HAVANA, Jan. 25.—Serious troubles have recently taken place in Jesu Maria Ward. Yesterday afternoon these disturbances broke out again in the same quarter. Some people on the house-tops fired upon the volunteers in the streets, and the latter returned the fire. It is not known whether any one was killed.

At a late hour in the evening the house of

Senor Aldana, a rich planter, suspected of giving aid and comfort to the revolutionists, was entered by police officers, supported by a guard of volunteers, and searched for arms supposed to have been hidden there. The building was budly damaged by the troops. The Spaniards report that this house was one of those from which the volunteers were fired

At nine o'clock on the same night, in the vicinity of the Louvre. Coffee House and Tacon Theatre opposite, shots were fired at some colunteers who were passing through the street. The lower hall of the Louvre was crowded with people, who were utterly ignorant of what are oing on outside, or on the upper doors of the building. The detachment of volunteers halted, faced the Louvre and fired apon the guests indiscriminately, with fatal results.

Several Spanish gentlemen, Government em-ployes and officers of the army, were killed. Iwo German merchants, Messrs. Rechling and Lappenberg, and many other persons, were dangerously wounded. Samuel Cokner, a well-known photographer from the United States, was attacked and killed near the Louvre, about the same time, by some armed men who are supposed to have belonged to the volunteer

While the advance was leaving Villanouva Theatre, shots were fired by which two ladies and several children were killed.

A meeting of the commanders of the volun-teer forces in the city was held to-day. General Dulce was present and deplored the recent oc-It was resolved that all volunteers. excepting those on guard, shall hereafter remain at their homes, and only come out when a signal of twelve gubs is fired, or at the command of their chief officers, until the arrival of additional troops from Spain. Sallors from the Spanish men-of-war in the harbor are to perform patrol duty, and they are now patrolling the streets outside the walls. Business has been suspended since the comencement of the disturbances with the volum teers, but the people are now greatly relieved and the feeling of security grows stronger, as the sailors are well disciplined, sober and faithful, and perform their duties to the satisfaction of II. The city is now perfectly quiet. HAVANA, Jan. 25—10 P. M.—All quarters of the city, inside and outside the walls, are quiet. Nothing has occurred to night to disturb the public tranquility. The killing of Mr. Cokner is the general theme of conversation, and is looked upon as a cowardly assassination.

Mrs. Lincoln Petitions Congress for a Pension.

The President pro tem, of the Senate laid before that body yesterday the following petition from Mis. Lincoln, written upon note paper, with a heavy mourning border:—

To the Hon, Vice-President of the United States—Sir:—I herewith most respectfully present to the honorable Senate of the United States—sir:—I herewith most respectfully present to the honorable Senate of the United States—sir:—I have a provident or a provident of the United States—sir:—I have been senated by the content of the United States—sir:—I have been supplied to the United States and the United Sta States an application for a pension. I am a widow of a President of the United States whose life was sacrificed in his country's service; that said calamity has very greatly impaired my health, and by the advice of my physiciaus I have come over to Cermany to try the mineral waters, and during the winter to go to Italy but my financial means do not permit me to take advantage of the urgent advice given me nor can I live in the style becoming the widow Chief Magistrate of a great nation although I live as economically as I can. It consideration of the great services my deeply. lamented husband has rendered to the United States, and of the fearful loss I have sustained by his untimely death—his martyrdom, I may say—I respectfully submit to your honorable body this petition, hoping that a yearly pension may be granted me, so that I may have less ecuniary care.

I remain most respectfully,

Mrs. A. Lincoln.

Frankfort, Germany.
The petition was referred to the Committee on

Bradley's Case-An Order to Restore him to Practice.

The following is the writ of mandamus served upon the Justices of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia yesterday morning in the matter of the restoration of Joseph H. Bradley, Sr., to his position as a member of the bar of said court:

United States of America:-The President of the United States to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia and Justices thereof,

Whereas, It has been made to appear to the Supreme Court of the United States that Joseph H. Bradley was duly admitted and enrolled as an attorney and solicitor authorized to exercise the rights, privileges, and franchises thereof in your court; yet you, the Justices of said Sa-preme Court of the District of Columbia, without reasonable cause, have unjustly removed said J. H. Bradley from the place and office of attorney and solicitor to the said court, to the no small damage and grievance to him, the said J. H. Bradley, as set forth in his complaint to said Supreme Court of the United States in that behalf, and which fully appears of record in the said court:

Now, therefore, in order that speedy justice shall be done in this behalf to said J. H. Bradley, you are hereby enjoined that, immediately after the receipt of this writ, you do restore or cause to be restored the said J. H. Bradley into said place and office of one of the attorneys and solicitors in your court, with all the liberties. privileges, and franchites of sald place of one of the attorneys and solicitors of your court be longing and apperiaining, lest on your default herein complaint should be made to the said Supreme Court of the United States; and how you shall have executed this writ make known to the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States on the 26th day of January, 1869, and have you then and there this writ.

Witness—The Hon. S. P. Chase, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, this 21st day of January, 1869. D. A. MIDDLETON. Clerk of Supreme Court of the United States The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia has not yet acted in this matter.

LETTER FROM T MORRIS PEROT & CO. PHILADELPHIA, Twelfth Month 8th, 1888, Messrs, Farrel. Herring & Co., No. 629 Chesnut street—Gents:—It is with great pleasure that we add our testimony to the value of your Patent Champlon Sale. At the destructive fire on Market street, on the evening of the 3d inst., Jour store was the centre of the conlagration, and, being filled with a large stock of conflagration, and, being filled with a large stock of drugs, oils, turpentine, paints, varnish, alcohol, etc., made a severe and trying test. Your Safe stood in an exposed situation, and fell with the burning floors into the cellar among a quantity of combustible materials. We opened it next day and found our books, papers, bank notes bills receivable, and; entire contents all safe. It is especially gratifying to us that your Safe came out all right as we had entrusted our most valuable books to it. We shall want another of your Safes in a few days, as they have our entire confidence.

Yours, respectfully, T. MORRIS PEROT & CO. HERRING'S FATEN'T CHAMPION SAFES, the victors in more than 500 accidental ires. Awarded the Prize Medals at the World's Fair, London; World's Fair, New York; and Exposition Universelle, Paris. Manufactured and for sale by

NEW GoldDen Eagle Furnace.
This is an entirely new heater. It is so constructed as to at once commend itself to general favor, being a combination of wrought and cast from it is very simple in its construction, and is perfectly airright; self-cleaning, havingno pipes or drums to be taken out and cleaned. It is so arranged with apright sines as to produce a larger amount of beat from the same weight of coal than any furnace now in usa. The hygrometic condition of the air as produced by my new arrangement of evaporation will at once demonstrate that it is the only Hot Air Furnace that will produce a perefitty heatiny atmosphere.
