Foreign Affairs.

PARIS, Jan. 20 .- The French Blue Book for the year 1808 has made its appearance. The correspondence with the government at Washington hows that cordial relations continue to be main tained between France and the United States.

In reference to recent events in the Spanish peninsula, the Blue Book says France is faithful to the principles of her foreign policy and to her friendship for Spain, preserves strict neutrality and sincerely wishes her well through the crisis. Statistics are given to show the strength of the French army, which is officially reported to number 499,000 men, of whom 115,000 are on furlough. The Blue Book also contains dispatches between the French and Italian governments in regard to the evacuation of Rome by the French troops. All attempts to make an arrangement to that end proved fruitless.

PARIS, Jan. 20 .- Mr. Burlingame had an interview to-day with the Marquis De La Vallette, Minister of Foreign Affairs. The Liberte asserts that the President of the Cretan provisional government has escaped from Candia, and will go to the United States, where he will endeavor to raise a loan and purchase fronclads, with the object of making one more effort to free Candia.

MADKID, Jan. 20 .- The newly elected Cortes will meet for business on February 14.

LISHON, Jan. 20 .- The ministerial crisis has passed. Salatahan has declined to form a new cabinet, and the old ministers remain in office. CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 20 .- The truth of the report that Mr. Morris, American Minister, had been recalled by his government is positively de-HARANA, Jan. 20 .- Contrary to general expectation the Banco Del Comercia has not resumed payment, and its present condition is doubtful. Merchants who deposited in the bank are now embarrassed by the less of their money, and it is reported through the city that several houses intimately connected in business relations with the bank may tail unless it manages to make an arrangement with its creditors. Notes of the Spanish Bank are quoted at 5); per cent, discount. The general financial condition at present presents an inauspiclous appearance. Merchants in the city complain that they are unable to make collections from country merchants.

The Verdad, the new Liberal Journal, makes a severe attack upon the Spanish bank. The same paper denounces the attempts made this week to assassinate Spanish soldiers.

The insurgents have burned the town of Datil. Particulars of the destruction of Bayamo have been received. The inhabitants, before and after the firing of their homes, fled to the woods and Guira mountains. It is reported that the conflagration lasted three days. The Prensa says the rebels sacked the city before setting it on fire. Afflicting details are given of want and suffering of fugitive citizens in the mountainous districts, which are uninhabited and destitute of provisions.

Reports from Spanish sources state that Count Valmazeda is advancing with his whole force upon the rebels, who have posted themselves in the mountains.

The Diario is informed that the rebel General Jesus Perez offered to surrender himself and the forces under his command, provided an unconditional pardon be granted. The Spanish general at Santiago has conceded these terms, and expects that Perez will soon give himself up.

Authentic particulars of recent events and the condition of the revolutionists from Cuban sources are wanting, and there are no means at present of confirming the news given above, which is denied largely from official dispatches. The steamship Maryland has arrived, from Balti-

Pagis, Jan. 20.—Later advices from Rio Janeiro have been received to-day. The previous reports of the capture of Villeta and the lestruction of the Paraguayan army are fully

From Louisiana.

From Louisiana.

New Orleans, Jan. 20.—General Mower has been assigned to the command of the District of Louisiana. General Mower's regiment, the 39th infantry, has been transferred to this city.

General Buchanan has addressed the following letter to Senator Kellogg, in reply to the statements contained in Governor Warmouth's letter to the same Senator:

HEADQUARTERS OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA, NEW ORLEANS.—Hon. W. P. Kellogg, United States Senate, Washington, D. C.: Dear Sir.—In a printed letter of the date of December 19, 1868, addressed to you by Governor Warmouth, two passages relating to myself occur, which I cannot allow to go lating to myself occur, which I cannot allow to go unnoticed without having my motives and conduct during the November elections entirely miscon-strucci.

The Governor says: "At an interview between General Rousseau, General Buchanan General Hatch and myself, I became satisfied that the State had no friend in General Buchanan, and but little reliance was to be put in his active co-operation. He was severe in his criticisms, and seemed to sym-pathize with the hostility entermined by the encpathize with the hostility entertained by the ene-mies to the metropolitan police department, and suggested, as a necessity, that the old rebel force be restored. Our interview terminated without any satisfactory understanding."

The assertion that I was not a friend of the State would be cruel if it were not well known to your-self, sir, to be absurd. No one is more fully aware than Governor Warmouth that to myself and the prompt measures taken by me on the day after the assembling of the Legislature, at its session, was due on that and several days following the preservation of the lives of himself and all the prominent members of the Republican party in the Legislature and of the new State government. Does he call this hostility to the State? As to the criticisms referred to, he has forgotten to state that they were made by me as a soldier, and not as a politician. A few days before the Presidential election the Legislature had created a metropolitan police board, with the view to the appointment of a police force to supersede the old force, under the centrol of the mayor of the city and chief of police. prompt measures taken by me on the day after the control of the mayor of the city and chief of police. This appointment of the members of the new force created intense excitement throughout the city. and at the time referred to very seriously threat-and hence resistance to it was openly advocated. The members of the metropolitan force became utterly demoralized, the Governor became alarmed, and when at that interview I was consulted as to my views, I expressed the opinion, as a minitary man, that the change of the force at that juncture was unwise and injudicious, as it was similar in its effects to changing the forces of a general at a noment when he expected to fight a battle. I had used that force to keep the peace during the April elections, and the peace had been preserved, its chief had been appointed by General Sheridan and its members generally by Mayor Heath, himself an appointee of the same general.

The next passage in the Governor's letter to which I refer is as follows: "It was so small that General Buchanan stated in General Rousseau's presence that he (General Rousseau) would be justified in retiring with his troops as he would before an enemy of superior force." This passage relates to the number of troops at the general's disposal in the city during the election excitement.

The inference from it plainiy is that General Rousseau told the Governor of this allowed.

The inference from it plainly is that General Rouseau told the Governor of this alleged statement of mine. Unfortunately for the cause of truth, the lamented General has passed from among us; but I know what he would have said, and I therefore unhesitatingly deny that he ever made such a statement to Governor Warmouth, for the reason that it would not have been true. Very respectfully, your obedient servant, ROBERT C. BUCHANAN,

o-day heard the argument from Governor Wells and the mixed delegation of negroes and whites, urging that no legislation be had by Congress, but that the present Constitution of Virginia be allowed to remain as it is. They also appeared before the Senate Judiciary Committee, and urged the passage of the House bill now before the Committee, providing for hold ing an election under the present Constitution.

The Postal Committee of the House heard arguments against the Poetage Telegraph bill from William Orton, President of the Western Union Telegraph Company, he argument is to be continued to-

The Ways and Means Committee, among other things, discussed Sherman's financial scheme to-day. It is understood that
