MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. AT THE CHESN'UT H. J. Byron's new drama, in a prologue and four acts, of The Langashire Lass, will be produced this evening with new scenery, mechanical effects, and appointments, The management promise that the piece shall be put upon the stage in the hard-omest style, fust as it is at the Queen's Theatre, London, where it has already been performed over one hundred nights. AT THE ARCH another version of the same drama will be brought our, with new scenery and appointments, and cast to the full strength of the company. Both the Chesnut and Arch Street Theatres claim to have the only genuine and authorized version, and those who are curious on the subject would do well to see both, so as to be able to judge wherein is the difference between them. We will notice each performance, and give each the credit to which it may ju-tly be entitled.

AT THE WALNUT Mr. E. L. Davenport will appear this evening as "Long Tom Coffic," in the nautical drama of The Pilot, and as "Rob Roy" in the Scotch drama of that name.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Thomas J. Hemphill, the Bu-iness Manager of the theatre, will have his annual benefit, when London Assurance and The Pilot will be performed. Mr. Davenport has c psented to assist on this occasion, and wil appear in his fine personations of "Dazzle" and "Long Tom Coffin." Mr. Hemphill's services as an accomplished manager should receive a handsome recognition at the hands of the play-going public, and we hope that the house will be crowded from pit to done on Wednesday evening.

AT THE AMERICAN there will be an attractive wa lety entertainment this evening.

AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC Odenbach's operabouffe of Barbe Blene will be presented this evening by Mr. Bateman's troupe of French artists. The cast will be as follows :- M'lle Irms as "Boulotte," Mons. Aujac as "Barbe Blene," M'lle Marie as "Princess Hermia," M'lle Duclos as "Queen Clementine," Mons. Dardignac as 'Prince Eaghir," Mons. Francis as "King Bobeche," Mons. Benedic as "Count Oscar," Mon . Tholer as "Popolini;" and Mons. Edgard as "Avarez" None of these artists have as yet appeared in Philadelphia. The opera will be brought out in the same style of elegance as has characterized the previous efforts of the management, with appropriate scenery, handsome costumes, an efficient ballet corps, with Mad'lie De Rosa as premiere danseuse, a full chorus, and au orchestra of forty musicians.

THE GERMANIA ORCHESTRA WIll give a public rehearsal at Musical Fund Hall on Wednesday afternoon.

Is SICKNESS AVOID-BLE ! - Thousands toss on sick-beds to-day, who might have been well and hearty had they taken due precautions for the preservation of that most precious of earthly blessings, a sound mind in a sound body. Sickness, to a greater extant than most people suppose is avoidable. When the Lody is languid, the spirits depressed, and the nervous system unnaturally sensitive, it should be taken for granted that muchlef is browing. These hints and warnings, voccasafed as such by a kind Providence, ought not to be dearogarded. If they are mlighted, as is too generally the case, the next thing may be a fever, a severe billions attack, or somother for n of acute disease. They indicate as clearly as if the i- timat on were given in articulate language that the animal functions are disordered and the system debilitated. Under these circumstances, the only thing to be done is to regulate and restore, and the best regulating and restorative preparation ever used for the prevention of stokness is Hosturren's STOMACH BITTERS. In this way, billous remittent fever, chills and faver, spanies, nervous paroxysms, violent attacks of indigestion, and all the ordinary spidemics, may almost certainly be averted. They are usually preceded by the symptoms described, and surely it is wisdom to forestall them by resorting to an antidote at once harmless, agreeable, and invigorating. Most assuredly, it will soon dissipate the unpleasant faelings referred to, which, of course, is desirable, even if they were not likely to lead to something worse. The close of the Fall is usually accompanied by unhealthy fogs and violent atmo spheric changes, and it is therefore a sesson when invigoration is particularly needed
