THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILA

NUMBER CXCIX.

A DIET FOR MENTAL DYSPEPTICS, AND A CURR FOR HY-POSHONDRIA, HY-POCHINY, OR ANY COMPLAINT OF A HY ORDER.

FRAILTIES AND FRIVOLITIES OF THE FUNNY FELLOWS, COMMISERATED BY OUR SERIES EDITOR.

From "Punch."

"VIRGINIBUS GARCONIBUSQUE."-Mind what you say before parlor-maids and waiters.

NEW GHOST MELODY .--- A critic speaks of "the apparition of a dramatic singer of such indisputable promise as Miss Minnie Hauck." But is it not Miss Hauck herself who is singing at Covent Garden ? Why then startle us with the idea that it is her ghost, and delude perhaps thousands in search of a new sensation to go to the theatre possessed with that notion? We do not doubt that a dramatic singing apparition would draw immensely, if one could be engaged.

THE ENGLISH PRIMACY.-It cannot be denied that many holders of the see of Canterbury have committed, at various times, various blunders; but at all events, it must be true, that whatever his after career may be, every new bishop commences by succeeding.

THE VERY PRELATE FOR THE SEE .- Dr. Jennier, the Bishop elect of New Zealand, is said to be very unpopular in Maori-land because of his Ritualist opinions. Nonsense ! Considering how keen the new maniacs are for novelties in the Church, we should say that if ever there was a case of the right man in the right place, it is a Ritualist in New-Zeal-land.

FROM THE POULTEY .- When does a hen like beer? When she has a little brood.

"THE ACT OF SETTLEMENT."-Having pinmoney.

AMERICANIZING OUR LANGUAGE .--- If our forefathers get the papers in the Elysian Fields, they must be greatly puzzled by some of the expressions the writers now use. For example, when they read of "the bad effects of the stump upon our most eminent men," the meaning they are likely to extract from such a passage is, that our most eminent men are beside themselves with toothache, a painful impression which they probably exchange for the very bewildering notion that this stump is some new musical instrument with which our leading statesmen amuse themselves in their leisure hours, and perhaps delight their constituents, when they read farther on of "Mr. Gladstone's and Mr. Bright's performances on the stump."

BENJAMIN OUT OF HIS MESS.

- They said Monte-Christo was dammed; But the dams must be broken, 'tis plain:
- For if it was dammed the first night, It is certainly running again.

A DISCHARGE WITHOUT A REPORT.-A Ser-vant Dismissed without a Character.

A CLERICAL GUN .- We think that the last new thing in guns is likely to be very useful in the coming battle, and we should like to know something about it. The invention is called Parson's Converted Cannon. If this will not help the Church, what will ?

WHEN are Parsons bound in honor not to abuse Theatres? When they take Orders. HOOP DE DOODEN DOO .- Sir Richard Mayne's order against Little London Doys' floops has created a great excitement in certain circles.

be a disposition to let himself be taken in. We cannot help thinking that the advertiser is too modest. He calls himself Acer, Sharp 1 He should have taken the comparative, Acrior.

"IF AVONT OF OATEN STOP."-The London Review the other day expressed a belief that on an average there are half-a-dozen posts in every Scottish parish. If this be true, one has no cause to wonder that Scotland is entirely given up to (oat) meal-an'-colly.

(WHIT) MORE WITTY THAN WISE .- Mr. Whitmore, the conservative candidate for Bridgnorth, has sent his photograph to every elector in the borough. Such a course is an infringement of the act which forbids a candidate to supply carriages-and therefore cartes -to bring voters to the poll.

DOMESTIC MAXIM .- A lady of our acquaintance who has had a long experience as a housekeeper, and knows something of the insolence of servants, declares she always finds, contradictory though it may seen, those servants that don't "answer" suit her best.

"WHEN THE WINE IS IN THE MAN, THEN THE WITS ARE IN THE CAN."-After the second bottle old Beeswing's head gets completely muddled. Seeing a bevy of fair girls drying their flowing locks on the beach, he sputtered out-"B-bless me! quite a Back-hair-nalian festival !"

A RECOLLECTION. 'Twas at the Crystal Palace I wandered with my Jones, We looked at the geranlums with variegated

we wandered in the Rosery and o'er the verdant meads,

And whirled along the terraces on wild velocipedes.

We sat in the Pompeian Court, and that of Furniture,

We visited the pictures too, and Camera obscure.

- It was a day of wild delight,
- And when we got an appetite, We sat beneath the screen of kings,
- And ate and drank a lot of things.

From bottled beer of Barton's Bass we drew the flying cork, We ate the pie of Pimlico, that's made of plenteons pork. With bread and cheese and celery we finished up the feast, And Jones declared of cognac we must have a nip at least, And so we had of steaming grog two tumblers stiff and big, By way of a corrective-just to qualify the pig.

- I saw his eye was getting bright, But he assured me 'twas all right, And thought perhaps, upon the whole
- We'd better have another stroll.
- To the Tropical Department then we wan dered, I and Jones,
- And there we see the working bees and dilatory drones. And then we scratched the parrots' polls and
- stroked the cockatoos, And saw the hairless horse which seemed to
- have a fit of blues; But, ah, the rarest object that was seen by
- Jones and me-
- The rareat and most touching far, it was the Chimpsnzee.
- I saw the humid tears arise At once to Jones' eager eyes;
- Into a quiet nook he crept
- And there he sat him down and wept.
- 'What is it that affects thee ?'' said I, "my gentle Jones,

Is it the lovely scenery-the organ's melting tones ?"

But Jones he gravely shook his head, and weeping still said he,

"Dear friend, excuse this weakness-it's the Chi-Chi-Chimpanzee !"

Here sobbing choked his utterance. "But come," I answered, "Jones, Explain this sudden mystery, and don't make

BUG AND SPY.

The Mysteries of the Gaming Table. Peter Bunnells and A. J. Carlin, alias Williams, says the Louisville Courier, two men bailing from Quincy, Illinois, and who were arrested by Officers Booker and Dillon, were brought before Judge Craig as suspected felous On their persons had been found several circular of a New York house, one of which was printed in green, and read as follows:-

THE BUG. This is a new invention, intended to assist the player in "holding out" any number of cards, and it will do it / It is very simple in its con-struction, easy to operate, and every person who knows that 2 and 2 are 4 can use it. It can be carried in the vest pocket all the time, and is always ready for use, not liable to get out of order; and, should it do so, any watchmaker can put it in crder for a triffe, as the whole expense of manufacture is only about fifty cents. Then why ask $3? you may say. For this reason-that one is all you would ever want to reason—that one is all you would ever want to buy, as they do not wear out like cards. Also, after using it you can get one made as well as "any other man," and you will wonder that the thing was never thought of before. With it you can "hold out" one or more cards, shift and make up your hand to suit, and your bands and person are at periect liberty: your opponent may lock in your lap and up your sleeve-there is nothing to be seen ! After having used it once you would not be without it for any price, as, like all good inventions, its simplicity is a great point in its favor. They will be delivered free by mail (securely scaled), on receipt of price, when sent by express, C. O. D., cost of collec-tion, will be added to the buil.

. THE SPY.

This is also an enurely new article, made of silver and brass. It is intended to be placed among your bills when playing any game. It is cutirely concealed from your own and oppo-nent's sight. It is to be used when you deal, By letting the back of the hand rest upon a concealed spring, a beautiful reflector comes into programming there inst into proper position, and remains there just as long as you are dealing; then goes out of sight long as you are dealing; then goes out of sight the instant you are done. With this you can tell every card your opponent has in his hand and play accordingly. This is valuable, as it can be played upon smart men as well as suckers. It is neat and compact, and can be carried in the pocket without getting out of order; can be picked up with the money when not wanted. Sent tree by mail (letter postage) on receipt of price, $10. All orders for any goods filled promptly. Directions for use sent with goods. with goods.

Your cheapest way to get any of my goods should you at any time wish for them, is to enclose the price in a registered letter, and send at my risk, as thus your whole expense will only be the price. If sent by express, C. O. D. It will cost you the price of the article and the cost of transportation and the express charges for returning the money to New York. They will be sent either way, as desired.

On the back of the green circular were printed twenty-five specimens of marked cards, and a second circular afforded a key to all of them.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
