THE DAILY SVENING TELEGRAPH CHILADRIAN SITURDAY, TANGERS S. TROS.

"I had rather be a Poritau than a Pilate. What is a Pilate? A Pilate is one of those courtly gentlemen, polished, tasteful, expert, who is not disturbed nor warped by convictions in over measure; who looks upon all moral qualities as a gambler looks upon cards, which he shufiles, and plays according to the exigency of his game-and one just as easily as another. A Pila'e is a man who believes in letting things have their own way. 'Do not sacrifice yourself. Do not get in the way of a movement. Do the best thing. Live in peace with your time. Be not like the foot who stands in his own light. Maintain good appearances-that is pro. fitable. See to it that you do not go too far, one way or another. Study the interests of Number One all through. And, whatever comes, see that you come uppermost. Do not be gross, brutal, fanatical-that is not profitable. Preserve your balance. See that you keep your eye on the chances. If they go this way, you go far enough to reap them. If they go the other way, go with them. Do not be too scrupulous. Be just enough to gain your ends. Uso men, use events, use everything that is profitable. Do not use your conscience too much!' This is the language of the Pilates of our day. Those who ride astride of the times and of administration and of policies; these men who are polished, cold, calculating, speculatingthese are the pirates-the Pllates, I mean! It was a blunder of the lip; but, after all, it hit

SUMMARY OF RELIGIOUS NEWS,

EPISCOPAL. -A movement is already in progress to found a new Episcopal denomination on an evangeli-cal basis. The evangelical bishops will be urgently invited to head the movement, -The Episcopalians in Nebraska are wide awake. They have a missionary in every place which has 500 inhabitants.

-During the canvass preceding the late Euglish election an Episcopalian clergyman told his audience at a morning service that he should preach politics in the evening, and the lad.es had better not attend. - There are two Protestant Episcopal sisterhoods in New York connected with the opposite poles of the denomination. One was originated by Mr. Muhlenberg in 1845. It is called the Sisternood of the Holy Communion, and is devoted mainly to the charge of St. Luke's Hospital. It is an independent orga-uization. The Sisterhood of St. Mary is under ecclesiastical control, and Rev. Morgan Dix is the chaplain. It is considerably on the model of Roman Catholic sisterhood, and has done a good work for fallen women.

-The acquittal of Mr. Hubbard by the ecclesiastical court more than balances the conviction of Mr. Tyng, on a far less serious charge. Mr. Tyng simply preached for a Methodist minister, in his church, against the remonstrance of the resident clergymen of his denomination. Mr. Hubbard deliberately ex-changed with a Bap ist minister, avowedly with e purpose of endorsing the validity of non-Episcopal ordination, and in spite of the protest of his bishop—and yet he is unanimously acquitted on every charge and specification but one; and on this a majority of the court acquit him. This specification, on which a slegle member of the court votes against him, has reference to his disobedience of the 'godly admonition," of his bishop. It is, therefore, lawful in Rhode Island, but not in New Jersey, for an Episcopal minister to recognize "one Denison" as a regularly ordained clergyman, even though he stands outside of this line of apostolic succession. Verily, the world moves, and we do not believe that Bishop Clark is sorry .- Independent. -The many friends of the Rev. Dr. Huntington, and especially the members of the Imhas sent in his resignation, to accept the Episcopal charge of the Diocese of Central New York. This is a severe ordeal to Dr. Huntingon, as all his habits, attachments, and associa tions are connected with Boston and with this community. He leaves, perhaps, what is the most desirable parish in the country, which pays a salary larger than any in New England, united and prosperous, and devotedly attache him, as its first and only pastor. The field labor to which he has been unanimously called is a most important one. It is half as large sgam as the State of Massachusetts, has Episcopal parishes in it already than Massachusetts has, and contains a harmonious and energetic body of clergy. There is also a wide opening for missionary work, and nothing wanting but a leading and organizing chief shepherd, and to this position, for which he seems so admirably adapted, Dr. Huntington is cordially invited. Hamilton College, University at Ithaca, and institutions of learning at Auburn and Utica, lie within the territory which embraces the prominent and growing cities and towns of Central New York. the Boston Traveller. -The earnest or the highly-sugared attempt of the High Church party in the Church of England, under the lead of Dr. Pusey, to win over the great body of Wesleyan Methodists to the support of the establishment, shows at once how heavily the pressure is felt of advancing public opinion, and the tenacity with which anglicanism clings to its fancied title of exclusive legitimacy. They do not intimate the least intention of receiving the Wesleyan preachers as Christian ministers, but only propose to ploy them as lay evangelists until they coneent to admit their irregularity by accepting reordination at the hands of some bishop. discussion of the subject has called out an able pamphlet by Rev. Dr. J. H Riggs, Wesleyan who goes right to the foundation both of the controversy and of the High Church assumption. Fe shows how Wesley himself wholly changed the views which he entertained in early life. After reading Lord King's book on the Primitive Church, he entirely renounced the High Church views, and boldly trampled, one after another, on all the princi ples involved in the divine right of Episcopacy, antil be had consecrated with his own an episcopate for America, and provided for the registration of his own chapels as 'Dissenting' places of worship. The present generation of Wesleyan preachers will never so much as seri ously consider a proposal to plunge their united and powerful organization into the confusi

They have a vast power for good in the country, and they have a great future before them; and they would be fools, indeed, if they even distantly considered—which they do noi—the question of remnion with a divided d, through its divisions, insecure establishment."- Independent,

-The Rev. Mr. Francis, at one time a missionary and colporteur in Richmond, Virginia, now of California, has recently visited Salt Lake City and preached, by Brigham Young's invitation, in the new tabernacle. Mr. Francis writes to the Home Mission Society that he has had an interview with the authorities, and with the United States Land Agent, to secure a lot

—A cit zen of Prussia is by birth a member of the Lutheran Church. If he wishes to become a Baptist, he must go before a magistrate and declare his purpose. After two weeks—the Lutheran pastor is expected to exert his eloquence to reclaim the wanderer—if he adhere to his determination, he must repeat his declaration before the magistrate, and is then allowed to depart in peace. This is not required of Methodists, as they do not differ from the Luthersus in their views of baptism. Persecution for opinion's sake has now ceased in Protestant Germany.

—Mr. Spurgeon defeuds himself for allowing Mr. Hammond the use of his Tabernacle for his air. Hammond the use of his Tabernacle for his children's meetings. He says it is none of his business to defend every object or organization to which the use of the Tabernacle is lent; that there are some things about Mr. Hammond's methods which he does not like. The services "have evidently been a blessing to our school; and, with much that is not at all to our taste, there we have the services there we have the services of the services. there was the true ring of fervent love to Christ in them, and we intend to wait and watch results. As to frightening or territying the children, nothing of the sort was attempted or accomplished; such remarks show a want of information." A good deal has been made of the crown of thorns and the hammer and nails which Mr. Hammond was said to use at his meetings. It is a fact that he has shown a crown of thorns, presented to him in Palestine as most probably the kind of thorns of which as most probably the kind of thorns of which the Saviour's crown was made. The hammer and nails he used in an entirely different connection, as a sort of "object lesson." He wished to impress on the children's minds the fact that the longer conversion was delayed the less the power over them of holy influences. He had a magnetic bammer and some small tacks, which represented the children drawn easily to the Saviour, layer nails were sported as rough saviour; larger nails were spoken of as youth, readily attracted, but not so easily as the children; and so on, until the hammer had little or no influence upon a very large nail. representing the grown-up man, hardened in —The Methodist Episcopal Church South has 535,040 members, including 6341 travelling and local preachers. They have charches as far north as Baltimore, Southern Illinois, California, and Oregon. There are 2551 members reported in Illinois.

ported in Illinois. -The Methodist states an interesting and encouraging fact when it says:-"It has been said that American Methodism dedicates a new church every day of the year, and the assertion has seemed to be more boastful than accurate. Yet the statistics of our own Church for 1866 show that it is within the truth, for our increase during that year, in the number of church edifices, reaches to five hundred and seventy, This makes something more than three new churches for every two days of the year. With an efficient Church Extension Society to give encouragement and aid where these are most needed, what may we not expect?"

PRESBYTERIAN.

-The First Church of St. Louis, Mo., is once Detroit, disappointed in Dr. William Hogarth, of more declining their call. more decining their call.

-The Northwestern Presbyterian says:-"The Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Knoxville, Ill., writes: -The Lord has been doing great things for us in our church. For the last two weeks He has been pouring out upon us the spirit of grace and supplication, and as soon as God's people became importunate, God began to convert sinners. The church is deeply moved, and the work is beginning to be felt in the whole community.

The church of Clarkson was organized in 1816. Soon after the formation of the Presbytery of Bochester, which occurred in 1819, that church connected itself with the presbytery, and remained in that connection until 1853, withdrew from presbytery, and has remained an independent Congregational church until the 6th instant, when it voted itself a Presbyterian church a ain, appointed elders, and resolved again to connect itself with the Presbytery of Rechester.

-The Rev. Matthew Newkirk was installed paster of North Tenth Street Presbyterian Church, in this city, on Sabbath, January 17. The church was filled with a large audience. In the services the Rev. Dr. Musgrave presided and delivered the charge to the paster, the Rev. D. A. Curningham preached the sermon, and the Rev. S. A. Mutchmore delivered the charge to the people. Mr. Newkirk was heartily welcomed by his new charge, and is fully engaged in his pastoral duties. We wish him abundant and constant success.

In the meantime we have sent 7 additional to Minnesota, 11 more to Iowa, 17 to Missouri and Kansas. By this addition a new synod—the Synod of Kansas—and two new Presbyteries—Humboldt and Smoky Hill—have been formed. The Modern Pilate.

A recent sermon of Mr. Beecher's describes the Modern Pilate in the following manner:—

of meetings in Providence in connection with Dr. Caldwell's Baptist church and Dr. Swan's Courtegational church.

—More than $19,000 have been collected and expanded for building the new church edides of the German Baptist Church on Footbeenth that the colporteur was discharged. The result was that the colporteur was discharged. The Judge decided that religious books and tracts sold and given away, not for profit, but as a means of distributing religious reading, were within the exception of the law, and that the colporteur of the Board was not a "peddler" required to have a license.

—The "Old Pine Street" congregation, in this -The "Old Pine Street" congregation, in this city, honor themselves in cherishing the memory of the eminent divine, Rev. Dr. Brainerd, who for nearly thirty years was their beloved and faithful pastor. Last year they erected a commodious and beautiful building in Carpenter street, called the "Brainerd Memorial Sabbath School," and now they contemplate, as a further measurable to it the large halfs in memorial, to fit up one of the large halls in Lafayette College for the use of the Brainerd Missionary Society. There is a peculiar pro-priety in this, for this society was not only named after the illustrious kinsman of the doctor, David Brainerd, one of whose missionary stations among the Indians was where the college now stands, but it will be remembered that it was before this society, at its anniversary in 1866, that Dr. Brainerd preached his last sermon. The congregation very naturally regard the work of this society with peculiar and tender interest; and as the increasing number of students in Lafayette College renders it necessary to fit up a larger room for their religious meetings, the triends of Dr. Brainerd have undertaken the work. The congregation will thus have another appropriate memorial of their beloved pastor in the "Brainerd Hall of Lafayette College."

GERMAN REPORMED. A Talk to Young Men, To-morrow evening the pulpit of Dr. Bethune's former church, corner of Tenth and Filbert streets, will be filled by Rev. Professor Doolittie, of Rutgers College. He will address himself especially to the young, whom he cordially invites to come and fill the church on the occasion. His toxt will be, "The way of the tran-gressor is hard." Dr. Doolittle has supplied the vacant pulpit of this church since the removal elsewhere of the Rev. Dr. Schenck.

CATHOLIC. - A conference of liberal Catholic priests has been held in Madrid, to consider the state of their affairs produced by the revolution; and it is understood that they have taken preliminary measures looking to the organization of an independent national Catholic Church. If they mean by "national" to make their church an appendage of the Government, they will fait. If they think they can give to their independent" organization the prestige and power arising from the patronage of the Pope, they will fail.—

-The Armenian Patriarch accepts the invitation of the Pope to attend the Œcumenical Council at Rome. The Greek Patriarch of Constantino-ple, of course under Russian influence, recuses. The Anglican bishops have written an answer with a keen pen. After referring to what the Church of England has done in disseminating the Holy Scriptures, they add:—

'Thou, our most holy Lord; Thou, the Vicar of Christ, the Bishop of Bishops, the Supreme Judge of the Fatth, and Arbiter of all controversies; Thou, the Head of the Church, the Light versies; Thou, the Head of the Church, the Light of the Nations, let us humbly ask Thee, caust Thou show us even a single copy of the original Hebrew Old Testament printed in Taine own city, Rome, 'the Mother and Mistress of all Churches?' No, not one. One edition of the New Testament in Greek, printed there the other day—about 400 years after the invention of printing—from the celebrated Vatican MS. we have now gratefully hailed, after long and anxious delay. But we apprehend that the flock committed to the pastoral care has still to wait for an edition from the Roman press, in their own tongue, of the Old and New Testament."
