The steamer Imperatrice, from Vera Cruz, brings still later dates from Mexico. There were many rumors, some of them claiming to come from reliable sources, that Mexico is on the eve of a revolution. It is asserted that the people are disgusted with the administration of Juarez, that the President is controlled by Lerdo de Tejada; that the government officials act as they please, and that there is no protection for American residents.

An American was murdered outside the walls of Vera Cruz, shortly before the sailing of the French steamer. The assassin, although known to the authorities, was suffered to escape, and arrived at Havana yesterday. The United States Consul at Vera Cruz is powerless to obtain justice. The Mexicans are much incensed against the United States, and some of them clamor for another war. It was reported that General Alatorre would head a revolution against Juarez, for the purpose of placing Portirio Diaz at the head of the republic.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 7.-A despatch was received this morning at the Navy Department from Rear-Admiral Hoff, commanding the North Atlantic Squadron, dated Fiag-ship Con-tocook, Havana, January 1, which says that that vessel is in excellent condition. It is his parts that the problem of the command in desire to visit other points of the command in his flag ship, but the Consul General reports that the excitement continues on shore. The treitysburg was employed in convoying the cable steamer between Key West and Havana. The Penobscot was cruising on the coast of Colombia and Venezuela; the Yantic is stationed at Aspinwall. During the early part of December she conveyed the Hon, Caleb Cush-ing to Carthagena. The Nipsle was cruising in Haytien waters. The FOLLOWING official report, relating to affairs in Arkansas, has been received at General Grant's headquarters, from General Horace Porter, of his traff.

LITLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 26, 1868.—General General Babcock and I arrived here two days ago So many contradictory reports have been circulated in regard to Governor Clayton's militia that it may be well for you to know the facts in the case. The present State government was certainly in some danger previous to the Presidential election. Sena-tor Barker had been shot and wounded badly; Upham, of the lower House, wounded, and Hinds and McCand, a Freedmen's Bureau agent, killed, and other agents and a United States marshal driven from their posts by threats. The Governor, Sena-tor Rice, and others, had to sleep in the State House under guard, for fear of assassination.

The Governor wisely refrained from taking any violent measures until after the election, fearing the opposition might make capital out of it. As soon as the election was over, however, he organ-ized a militia force of about eight hundred men, one-fourth colored, under General Catterson, in the southwest, and Upham in the northeast, with orders to live off the country, taking what was ab-solutely necessary and giving vouchers. His in-tention is to pay all loyal holders of vouchers and no others. Two assassing have already been exe-cuted by sentence of a military commission, seven-teen others are in prison, and a great number have as the election was over, however, he organ teen others are in prison, and a great number have been run out of the State. But the best result I can see is the disposition of nearly all business men to voluntarily enroll themselves as a posse, pledged to assist the sheriffs to arrest lawless cha-racters if the Governor will relieve them from martial law. He has accounted many such pledges. martial law. He has accepted many such pledges. and martial law now exists in parts of but seven counties. The entire conservative wing of the Republican party were opposed to the declaration of martial law, including General Smith, U. S. A., command-ing the troops in the State. They admitted the reign of terror established by the rebels, but wanted the United State. reign of terror established by the redels, but wanted the United States troops to make the arrests. Gov-ernor Clayton's arguments in favor of his policy are all fallacies. The United States troops do not know the people and the country. The lawlessnes we have while the United States troops are in the vicinity, and it breaks out worse than ever when they leave. The rebels are generally anxious to have them, as it creates an expenditure of money in their midst, from which they reap a benefit. The militia punishes all the disloyal, and extorts pledges from them to support the laws. As these people have threatened to break up the State government as soon as the United States troops are removed, this teaches them that the State is able to protect itself. The militia has been under tolerably good control, and the plundering reported in the press is the taking of supplies under rders. One negro militiaman committed a rape on a white woman, but was immediately arrested by General Catterson, who seems to be a very good man, tried, convicted, and promptly executed. The Governor's policy has no doubt seriously in-terfered with business where martial law has been proclaimed, and injured business men of all parties. Hence the opposition from loyalists. It has interfered with travel, taken off hands for the militia at a season when they are badly needed, aud created many paries. It, however, has ac-complished much more good than the most san-guine expected; and General Smith acknowledges bet he thought the Governor's indement was better that he thought the Governor's judgment was better than his own, and that the result would fully justify the action of the former. The Governor is now disposed to relieve each county from martial law as soon as it can safely be done. The Governor is cer-tainly a man of intelligence and nerve, and has abored under difficulties that would have deterred a less able officer. Four thousand arms were seized by the Kuklux and thrown off the boat below Memphis. He could seldom secure good men for offices, and in the eastern counties he had to depend en-tirely upon negroes for soldiers. Very respectfully, HORACE PORTER, A. D. C. WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 .- General Grant goes to Baltimore in about ten days to attend the meeting of the Peabody Institute, Senator Stewart to-day received a telegram, Senator Stewart the had been unanimously informing him that he had been unanimously commated in the Union caucus for re-election nominated in the Union caucus for re-election to the Senate of the United States from Nevada. CITY COUNCILS .- The regular stated meetings of these bodies were held yesterday afternoon. The new members were in their places. In Select Council a change for the better has been made in the interior of the room. The desks have been ranged in front of the president's rostrum, and not around it, as was the case before. The lobby at-tendance yesterday was full. In the entire roll call of the Select Council members not one was absent. There are three new faces in the Chamber. Accident to Cyrus W. Field.

NEW YORK, Jen. 7.-Mr. Cyrus W. Field visited his country place at Irvington, on the North river, yesterday, in company with an engineer and architect, for the purpose of lay-ing out improvements for the coming season. The ground was covered with frozen snow, and just as Mr. Field and Mr. Ignatz A. Pelott, of the Central Park, began to descend a hill 200 or 300 feet high, both men slipped and slid to the bottom with great velocity, striking against a tree. Mr. Pelott was able to return home in the cars, but Mr. Field was more seriously in the cars. jured. He was placed in a sleigh, and brought to the city. At first it was feared that he had sustained internal injuries, but to day he is much better.

Acclimatization of Parrots in England. Once a Week says Mr. Charles Buxton, M. P., in a paper on the acclimatization of parrots (which he read to the British Association excursionists to Northrepps Hall, Norfolk), Men's Furnishing Goods. has shown that with due care parrots may be bred in England, notwithstanding Mr. Darwin's views to the contrary: and some of the facts recorded are interesting in more than one point of natural history. At one time nearly fifty parrots might be seen about the grounds of Northrepps Hall; the number is low reduced to twenty-four, the roduction being mainly due to the guns of their enemies whenever they left home. Unfortunately, they are occasionally seized with a desire to see the world, and will then take a flight to a distance of ten or fifteen miles, or even more. and from these flights the flock seldom returns in its original force. In one case a flock flew to a place full twenty-five miles away, and eleven of them were shot. The history of their breeding is thus described by Mr. Buxton:---"A pair of cockatoos led the way by most unsuccessfully attempting to make a nest in one of the chimneys; before it was half finished it gave way, and the nest and cockatoos fell to the bottom. It being summer time, they were only discovered after spending a day and a night amongst the soot, and when they were brought out they looked like two dwarf chimney-sweeps." Nothing daunted by this catastrophe, they made a next attempt in a box which had been hung outside the gables of the house, with the hope that it would be thus used. Two eggs were laid and carefully sat upon; but, alas! the egga turned out addled. Then came a pair of green parrots, which, making their nest in a box, succeeded in bringing up one young one; but long before it was fledged it was creelly murdered by a cockatoo. "The year after," says Mr. Buxton, "this pair brought up two children; and it was really a beautiful sight to see the family party flying about, always together, and living on the most loving terms. But the mother and her eldest son were both, unhappily, shot." This must be regarded as the first real success. Afterwards a common white cockatoo, who had selected a very large rose-colored cockatoo of a different species for his bride, scooped out a nest in the rotten branch of an acacia tree, and this pair brought up two live young birds; and the following year they repeated the experiment even more successfully, and brought up three young ones, thus making up a family party of seven. Unfortunately, when the next breeding season occurred (the past summer) the old birds found their nest preoccupied by a pair of grey parrots, which kept possession and brought up two young birds. These are the only cases of breeding mentioned by Mr. Buxton. UNITED STATES REVENUE STAMPS, -Central Depot, No 364 CHESNUT Street. Central Depot, No 163 S FIFTH Street, one door below Chesnut. Foreign Affairs.

HAVANA, Jan. 7 .- Last night, by order of the government, all the statues of Queen Isabella, and other symbols of the late dynasty, were removed from the squares and public buildings.

General Dulce has issued his anxiously awaited proclamation. It is addressed to Cubans. He says: "I will brave every danger and accept every responsibility for your welfare. The revolution has swept away the Bourbon dynasty, tearing up by the roots a plant so poisonous that it putrified the air we breathed. To the citizen shall be returned his rights; to man his dignity. You will receive all the reform which you require.

Cubans and Spaniards are all brothers from this day. Cuba will be considered a province of Spain. The freedom of the press, the right of meeting in public, and representation in the national court, the three fundamental principles of true liberty, are granted you." General Dulce concludes as follows: "Cubans and Spaniards-Speaking in the name of our mother, Spain, I adjure you to forget the past, hope for the future, and establish a fraternity."

The news from the interior is to the effect that Count Valmazeda is marching toward Bayamo. The revolutionary forces, strong in number, are besieging Gibara and other towns, and two thousand of them are holding Colonel Irna in check at Tunas. The Marquis Santa Lucia and General Costello, at the head of the rebel bands, remain in the neighborhood of Puerto Principe. Provisions are arriving at Santiago for the troops, and furnishing the people of the Interior.

Senor Vasquez, who was killed by a Spanish officer, yesterday, was buried early this morning. Many friends accompanied the corpse from the house to the cemetery.

The following intelligence has been received from Hayti: The rebel General Sagel has advanced on Port au Prince and commenced a heavy cannonading, which was vigorously returned. President Salnave recently attended Te Deum in church at Miragoane, and while there a party of rebels attempted to capture him: but he was seasenably informed of the plot by a woman, and made his escape, although his personal staff and suite of attendants were attacked by the conspirators and cut to pieces.

Cape Haytien was closely besieged by the revolu-, tionary forces. Jacmel still remained in possession of the revolutionists, and was well prepared and able to resist the threatened attack of Salnave by land or sea.

It is reported that the revolutionists have suc ceeded in purchasing a steamer in New York.

The news from St. Domingo is unfavorable to the government party. General Adon had crossed the frontier from Hayti and joined the rebel General Orgando's forces.

The position of President Baez was becoming critical.

Advices from Caracas show that tranquillity pre vails throughout the country. No event of importance has taken place.

Since last account intelligence has been received from St. Themas of a fearful storm in that vicinity. The following British vessels put in there in distress: Ship Julia, from Newport for New York ; bark Stella, from Troon for New York ; schooner Minnie Arneld, from Havana for New York; also, the American bark Jane Adeline, from Portland

The Senatorial Nomination,

HARRISHURG, Jan. 7 .- As was anticipated in TARTISTICTION, Jan. 7.-AS was anticipated in the despatch published in THE EVENING TELE-GRAPH of Thesday, the caucus of Republican members of the Legislature met at 3 o'clock yesterday, and nominated Hon. John Scott of Huntingdon for United States Senator. All the other candidates were withdrawn, with the the exception of the Hon. Benjamin Harris Brewster, for whom Hon. M. B Lowry of Erle voted. For several days past nearly all of the candidates have been here. The absence of Mr. Brewster was noticeable, and was known to be intentional. He anticipated just such a com-bination as has taken place, and was unwilling to be a party to any of General Cameron's ar-rangements. He authorizes the statement that he has no part or lot in the nomination. Of Mr. Scott little is known except that he was in the Legislature some six years ago. He is said to the despatch published in THE EVENING TELE-Scott little is known except that he was in the Legislature some six years ago. He is said to be an estimable man and good lawyer, but is certainly not the choice of any proportion of the people of the State. Great disappointment is felt and and expressed here at the result, and indications of disgust are also appearing in the people of the State. other portions of the State.

Fight Between White and Colored Troops.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 7.-A Santa Fe despatch of January 6 reports an affray between the white and colored troops stationed at Central City, and colored troops stationed at Central City, near Pinos Aitos. Two white and three colored soldiers were killed, and a large number wounded. The difficulty occurred at a ball given by the white troops. The negroes claimed the right to dance, which was refused, and after a fight the colored troops obtained reinforce-ments from the fort, and returned to the ball-room the rout. room, murdering white soldiers on the road. It is also reported that they burned a building, and rayished the wife and daughter of its Another correspondent in San Miguel county

Another correspondent in San Miguel county states that a party of armed men, supposed to have been Mexicans, entered the town of Es-teritos, taking all the men prisoners, and car-ried them off fifteen miles, and hung and shot them-only two escaping. It is believed this was done in revenge for the murder of two Texans, killed near Apache Springs. The heighborhood is infested with a powerful gang of Maxican batcheved Indians, horse thieves; of Mexican half-breed Indians, horse thieves, and murderers. The Denver Board of Trade has unanimously endorsed the policy of Sherman and Sheridan with the Indian tribes.
