Officer Cunningnam corroborated the evidence of Officer Selkirk, and deposed that Mansfield was found in his shirt sleeves; he appeared to be very cold and could not speak.

Andrew J. McNamee testified to seeing the deceased going futo the Good Will Engine Company's house shortly before 12 o'clock; he was so drunk that he could hardly stand up; he had a light overcoat on at the time; saw no one with him when he left.

Benjamin Kerns deposed to seeing Mansfield

Berjamin Kerns deposed to seeing Mansfield string on a chair in the engine house. He asked witness to take a drink with him, and he accompanied him to a tavern at Juniper and Arch streets. From the tavern they returned to the engine house, and witness went to sleep. On waking up Mansfield was not to be found. It was about 12 o'clock when witness and deceased returned to the engine house. He had a light overcoat on at the time.

Albert H. Smith testified to leaving Mansfield in the engine house at about 20 minutes past 12 o'clock. He was a drinking man; witness never knew him to have a quarrel with any one.

Charles Herr testified that he saw Mansfield wing on the sidewalk near the steps of his residence, No. 1315 Race street, about one o'clock on Sunday morning.

dence, No. 1815 Race street, about one o'clock on Sunday morning.

Michael Mansfield, brother of deceased, testified to Thomas being removed from the station house to his home, where he died shortly after being admitted.

Dr. McClernand, of No. 1601 Vine street, testified to attending Mansfield shortly before his death. The man was in such a condition that he saw there was no necessity of prescribing medicine.

Dr. Shapleigh deposed that he made a post mortem examination of the body of deceased.
He found a large clot of blood behind the left oar, between the scalp and bone. There were no external marks of violence. There was a and external marks of violence. There was a fracture of the occipital bone five inches long, and the bloodvessels of the brain were much congested. He came to his death from compression of the brain. The New York Money Market.

"The rates of money to the brokers are quite irregular to day, the changes since yesterday inclining to increase ease in the market. The great dealers in the public tunds had heavy balances left with them by banaing and other wealthy moneyed corporations at 5 per cent., while the terms for demand loans upon the atreet were test per cent. and generally at 7 per cent. as the rule upon the railway stocks on which the chief employment at present runs. The amount of the public furds held on this side the Atlantic on speculation and requiring money loans to carry them forward is being daily reduced, so that the Government dealers, like Messra. Jay Cooke & Co., Fisk & Hatch, Verminge & Co., and others are tendered myre money on call than they are willing to use, except at 5 per cent. Five hundred copies of the bill regulating the election of railroad directors, and to prevent fraud therein, were ordered to be printed.

The last bill offered by Mr. Henszey to establish a Metropolitan Police Board in Philadelphia was reported favorably from the committee and ordered to be printed in the Record. This bill was agreed upon some time since in the Republican caucus.

The Committee on Finance made a lengthy report on the subject of selling bonds of the report on the subject of selling bonds of the Pennsylvania Rulfroad Company now held by the Commissioners of the Stuking Faud. Tuey say they do not think the bonds can now be sold, or that it is advisable to attempt to dis-pose of them, and that all the State can de-mand or enforce is a faithful compliance of the mand or enforce is a faithful compliance of the railroad company with the terms of the con-tract of 1861. By this the State will receive au-nually $450,000 until 1890, when $365,65134 in full, the balance of the debt, will be paid. Mr. Billingfelt read in his place a bill requir-ing County Commissioners to give a bond with sureties for the faithful performance of their duties.

Mr. Randall, one to empower the Sheriff and Prothonotary of Schuylkill county to sue for Mr. Connell, one making the lawful rate of interest, in all cases where no express contract is made for a different rate, six per cent;; also one giving the health officers certain powers relative to the abatement of nuisances.

anthracite coal mined by railroad companies. By Mr. Jackson, authorizing officers of banks to open all packages left on special or secret deposit, and to hard a statement of the same to the Auditor-General.

By Mr. Meek, authorizing the Courts of Common Pleas to grant charters to mutual life insurance companies.

By Mr. Robb, requiring the erection and maintenance of fish ways on the river Braudywine.

By Mr. Rogers, authorizing the trustees of the Scots Presbyterian Church, in Spruce street, to sell and incumber real estate; also, a supplement to an act relation to the elections, approved June 11, 1836. This bill proposes to compet the prothonotaries of the courts to enter on the judgment index all recognizances, "etc," filed as security for stay of execution, thus preventing fraudulant sales of property between the beginning and ending of the stay of execution.

Illinois Legislature. CHICAGO, Feb. 11 .- The Lake Park bill was passed in the Illinois Legislature yesterday. It cedes to the city of Chicago a strip of land 400 feet wide and half a mile long east of Michigan avenue, partially submerged by the lake, the proceeds of the sale or lesse of which are to constitute a park fund for the city. East of the Illinois Central Railroad track and breakwater, one mile, all under water, is granted to that company.

Fuller's second railroad bill is more objectionable than the one vetoed by the Governor. It not only compels the railroad to adopt a cheap uniform fare, but prevents their granting commutation, excursion, or half fare tickets.

Execution of Whalen.

Butler's Resolution Concerning Wade Butler's resolution was brought up the first thing after the journal had been read. Mr. Shellabarger of Obio is now making an able argument on the subject. He opposes Butler's resolution. Speaker Colfax has left the chair, inasmuch as he said on the floor yesterday that Butler's motion was not a question of privilege. Mr. Dawes of Massachusetts is in the chair. He will appoint a committee on the part of the House to inform the President and Vice President elect of their election. Colfax made this request, as he was an interested party.

More Excitement Anticipated. The galleries of the House are filling up fast, in anticipation of a scene when action is taken on Butler's motion. Nothing else is talked of here to-day.

THE LATEST NEWS

The Spanish Cortes-Ferdinand, of Portugal, the Favorite for King-The Debate on Butler's Resolution in the House.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Debate on Butler's Resolution.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.-Judge Blugham of Ohio has just finished a very able and sharp sparch against Gen. Butler's resolution. He denounced it as revolutionary, and as an act of secession and anarchy. He warned the House against being led into adopting a measure which would involve a difficulty between the two houses. He hoped the resolution would be laid npon the table, there to rot.

During the delivery of this speech General Butler stood directly in front of Judge Bingham, and seemed quite uneasy under the scatting remarks and criticisms on his resolution. At the close of Judge Bingham's speech Mr. Farusworth tried to get the floor to move to lay the resolution on the table, but failed, Mr. Schenck getting it to make a speech in favor of the resolution.

Bliss and Masterman. De patch to the Associated Press.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day sent to the House, in compliance with the resolutions alrealy passed, voluminous correspondence relative to affairs in Paraguay. It appears that on the 4th of December last Admiral Davis addressed Lopez a letter, in which he says:-"It does not belong to me to consider the status of Bliss and Masterman, but on this subject your Excellency will, I do not doubt, repose confidence in the justice and friendship of the United States, which has afforded your Excellency many recent proofs of its respect and sympathy." Lopez replied that these persons were crimfnals, deeply committed in the affair of a horrible conspiracy, very particularly the former.

The Virginia Constitution. WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 .- It is said that the denate Committee on the Judiciary has determined to report in favor of a modification of the Constitution of Virginia, as suggested by the committee of nine.

United States Senate.

Continued from Fourth Edition. Mr. Chandler moved to take a recess from 4 30 to 7 P. M., the evening session to be devoted to the consideration of the River and Harbor bill a d other matters reported from the Committee Mr. Fessenden objected, and Mr. Suerman's no ion to take up the Currency bill was then oa ried.

Mr. Chandler moved to postpone that bill to allow him to renew his motion for an evening session, which was carried.

The motion for a recess from 4 till 7 P. M. was carried, and the Senate resumed the consideration of the Currency bill, upon which Mr. Conkling addressed the Senate.

House of Representatives. Continued from Fourth Edition. It was not wonderful that they had fallen into dun.t and trouble about a matter so new, so undefined, and in which they were so unaided by precedent.

Mr. Shellubarger proceeded to quote the severai commentaries on the Constitution which had any bearing on the question, and summed up the application of his quotations by saying that if Casncellor Kent was right, and if the that if Chancellor Kent was right, and if the President of the Senate had the power to do the counting, then clearly, the House was lavading that count, except to see that it was nonest.

Mr. Butler—How are we to see that?

Mr. Sheilabarger—The gentieman must go for his abswer to Justice Story, who regrets that the Constitution had not made a detailed provision for the case. The gentleman cannot deleat the argument by showing that there may be defects or a casus omissus found in the constitution. If it be not the President of the Senate who does the counting, but the two nouses in joint convention, then I ask what privileges of the House have been invaded by the refusal of the Fresident of the Senate to recognize the separate vote of the House of Representatives, which separate vote it had no authority to give? He went on to argue that the concurrent resolution in reference to the electoral vote of Georgia was not unconstitutional, and that it was copied from a similar concernent resolu-tion adopted at the time of the election of President Montoe.

Mr. Thomas related how, thirty-two years ago, he had been a teller to count the electoral votes, when Mr. Van Buren was elected; how a officilty then existed in relation to the State of Michigan, and how Mr. Clay, with his great foreight and learning, had anticipated and avoided the difficulty by preparing and having adopted a concurrent resolution similar to that under which the joint convention acted yesterday.

FROM EUROPE. The Spanish Cortes and the Throne.

By Atlantic Cable. MADRID, Feb. 11 .- The greatest interest is felt in the proceedings of the Constituent Cortes, the sessions of which commence here to-day. Rivero will certainly be chosen President. A majority of the members favor the selection of Ferdinand, father of the reigning King of Portugal, as the future ruler of Spain, and should he refuse, the Duke de Montpensier will probably be chosen.

The movements of the Carlists in Guipescoa, Biscay, and Alava, commonly known as the Basque provinces, are quite active.

The French Government is watching the frontier closely.
