

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. OPERA BOUFE.—To-morrow the sale of single seats will commence for the brief season of opera boufe to be given at the Academy of Music next week by Mr. Fick's troupe, under the direction of Adolph Birgfeld, Esq. The opening opera, on Monday evening, will be Offenbach's latest work, La Perle de la Chine, in which M. Anjane and Mad'le Irma will appear. Three other pieces, never given in this city, will also be produced, as well as the old favorites, La Grande Duchesse, La Belle Helene, and Barbe Bleue. As only seven performances will be given, the house will undoubtedly be filled to overflowing each evening. AT THE WALNUT Mr. Barney Williams will have a benefit this evening, when the drama of All Hail Eve, or Snap Dragon Night will be performed, to be followed by the burlesque of Connecticut Cowbird and the comic drama of Barney the Baron. On Monday John Brougham's drama of The Emerald Ring will be produced, with new scenery and effects. AT THE ARCADE the comedy of A Victim of Circumstances and Brougham's burlesque of Poca-hontas will be given this evening. AT THE CHESTNUT Mr. Thomas Whitlin will have his first benefit this evening. Offenbach's operetta of La Rose de St. Fleur and "50" will be performed. Mr. Whitlin sings with much taste and feeling, and he has established himself in the favor of the playgoing public as a comedian of more than ordinary ability. We hope that he will receive the compliment of a crowded house this evening. On Monday Offenbach's comic opera of Robin son Crusoe will be performed for the first time in America. AT THE AMERICAN a matinee will be given to-morrow, at which the Japanese will appear. THE SEVEN HARBLES ORCHESTRA will perform Mozart's symphony No. 5, and a variety of other selections, at Musical Fund Hall to-morrow afternoon. THE ARABIAN NIGHTS ENTERTAINMENT will open at Concert Hall on Thursday evening, March 4. This entertainment will be both novel and attractive; it will consist of fifty beautiful tableaux, in addition to which a combination of talented artists will appear in a variety of amusing performances. Carleton, the Irish comedian, will personate a number of comic characters; Professor O'Reardon will perform his "tumbler's act"; Signor Charles Garmio will give a number of character songs; Miss Carrie Vernon will sing popular songs and ballads. At every performance one hundred valuable gifts will be distributed to the audience.

CITY ITEMS.

PRICES GREATLY REDUCED.—To close out Winter Stock of Men's, Youth's and Boys' Clothing. Half-price sale. TOWNS HALL, Sixth Street, No. 518 MARKET ST. AND NO. 606 BROADWAY, NEW YORK. A RARE OPPORTUNITY TO PURCHASE BOOKS.—Mr. Duffield Ashmead is now closing out his extensive stock of Books, Stationery, and works of art, previous to making alterations and improvements to his store, at No. 724 Chestnut Street. He is offering, at a very low price, a large and valuable stock of books, including the best of the day—English and American Bibles in various kinds of binding; Prayer-Books bound in velvet, and many other books of every description; American and English Juveniles and Toy Books; Historical, Biographical, Theological and Scientific Works; Travels and Poetry. Mr. Ashmead also has the superbly illustrated works of G. Lave Dore, and a large assortment of Fine Art Books, with photographic illustrations, such as "The Masterpieces of Italian Art," the great works of Sir David Wilkie, "The Masterpieces of Old Masters," etc. The finest French, English, and American Stationery can be purchased at Mr. Ashmead's at a remarkably low price. Considering the fact that Mr. Ashmead is about closing out his extensive stock, a splendid opportunity is presented to those in search of such material as can be found at No. 724 Chestnut Street. Mr. Ashmead will also dispose of, as a reduction of 25 to 50 per cent. below the regular prices, a splendid assortment of the finest American and foreign chronicles, histories, romances, and all the latest writing desks, pocket-books, etc. Any books not on hand, if ordered, will be supplied at 25 per cent. less than publishers' prices. We advise all those in want of the articles and works above enumerated to at once call upon Mr. Ashmead and make their selections.

PRESCRIBING FOR THE PEOPLE.—We have dispensaries, hospitals, noble institutions of all kinds for the relief of human ills. Every thoughtful citizen appreciates the value of these establishments for the amelioration of suffering. But they do not cover the whole ground; indeed, it is impossible, in the nature of things, that the amount of good they do should be as all in proportion to the popular need. They are confined principally to large cities, and are not available in the remote West, for example of what the New York City Hospital, or the New York Dispensary? But, although asylums for invalids are not to be found everywhere, an unequalled tonic and alterative is within the reach of all. There is no settlement that bears a name, within the limits of the United States, where Hovell's Specific Balm is not procurable. It is a medicine for the whole community, easily obtainable by all its members. At this period of the year, when the "faint sun of February" is beginning to evoke unwholesome vapors from the earth, and the "fever and ague season" is close at hand, this excellent vegetable preparation should be taken as a prophylactic. It is a medicine for the whole community, easily obtainable by all its members. THE DIFFERENCE IN DRESS between a man of sense and a fool is that the former values himself upon his dress and the man of sense laughs at it; at the same time he knows he must not neglect it. It is common saying that the "dress makes the man." It certainly does, so far as your general appearance is concerned, which is a very important consideration when you wish to appear in society to the best advantage; for who would tolerate a badly-dressed person in circles where fashion is respected? When properly represented, there is no necessity to go into extremes in dress to be fashionable, but a reasonable indulgence in fancy material, when it is selected in good taste, is allowed and admired. A wardrobe of dress is very alluring, and a total neglect of dress is an unpardonable insult upon custom and fashion. Always dress well and in good taste. Do not doubt your own judgment in selecting the material for your wardrobe, but secure the aid of an artist whose reputation is well established, and who you are satisfied will dress you as a gentleman of taste and refinement. Such an artist you will be sure to find at the well-known Temple of Fashion, CHARLES BROOKS & CO., No. 824 Chestnut Street.

JEWELRY.—Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 15 South Second Street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of fine jewelry and silverware in the city. Purchasers can rely upon obtaining a real, pure article furnished at a price which cannot be equalled. He also has a large stock of American Western watches in all varieties and at all prices. A visit to his store is sure to result in pleasure and profit.

MECHANICS, NOTION.—We would call the attention of engineers, mechanics, and the public generally to the case of silver-plated instruments on exhibition at Ashcroft's railway, engineer, and steam-supply store, No. 133 South Fourth Street. The case is surrounded by an eagle, and consists of a steam-gauge, engineer's clock, conometer, thermometer, and barometer all combined, and forming a complete set of engineer's requisites. It was manufactured for Messrs. Miller & Allen, of Chester, Pa., at a cost of one thousand dollars. The public are invited to examine the instruments any time during the day.

SALE OF PAINTINGS.—Last evening, at Scott's Art Gallery, No. 1030 Chestnut Street, Mr. C. W. F. Caldwell's private collection of high-class modern paintings was sold. Many of the works were from the pencils of leading artists of the Düsseldorf, English, French, and American schools. The assembly of connoisseurs was the largest that ever attended a similar sale in this city. Every painting was sold. The bidding was spirited, and the prices ranged high. Some of the more excellent of the works brought not far from $50.

PURE, PLEASANT, PERPETUAL.—Let such as wish for a pure, pleasant, and life-renewing tonic, try Mr. Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters," and thereafter they will use none other. The most temperate use them with perfect impunity, as well as the most delicate females. They are not medicated, but simply made bitter by Parovian Bark, Wild Cherry Bark, Calamus, Ginger, Snake Root, and other herbs and roots, the base being his pure wine. Sold by all druggists.

THE TIME HAS COME FOR SPRING OVERCOATS. We have them for $40-50. We have them for $45-50. We have them for $50-50. We have them for $55-50. We have them for $60-50. All prices up to $45. All prices up to $55. All prices up to $65. All prices up to $75. W. VANAMAKER & BROS., THE LARGEST CLOTHING HOUSE, 1115 W. M. T. HOPKINS' 1115.

MARRIED. FRICK—EVANS.—February 21, by the Rev. George L. Hanna, at his residence, No. 97 Aramingo Street, Philadelphia, Mr. AARON FRICK to Miss CLARA E. EVANS, both of this city. MCGONIGLE—COUNTESS.—On Christmas Eve, December 24, by the Rev. M. D. Kurtz, WILLIAM C. HULL, of Philadelphia, to HANNAH A. COUNTESS, of Wilmington, Del.

DIED. ARCHER.—On the 24th instant, of congestion of the lungs, Captain JOHN S. ARCHER, in the 53rd year of his age. The relatives and friends of the family, Camden Lodge, No. 15, A. F. and M.; Grand Encampment, No. 12, W. H. H. Adams Association, from his late residence of Philadelphia, and the Employees of Baird & Loper's Canal Line, are respectfully invited to attend his funeral, to be held at 12 o'clock, on Sunday, the 26th instant, at 1 o'clock P. M. DICKENSHETS.—On the 24th instant, ELIZABETH DICKENSHETS, aged 81 years. The relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend his funeral, from his late residence, No. 97 Leithgow Street, below George, on Sunday afternoon, the 26th instant, at 1 o'clock.

OBITUARY. It is with the keenest sorrow that we are called upon to record the death of Mr. EDWARD YARBROW, a young man just rising in life, surrounded by friends and family, and beloved by all. It is a painful thing to hear of the decease of the advanced in years, but how much more keenly falls the sorrow when the expectations of future hopes are blighted by a premature grave. The deceased was possessed of exceedingly excellent qualities. Amiable to a fault, without an enemy in the world, he is called to his last account. He was both respected and beloved. He was a member of Company D, Gray Reserves, as well as a member of other organizations, all of whom have shown their regard for his memory and regret at his loss.

FIFTH EDITION THE LATEST NEWS.

The Thanks of Turkey to the Great Powers.—The Bank of France Market Quotations.

FROM EUROPE. The Bank of France. The Bullion in the Bank of France has increased 11,000,000 francs since the last report.

The Sublime Porte. The Sublime Porte has issued a circular to the great powers of Europe, thanking them for the attitude taken in the late difficulties with Greece.

Ship News. LIVERPOOL, Feb. 26.—Arrived out, steamships: China at Queenstown; Westphalia at Southampton; and Europa at Glasgow, all from New York.

This Evening's Quotations. ANTI-SHIP, Feb. 25.—Petroleum opened unchanged.

FROM WASHINGTON. The Coming Cabinet. Impresions concerning the construction of the incoming Cabinet multiply rapidly, but as yet there is no ground for believing that the name of any of the proposed members will be made public even an hour before the date of their nomination to the Senate, as announced by General Grant to the Congressional committee two weeks ago.

The Public Debt Statement for the present month will be issued rather than usual in March, and will not be delayed until the 6th or 7th as usual. The indications of a decrease continue to be very good.

United States Senate. Continued from the Fourth Edition. Mr. Morrill (Vt.) withdrew his amendment, and Mr. Morgan (W. Va.) moved that the question be referred to the Senate when it is again in session. Mr. Sherman said that the resolution was adopted a resolution that the Senators should be paid only from the beginning of the session to the commencement of the Congress.

Mr. Sherman was willing to pay them from the beginning of the second session, but not from the commencement of the Congress. Mr. Ferry was in favor of adhering to the resolution already made, to pay these Senators only from the date of the admission of their respective States, if that should be the action of the Senate, the precedent would be followed in the House, and that $100,000 would be paid out of the Treasury.

Mr. Trumbull also was in favor of adhering to the resolution, which was in accordance with law and reason. Mr. Williams said he was already committed against paying any of the Senators for any time prior to the admission of their respective States.

Mr. Kellogg (La.), a son of the Senator from the same State, stated that the resolution would not be passed at the time of his election, and had no intention of desire to draw pay for the time prior to his admission to the Senate.

The expiration of the morning hour interrupted the debate. Mr. Sherman moved that the bill be reported to the Senate to-day, from the Committee on Finance. Mr. Sherman stated that in order to remove any doubt as to the purpose of the Government, to discharge all its just obligations, and to settle pending questions and interferences of its laws by legislative action, it is hereby provided and declared that the faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of the same, in full, in gold or in lawful money or other currency than gold and silver.

The second section, legislating coin contracts, is not changed. Mr. Wilson introduced a bill for the relief of the United States officers and soldiers who sustained loss by the disasters to the steamships Winthail Scott and San Francisco, reported to the Committee on Claims.

The report of the committee of conference on the constitutional amendment on the special order for 2 o'clock, then came up. The report was read, as follows: "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

Mr. Fessenden reviewed the action of the House and the Senate on the pending amendment up to this time, and said that the committee of conference had exceeded their powers and had introduced a bill by tampering with the text of the bill as agreed upon at different times by both houses.

Mr. Howard read the amendment in the form agreed upon by the committee of conference, as inadequate to the demands of the country, and likely, if adopted, to lead to difficulty in the future. Mr. Edmunds said that the committee of conference had struck out one-half of an indivisible truth, and by the remaining half in reality a falsehood. From the amendment agreed upon by the committee it would seem that Congress was so eager to do something by way of amending the Constitution, that they forgot that it made any difference what they did.

House of Representatives. Mr. Mullins, returning to the defense of the Committee on Appropriations, referred to it as a body working in harmony with the House, as unimpaired in character, and yet so being charged with things for which, if true, its members should be expelled from the House.

Mr. Chandler—I rise to a question of order. (Shouts of Order.) Mr. Mullins, I believe the House is not as the Tennessee confederate. (Laughter.) The Chairman to Mr. Mullins: The gentleman will confine himself to the second section.

Mr. Mullins—Sir, I am trying to clear the brush out of the way, which has been thrown in without any cause or reason, to apply as an argument to the question under discussion. (The Chairman directed members who had gathered around Mr. Mullins to take their seats.) Now, as to the mounting of these men, and as to the complaint which the gentleman makes of employing men as a "rough lot," I can see but little cause or reason in the argument. Mr. Chandler said something here about Tennessee mules.

FIRE AND BURGLAR PROOF SAFES CHAMPION SAFES!

PHILADELPHIA, JANUARY 18, 1889. Messrs. FARREL, HERRING & CO., No. 629 Chestnut Street. Gentlemen.—On the night of the 13th inst., as is well known to the citizens of Philadelphia, our large and extensive store and valuable stock of merchandise, No. 802 Chestnut Street was burned.

The fire was one of the most extensive and destructive that has visited our city for many years, the heat being so intense that even the marble cornice was almost obliterated. We had, as you are aware, two of your valuable and well-known CHAMPION FIRE-PROOF SAFES, and nobly have they vindicated your well-known reputation as manufacturers of FIRE-PROOF SAFES, if any further proof had been required.

They were subjected to the most intense heat, and it affords us much pleasure to inform you that after recovering them from the ruins, we found upon examination that our books, papers, and other valuables were all in perfect condition. Yours, very respectfully, JAS. E. CALDWELL & CO.

THE ONLY SAFES EXPOSED TO THE FIRE IN CALDWELL'S STORE WERE FARREL, HERRING & CO.

PHILADELPHIA, JAN. 18, 1889. Messrs. FARREL, HERRING & CO., No. 629 Chestnut Street.

Gentlemen.—On the night of the 13th inst. our large store, 8, W. corner of Ninth and Chestnut streets, was, together with our heavy stock of wall papers, entirely destroyed by fire. We had one of your PATENT CHAMPION FIRE-PROOF SAFES, which contained our principal books and papers, and although it was exposed to the most intense heat for over 60 hours, we are happy to say it proved itself worthy of our recommendation. Our books and papers were all preserved. We cheerfully tender our testimonial to the many already published, in giving the HERRING SAFE the credit and confidence it justly merits.

Yours, very respectfully, HOWELL & BROTHERS.

STILL ANOTHER. PHILADELPHIA, JAN. 19, 1889. Messrs. FARREL, HERRING & CO., No. 629 Chestnut Street.

Gentlemen.—I had one of your make of safes in the basement of J. E. Caldwell & Co.'s store at the time of the great fire on the night of the 13th inst. It was removed from the ruins to-day, and on opening it I found all my books, papers, greenbacks, watches, and watch materials, etc., all preserved. I feel glad that I had one of your truly valuable safes, and shall want another of your make when I get located.

Yours, very respectfully, F. L. KIRKPATRICK, with J. E. Caldwell & Co., No. 519 Chestnut Street.
