NEWS SUMMARY.

Local Affairs. The formal reception of Hon. Carl Schurz, Senator-elect from Mi-souri, took place last evening at the rooms of the German Society, Seventh street, above Chest.ut. Mr. W. J. Horstman, the President of the Society, make the resident of the Society, make the resident of the Society make. the welcoming speech, expressing the gratifica-tion of the Germans of Phila lelphia, irrespective of party, at the opportunity to greet him. Mr. Schurz in his reply acano sledged his thanks for the kind reception, and suggested that the Germans and Americans can readily fraternize, and by taking the best ideas of both nations, do that which would redound to the credit of

At 10 o'clock Mr. Schurz was serenaded, and at 11 o'clock he left for Washington.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Republican Invincibles was held at the rooms of the National Union Club last evening, to make arrangements for the trip to Washington to a tend the inauguration of General Grant. Colorel William McMichael, President of the Club, addressed the members, and spoke of the importance of the trip and the past reputation of the Club, the high honors which had been extended to them on receiving the right of the who were doubtful to register their names. Eloquent addresses were made by Major A. K. Calboun and Alexander P. Colesberry, Vice-President. The Club will assemble at No. 1105 Chesput street, at 8 30 on Wednesday morning, adding, full equipped, in dark, children regular. 3d inst., full equipped in dark clothes, regula-tion cap, and white gloves. Members desirous of particulating can obtain information of Egra ukens, Treasurer of the Club, at Fourth and Harmony streets.

Foreign Affairs, HAVANA, March 1.-General Duello, with his command, has arrived at Santa Espiritu, from Cienfuegos.

The Diario reports an engagement between the troops and insurgents, at the town of Cien-faegos, in which the troops were victorious. The same paper states that three hundred rebels have surrendered at Villa Ciara.

It seems that General Lesea is advancing into the interior without meeting with much opposition. The rebels expected he would march by the Sierra de Cubitas, or take the road to Para-diel, where they had erected entrenchments and were ready to oppose his progress, but General Lesea unexpectedly took another route d outwitted the rebel General Quesada,

The Diario asserts that the revolutionary General Napoleon Aringa has joined Count Valmaseda with two thousand men, abandoning the rebellion, and that Valmaseda, reinforced by a thousand of these men, has set out from Puerto Principe to meet General Lesea, when, with their combined forces, they will attack

The Contested Elections, Examiners Messick and Batturs sat again yesterday afternoon. A number of witnesses swore to false personations, when the following additional was elicited:— James C. Adams testided that he was the Republican inspector in the Eigath division of the Fourth ward; John McKeown was the Domocratic inspector; William J. Furey was the judge; witness got to the polls about a quarter after 7 A. M.; the election was going on, and quite a number of votes had been taken; the udge qualified witness and his clerk; witness kept the book and McKeown kept the tickets; votes were taken as fast as the tickets could be separated and dropped into the boxes, no time ing allowed to examine whether they were on the assessment list or not; witness renon-strated against taking the tickets so fast, telling him it was impossible to find if the names were on the list; McKeown sa'd witness would then have to take time to look for them after they were voted: witness could not keep up with him; 164 votes were received during the first hour; enailenged but one man-John Smith-during the day; wit-ness objected to the vote of a man who said his ame was Robert Holland, and told Alderman McMullin, who brought him up, that the man was not Robert Holland; neither the man nor voncher was sworn, and the vote was put in the box while witness was talking to the man; McMullin said his name was Robert Hol-land, and that he lived in Baker street; a man voted in the name of William O'Neill, who was not William O'Neill; neither one of them gave any residence; recoilect no on'h being admin istered nor tax receipt asked for during the whole day; thought all the votes were taken except one, and that was John Smith; did not recollect any questions being asked vo.ers.

except as to residence, but the vote was generally in the box before the answer was given;

witness voted the Republican ticket. William Y. Campbell, return inspector of this division, testided that the space where the election was held was so small that he and the other return inspector and their clerks had to st in the second story back room; witness was in the room where the election was held up to 8 o'clock; from that time was engaged up stairs in catching up to the voting until about 1 o'clock and after that was in the lower room at offerent times during the afternoon. He then substantially corroborated the testimony of Mr. Adams, except as to personations: witness voted the Republican ticket: Mr. Gibbons, for District Autorney, was scratched more than any other Republican candidate.

William D. Moore testified that he kept the outside window book; twenty or thirty votes had been taken when witness got there, shortly after 7 o'clock; no time was allowed him to find the names on the list; John Abern and John Bradbury did not live in the division, and witness would have challenged had be had time to examine his book; no voter- or vouchers, either D morals or Republicans, were sworp, or any tax receipts shown; one or two persons came up with nages written on a piece of raper, and they handed their votes and these slips of paper into the window without announcing their names, and their votes were taken; witness yoted the Republican ticket; witness marked on his book 323 persons as voted; knew of no challenges. voted: knew of no challenges.

The list of votes show that 744 votes were

Adjourned until Wednesday next. - At the jud.cual con est, which was continued last evening before the Legislative Committee. hat body proceeded to the examination of ballot boxes. The ballots in the box of the First division of the Sixth ward were counted, and the result was an increase of 23 votes as compared with the returns in favor of Mr. Green-

A count of the ballots of the Ninth division of the Teenty-second ward showed the same vote as was returned.

In the Elecenth division of the Twentieth ward, Mr. Thayer pains two votes by the examination of the tally papers.

FIRE AND BURGLAR PROOF SAFE CHAMPION SAFES

PHILADELPHIA, January 18, 1869.

Messrs FARREL, HERRING & CO., No. 629 Chesnut street. Gentlemen:-On the night of the 13th inst., as is well known to the citizens of Philadelphia. our large and extensive store and valuable stock of merchandise, No. 902 Chesnut street was burned.

The fire was one of the most extensive and destructive that has visited our city for many years, the heat being so intense that even the marble cornice was almost obliterated.

We had, as you are aware, two of your valuable and well-known CHAMPION FIRE PROOF SAFES; and nobly have they vindicated your well-known reputation as manufacturers of FIRE-PROOF SAFES, if anyfurther proof had been required.

They were subjected to the most intense heat, and it affords us much pleasure to inform you that after recovering them from the ruins, we found upon examination that our books, papers, and other valuables were all in perfect condi-

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18, 1889. Messrs. FARREL, HERRING & CO.,

No. 629 Chesnut street. Gentlemen:-On the night of the 13th instant our large store, S. W. corner of Ninth and Chesnut streets, was, together with our heavy stock of wall papers, entirely destroyed by fire.

We had one of your PATENT CHAMPION FIRE-PROOF SAFES, which contained our principal books and papers, and although it was exposed to the most intense heat for over 80 hours, we are happy to say it proved itself worthy of our recommendation. Our books and papers were all preserved. We cheerfully tender our testimonial to the many already published, in giving the HERRING SAFE the credit and confidence it justly merits.

Yours, very respectfully, HOWELL & BROTHERS.

STILL ANOTHER. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19, 1869. Mesers, FARREL, HERRING & CO.,

No. 629 Chesnut street. Gentlemen:-I had one of your make of safes in the basement of J. E. Caldwell & Co.'s store at the time of the great fire on the night of the 13th instant. It was removed from the ruins to-day, and on opening it I found all my books, papers, green-backs, watches, and watch materials, etc., all preserved. I feel glad that I had one of your truly valuable safes, and shall want another of your make when I get located.

Yours, very respectfully, F. L. KIRKPATRICK. with J. E. Caldwell & Co., No. 819 Chesnut street.
