TABLE TALE WITH A VICTIM OF INDIGESTION .-Reader.; we will suppose you are a martyr to dys pepsis. If you are not so much the better for you If you are, perhaps you may profit by this para graph. You have just finished youridinner, we will say, and feel as if you had swallowed lead instead of wholesome food. You have a sensation of lightness round the upper part of the diaphragm, as if some snake of the constrictor tribe held you in its embraceand had knotted its coils over the pit of your stomach. You feel supremtly miserable; and such is the penalty which your complaint exacts after every meal. What do you desire? Ease, of course. An exemption from the incubus that robs you of all enjoyment during the day; and disturbs your rest at night. Take, then this piece of information: You suffer needlessly HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS will as certainly cure all your agonizing symptoms as the day on which you read this artic e will be succeeded by an other. Perhaps you are incredulous; but if you have read the testimony of the eminent citizens, in every walk of life, who have tested the preparation, and submitted the results of their experience to the public through the press, you ought at least to have sufficient faith to make a trial of it in your own case. It is a pure vegetable tonic and alterative, the only medicine in the world entirely adapted to your com plaint. If you are in the habit of taking any alcoholic excitant as a palliative, abaudon it, and try this WHOLESOME MEDICAEDT STIMULANT. If it does you no good, any so; but you will not do that, to: thas never yet failed, in a single instance, to cure dyspepsis, billousness, and their various concomi-Isnis.
