

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

A DROGHERY CROWD AND THE WAY ROBERT. A few minutes before 12 o'clock this morning a crowd of roughs went into the National Hotel, on Market street, above Seventeenth, and ordered drinks. While standing in the bar they raised a row and ordered out of the place by Mr. Albright, the proprietor, they assaulted him with tumblers. He ran behind the bar, and pulling on a pistol discharged it. The crowd then took to their heels and ran out Market street. Above eighteenth street they were accosted by Mr. Mark Richardson, who was standing in front of his residence. Two of them ran at him and relieved him of his watch. The crowd continued on their way, and a party of policemen who had been attracted to the scene by the discharge of the pistol, the fellow who stole the watch then dropped the article. This movement was seen by a policeman, who stole the party, 62 in number, were locked up for the night, and this morning Alderman Jones heard the case. The following names were given by Mr. Albright, and two of them, giving the names of Lawrence Nuzent and Patrick Shanley, were recognized by Mr. Richardson as having been his watch. They were held in $2000 bail for highway robbery, and the remainder, whose names are Francis Maguire, John Lynch, Michael Freely, and James Kelly, were held in $1000 for assault and battery and in contempt of court.

A CUTTING AFFAIR.—On Saturday night Thomas Jordan and another young colored man, both somewhat intoxicated, were walking up Lombard street, near Seventeenth, when they were met by Thomas Kearney, a shoemaker, residing at No. 317, Seventh street, against whom Jordan pushed his companion. Kearney remonstrated against the assault, and some high words were bandied between them, when Kearney abruptly left them and walked towards his shop. Jordan and his companion, however, went into his basement, and shortly returning, walked towards the two men. When within a few feet of them, Jordan suddenly sprang on Jordan, cut at him with some sharp instrument, and at once fled. Jordan fell to the ground, weak from loss of blood. He was carried into a store, and a physician called, who stated that his throat was cut from under the left ear to a point directly under the chin. The wounded man was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital. A few minutes after the commission of the crime Officer McGeary, of the Third District, went to Kearney's residence and arrested him, and he was committed to jail on a plea of Carpentier to await the result of Jordan's injuries.

THE BOARD OF SURVEYS.—The regular stated meeting of the Board of Surveys was held this morning at 10 o'clock. The following surveys were ordered to be laid out: 2 feet 6 inch sewer on Ash street, between Girard avenue and Wilder street; 10 inch pipe on Pine street, between Sixth and Seventh streets; 3 feet sewer on Twenty-second street, between Race and Summer streets; 2 feet 6 inch sewer on Twentieth street, between Coates and Brown streets; 2 feet 6 inch sewer on Montgomery street, between Second and Third streets; a resolution to place Walden street in the tenth ward upon the city plan was agreed to. Plans of the following streets were ordered to be laid out: 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th sections of the Twenty-fifth ward were approved. The plan of the wharf lines of the Schuylkill river, between the wharf and the Pennsylvania dam, was presented by Mr. Shekard, and upon his motion, ordered to be advertised for hearing at the next stated meeting. Adjourned.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.—The contrast between the streets yesterday morning and on Saturday evening was very striking indeed. People late on Saturday night went home feeling that they were going to have a fine Sunday, but how disappointed they were on arising this morning! A slight falling of rain, which froze as it fell, one who was compelled to make his appearance on the street found himself in a very disagreeable position, and he who tried to climb to the top of a glass jar—very steep in advance was followed by two of retrogression. He undoubtedly would gain the point for which he started, but he would be sometimes on his feet, sometimes on his back, sometimes on his narrow bones, and frequently on the cold pavement with which his feet were crowned. It is not to be wished to see him like the like of which we do not wish to see again.

MOSE LIGHT WANTED ON DELAWARE AVENUE.—Lately the fact that more lights are wanted on Delaware avenue has been frequently demonstrated. Scarcely a night passes without the police being called upon to render assistance to some unfortunate individual who has walked overboard. On Saturday night the Harbor Police were the means of preventing one man walking overboard. He had been slightly intoxicated, and going down the cross streets, where he undoubtedly walked into the river. The points at which these men were stopped were in front of the store of Philip Donohue, on Market street, near Thirty-sixth, and, picking up a barrel of flour, deposited it in his store. He then returned to the store, followed by Mr. Donohue and a policeman, who overtook him at Thirty-second street. In his store was found a lot of pork, butter, and lard, of which he could give no satisfactory account. He was held for a further hearing by Alderman Maule.

A HUCKSTER IN TROUBLE.—Abram Petrowski, a huckster who on Saturday stopped his horse and cart in front of the store of Philip Donohue, on Market street, near Thirty-sixth, and, picking up a barrel of flour, deposited it in his store. He then returned to the store, followed by Mr. Donohue and a policeman, who overtook him at Thirty-second street. In his store was found a lot of pork, butter, and lard, of which he could give no satisfactory account. He was held for a further hearing by Alderman Maule.

STOLE A HORSE AND CARRIAGE.—On Saturday afternoon Rev. J. Wheaton Smith, while making calls, hitched his horse and carriage to a post on South Second street, and, while engaged in a dwelling, John E. Clark, hailing from Chester county, jumped into the vehicle and drove off. He was captured by the police on the streets by Constable O'Donnell, when he said he was drunk and did not mean to steal the team. He was taken before Alderman Patchell and was sent below for trial.

STABLES ROBBED.—Last night the carriage house of W. H. Merrick, on School lane, near the Northern Railroad, was broken into and robbed of three horse blankets, a fox robe, and a leopard robe, valued at $100. On the night of the robbery, thieves entered the stable of Powers & Weightman at Ridge avenue and James street, and stole three blankets.

YOUNG THIEVES.—Henry Planer, Henry Robinson, and Samuel Bowler were arrested on Saturday, charged with stealing a number of pocket-books from a store at Fifteenth and Spruce streets. At the time of their arrest these youths were disposing of the plunder at ten cents apiece. Alderman Fitzgibbon committed them to prison.

THE POBETRY EXHIBITION.—The annual exhibition of the Pennsylvania State Pomological Association was opened this morning at Horticultural Hall. There are hundreds of varieties of chickens, birds, etc., in the hall, and the display is by far the finest ever seen in this city. The exhibition will continue open day and evening during the remainder of the present week.

SLIGHT FIRE.—At 4 o'clock this morning a slight fire occurred at the marble manufactory of Gates & Co., Twenty-first street and Ridge avenue.

BUTLER. A Cleveland Clergyman Wakes Up The Wrong Man. From the Cleveland (Ohio) Herald, Dec. 19. Rev. Mr. Strong, Cleveland, Ohio, Sir:—I have read your sermon on Thanksgiving day, which, being a sort of eulogy on Butler, seems to have caused you to use the pulpit for the purpose of personal vituperation in the interest of capital and the money changers, whom our Divine Master drove out of God's holy temple with a scourge of small cords. Nay, He expelled therefrom those who sold their innocent occupation compared with that of the good gamblers and speculators to whom you seem to have given the benefit of the sanctuary as if you were not even aware of the facts upon which you predicated your personal attack, from the pulpit, upon myself by name, and the majority of the Republican Representatives in Congress. There was no proposition to tax the bonds, only the income derived from them, as the Government has always done, and the proposition did not go to the committee for conderliga, but the committee was ordered to bring in a bill to make that proposition law. As I assume, if you had known the facts, you would not have borne "false witness against your neighbors." I read your sermon with a copy of my speech, which, if you will read carefully, will show you what was proposed, and also an extract from a letter in reply to a gentleman who, while he was disposed to criticize, was just enough to endeavor to find out what my views were before he condemned them. Pardon me, reverend sir, if your sermon had not been sent me in the Cleveland Herald, marked, I should not have troubled you with a reply at all. I am, however, glad to see the publication with the imputations of "Brick Pomeroy" and "Dhnt's O'Flaherty," which you will find printed on the back of your sermon, did I not suppose you were honestly mistaken, and might be willing to be set right.

WISE. The ex-Governor Gets His Property Back.—What Will He Do with the Negroes? From the Richmond Dispatch of Saturday. The property of ex-Governor Wise, in Princess Anne county, Virginia, which has been in the possession of the Government, and occupied by squinting negroes for several years, has at length been restored to him. It is directed that a wretchedly dilapidated condition, the restoration is made under the order from the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, bearing date Oct. 9, 1866, from which we make the following extract:— It appearing that certain parcels of abandoned lands are yet borne upon the returns of this Bureau in some of the States, and unconditional amnesty and pardon for participation in the Rebellion having been declared by the President of the United States, it is directed that all lands and tenements held by this Bureau as abandoned be restored to the owner thereof, except in cases where the Government has acquired the title by due process of law.
