PREVENT OR REPENT,-When health has been sac rificed for want of the care necessary to protect it regrets are unavailing. It is better to prevent than to repent. The most inclement season of the year is at hand, and its cold and damp are the source of innumerable distressing ailments. The best means of escaping them is to keep the outward surface of the body comfortably warm with suitable clothing, and the internal organs in a vigorous condition by the occasional use of a healthful tonic and corrective. Winter makes tremendous drafts upon the vital forces, and therefore it is a season when a pure vegetable stimulant and invigorant like Hostatten's

STOMACH BITTERS is of infinite use, especially to the weak and feeble. It gives staming to the system, and thereby enables it to withstand the shocks of cold, which produce cough, bronchitis, catarrh, and other diseases of the organs of respiration. Dyspepsia and every species of indigestion are also greatly aggravated by cold, damp weather, and for these complaints the Bryrens are an acknowledged specific There is no fact better known in this country, and, Indeed, throughout the civilized portions of the Western Hemisphere, than that this genial preparation is a swift and certain remedy for all ordinary diseases of the stomach and the liver.

WINE, HERRS, AND ROOTS.-Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" are composed of his pure Wine, with herbs and roots, the best bitters known to the Materia Medica, and in daily use by our best physicians. A. W. & B. Bogen, M. D., of Washington City, say of his Wine:-In diseases of a prostrating character, for its qualities as a gentle stimulant and certain tonic these Bitters are every way worth the attention and test of the Medical Faculty. These Bitters and Wines are sold by Druggists,
