barlow contended that the Mayor was obliged to engage the men on the day previous to the day of voting, or not get them at all. They had to be sworn in before going on duty, and as they lost a day in this duty, they certainly were entitled to payment for two days.

It was stated that these men were picked out far

It was stated that these her were picked out far in advance of the necessity for their services; but Mr. Franciscus denied that any one was anxious to do the duty. On the contrary, the Mayor, in his anxiety to get only good men, had not fully filled his list until the midnight before the election.

The amendment was lost by a tie vote.

The bill itself was then lost. [Two Republicans, Messrs. Armstrong and Shallcross, voted in the negative, with the Democrats.—Rev.] gative, with the Democrats.—Ref.]

FROM EUROPE BY CABLE

The London Press on Grant's Election. London, Nov. 5 .- Despatches from the New

Associated Press Office, giving unusually full details of the general election in the United States, were received here in a few hours after the poils closed. The morning papers comment variously on the election of General Grant.

The Tergraph (Liberal), after noting the lofty character and position of Grant, says that the defeat of the Democrats was richly deserved. They should have accepted the results of the war by nominating Judge Chase, and not Horatio Seymour, a placeman, whose election would have been a recantation of all done in the war. The Daily News thinks the American people are evidently weary of their last two years' experience, and demand a strong government.

The Morning Standard charges the Republican party with the suppression of the freedom of voting in several States, by the enfranchisement of hundreds of thousands of ignorant blacks, and the dis franchisement of nearly all the southern people This state of things, the Standard continues coupled with the fact that the Radicals held nos session of the State governments, and had control of the polling places, with their notorious readiness to abuse this power, made the Democrats fight at a terrible disadvantage; but had the Democratic party nominated Chase or McClelian, instead of two second-rate politicians, it might have suc-

The Times holds that although the Democrats are beaten, and the representation in Congress is argely against them, they are yet a powerful party, and must greatly influence the policy of the government. The success of Grant no one is supposed to regret. He had fairly won his rank by hard work, real devotion to his country, and services which will live long in its remembrance. He is no politician, and will take his office with greater freedom than if, instead of being the hero of a hundred battles, he had uttered all the shibboleths of party.

PARIS, Nov. 5 .- All the journals of this city have editorials on the result of the Presidential election n America.

La Patrie says Grant is the man of the nation and not of a party. He saved the Union, and will restore it to its former standing among the great Powers. Americans are everywhere enthusiastic over the result, and Europe applauds the decision of the republic. The election establishes order and peace, the highest aim of the United States.

The Eleudard regards the election as a continuation of the victory over the south. The mission of Grant is difficult. He will find it necessary to oppose Congress. The affairs of the country require a strong and able hand to repair the broken links of liberty. Both continents have reason to be pleased with the result. General Grant is a worthy successor of Washington. The Journal Des Debats and other Liberal journals are satisfied with the result, and call Grant the true successor of President Adams.

La Presse declares that the success of the Republican party is a triumph of centralization, and thinks it singular that a soldier should be elected as the chief of a great Power while the nations of Europe seek peace.

Reception of the Vice President Elect in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg.

Pittsburg.

Nov. 5.—The Hon. Schuyler Colfax,

Vice i resident elect, arrived here this evening.

He was met at the Union Depot by an immense crowd, who received him with enthusiastic cheers, which he acknowledged by bowing. He is here in fulfilment of a promised visit to General Moorhead, who met him at the depet, and took him to his residence in the Eleventh ward, and where Mr. Colfax was entertained at a banquet, a large number of prominent citizens being present. He was serenaded by the Tanners' Clubs and a great multitude of citizens.

During the evening he made two brief speeches, complimenting the citizens of Allegheny county upon their magnificent majority for the right on Tuesday last. He said there was a trinity of principles in the late victory: liberty for all, justice for all, and protection for all, and "By that sign we conquer." There was another reason why this young and restricted was another reason why this we conquer. There was another reason why this young and patriotic party had succeeded: It declared that we ought to entranchise rather than enchain, elevate rather than crush, and build up rather than trample down; and because we bore our cause down to the humble and helpless, though denounced by all the enemies of right in this broad land, we went forward to conquer and to win salvation for the Union, as we gave emancipation to the slave. (Applause.) When in this contest we were the only party in this broad land that dared to stand by the down-trodden and helpless people of the south—the only party that denounced the outrages that dishonored is as a nation—and when upon our heads were invoked the blessings of those who loved our country, I know that you rejoiced on the night of the election over the victory which we won. I know how you rejoiced over the result; but some were rejoicing in their hearts who did not show what was passing in their minds.

These were the tried Union men of the south, who rejoiced not in the public squares, but hanging upon the outskirts of hostile crowds to learn whether they were to have protection, or whether their dearest rights should be outraged, and when their wires sped the news that the majestic voice of the people had spoken, and said there should be protection to them, the loyal men of the south gathered around their hearthstones and thanked God that his providence had protected them.

(Cheers.)
There are two sharply defined questions which have been settled by the voice of the people. The Democratic platform declared in that portion of it written by Wade Hampton that the reconstruction measures of Congress were "unconstitutional, revolutionary and void," and the American people trampled that plot from under their feet, as they had trampled the platform which four years before declared the war a failure, and demanded a cessation of hostilities.

The voice of the people, from whose decision there is no appeal, has declared that the reconstruction measures of Congress are not unconstitu-tional or void. We have declared that the voice of the people is to obeyed, and that the laws are to be enforced, whether rebels like them or dislike them. (Cheers.)

The second principle which has been settled by The second principle which has been settled by the popular vote is that every man has the right to go south or north, east or west, so long as he is devoted to the principles of our flag, and be pro-tected by it against outrage and wrong. (Cheers.) To-day the only place in this broad land where the people are prevented from singing the battlesongs of the war, such as "Down with the traitors,

And up with the stars," is in the blood-stained fields of the south, where your soldiers fell. You could sing these songs among the banditti of Italy, or amongst the Thugs of India; the only place where you could not sing them is over the graves of dead soldiers. But we are going to have a land so free, and so loyally presided over by a man so true to his country, that you may sing those songs anywhere. (Applause.) I speak of President Grant. From his own utterances you will find, before he wrote those magnetic words, "Let us have peace," if you look back to his acceptance speech when the committee waited upon acceptance speech when the committee waited upon him—and I remember hearing his words as I afterward read them—that he said he was for peace and quiet and protection everywhere; and what he says he generally means. (Cheers.) He will bring to the duties devolving upon him as President the same energy, the same ability and the same will that have hitherto characterized him; and when he says there shall be peace and quiet and protection everywhere, let traitors beware! for he means what he says, and he will carry it out. (A voice—"String up Wade Hampton.")

he says, and he will carry it out. (A voice—"String up Wade Hampton.")

I can tell you one thing, my friends, this party that has been struggling for the supremacy, and has carried two northern States—New York and New Jersey—by unblushing frauds; that has carried six southern States by the votes of men who had no sympathy with your flag, I say that that party will never appear before you again until they have secured new colors (cheers); and they will have to get some new principles besides.

I do not think Wade Hampton will make any more platforms for the Democratic party. I do not more platforms for the Democratic party. I do not think Vallandigham will nominate any more Preidents. I do not think Preston and Forrest will nominate any more Vice Presidents.

As for the future, under the administration of President Grant, I look forward to an era of peace and prosperity, and an era of development in all manufacturing and agricultural interests, which are the very backbone of any nation beneath the circuit of the sun. With Grant's zeal to stop every wasteful expenditure of your treasury, and his op-position to every attempt to imperil your business —with Grant who, under a divine Providence, has been called to fill the Presidential chair—I trust we shall have a future of unexampled public pros perity. (Cheers.)

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5. Personalities. Commissioner Rollins returned this morning. Binckley was the only distinguished personage who called on the President to-day. The Public Debt Statement October will be published to-morrow, and will show a large reduction of the debt. Secretary McColloch was engaged to-day in examining the claims of The Supervisors nominated by Mr. Rollins, and will dispose of all without delay.

Secretary McCulloch to-day appointed the following storekeepers for the Fourth district of Pennsylvania:-Thomas Fair, Howard Joshua S, Fletcher, and Joseph R. Matthews. Dennis Holiano was at-o appointed storekeeper for the First district of Pennsylvania. One Hundred Guns. In execution of an order issued from the headquarters of the Boys in Blue, a national salute of 37 guns was fired at suprise, and 100 guns at noon to-day, in honor of the victory in the eleccon of Grant and Colfax.

How Hoffman was Elected. New York, Nov. 5 .- Corrected majorities give Seymour New York State by about 6000. the Republicaus are fully desermined to contest Hoffman's election. In twenty-two districts in this city the boxes were studed, and one thousand and thirty-six more bailots counted than there were names registered. The New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 5-330 P. M.-The Post says: - The money market is unprecedently stringent. The rates are very irregular, and on the larger number of loans, in addition to the legal rate of 4 of one per cent, per day, bas been paid at convenience. Lenders refuse to loan on many of the higher priced railway stocks. There has been a panic in Governments, which on extreme quotatious have declared two to four per cent. This state of the market is attributed to the discreditable endeavors of a speculative combination, formed some time since, to lock up Legal-tenders, and to other wise embarrass the loan market. The transactions in stocks during the morning were very large and excited. Under the money pressure large amounts of nearly every stock on the list have been forced on the market, which has dechined from two to eleven per cent,

The Election in South Carolina. CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 5 .- The returns from this State come in slowly. Anderson, Green-ville, Spartansburg, Lexington, Newberry, Ocone, and Pickens counties give large Demo-eratic majorities. In Abbeville the contest is lose and the result contiful.

Columbia gives 258 Republican majority. From the seaboard counties, which form the Republican stronghold, the returns come in slowly, and it is impossible to state the general result with certainty, but the indications are that the Republicans have carried it by a reduced majority. The Democrate claim to have elected two Congressmen.

BY CUBA CABLE. HAVANA, Nov. 5 .- The official account of the recent encounters of the troops with the revolutionists are favorable to the government. Several engagements have been reported officially, in all of which the troops were successful. The rebels are arriving at the military headquarters, and are submitting to the government. Colonel Quircos reports that an engagement near the town of Baire lasted an hour and three-quarters, during which time the revolutionists defended themselves obstinately, attacking the troops with muskets. The city of Havana is full of rumors, which generally prove to be canards.

NOTICE.-THE UNDERSIGNED

would call attention of the public to his NEW GOLDEN RAGLE FURNACE.
This is an entirely new heater. It is so comstructed as to at once commend itself to general favor, being a combination of wrought and cast tron. It is very simple in its construction, and is perfectly airtight; self-cleaning, having no pipes or droms to be taken out and cleaned. It is so arranged with upright flues as to produce a larger amount of heat from the same weight of coal the any furnace ow in use,
The hygrometric condition of the air as produced by my new arrangement of evaporation will at coce demonstrate that it is the only Hot Air Furnace that all produce a perfectly healthy atmosphere.
Those in want of a complete Heating Apparatus would do well to call and examine the Golden Eagle,
