Manuscript Sermons. Bishop Meade, of Virginia, at the commencement of his preaching used no notes in the pulpit; but subsequently he wrote all his aermons, and was much confined to his manuscripts. It is related of him that when he was preparing a book on the old preachers and families of Virginia, be asked Mr. Andrew Hunter, of Jefferson county, Virginia, to give him some anecdotes for the work. Mr. Hunter said, "Well, Bishop, I have only one, and that is about yourself." "Let us have it, then," said the prelate. Mr. Hunter thus told the fol

"Many a year ago, when this Valley of Virginla was a much wilder country than now, you preached here, in Jefferson county. You used no notes on that occasion. A certain hunterdistinguished for his skill with the rifle, and who had a supreme contempt for a man who required 'a rest' from which to shoot, was in the congregation and listened attentively to you. You wore your clerical robes, and he was struck with the strange dress, as he had not heard many Episcopal preachers. After the sermon, some one asked him how he liked the preacher. 'He's a right down good preacher,' said the hunter; 'and, by the way, he's the only one of them petticoat preachers that I ever heard that could preach without a

Two Ways of Being Lost.

There are two ways of coming down from the top of a church steeple-one is to jump down, and the other is to come down by the steps; but both will lead you to the bottom. So, also, there are two ways of going to hell; one is to walk into it with your eyes open -fe w people do that-the other is to go down by the steps of little sins, and that way, I fear, is only too common. Put up with a few little sins, and you will soon want a few more. Even a heathen could say. "Who ever was content with only one sin?" and your course will be regularly worse and worse every year. Well did Jeremy Taylor describe the progress of sin in a man: - "First it startles him, then it becomes pleasing, then easy, then delightful, then frequent, then habitual, then confirmed. Then the man is impenitent, then obstinate, and then he is damaed." Reader! the Devil only wants to get the wedge of a little allowed sin into your heart, and you will soon be all his own. Never play with fire; never trifle with little sins.

Speak to the Stranger in Your Church. Dr. Reid writes thus in the Northwestern Ad vocase:-"Before we were born the revered father of the writer came to this country. He was then a high toned churchman. He entered the great city, and on Sabbath went to the great church of the city, and was coldly shown to the strangers' pew under the gallery near the door. At once he felt that this was due to his plain apparel and humble appearance, and de' termined never again to expose himself to a like discourtesy. The following Sabbath he became a wanderer through th streets, and might have gone far from God. Accidentally-providentially, let us say-passing along John street, he saw people entering a church there, and entered with them. He heard a plain, earnest sermon, and hearty singing and praying, and at the conclusion the person next to him shook his hand, and cordially invited him to come again-He was won, and did so; he became a regular attendant; a large family, then unborn, became | bishop. As we have previously announced, Bishop Commins kept his appointment in that mainly Methodists, and a son has for nearly | benighted diocese.-Independent. twenty-five years been in the ministry. We shall save families and generations, who else might never be brought into a sanctuary, if we resume the sociality of early days. This social power was immense. It did not wait for parlors, or appointed occasions, but beamed out in all places and at all times."

The Rev. Wolcott Calkins, of the North Presbyterian Church, in Buffalo, recently baptized a young man by immersion, using the baptistery of the Freewill Baptist cauren. -Twenty-seven persons united with the How-

The Rev. George Elliott, of the Presbytery of Huntingdon, Pa., has declined the call from the church of El Paso, Ill. Correspondents will still address him at El Paso, Ill., until further notice.

The congregation of Lick Run, Pa., made glad the bousehold of their pastor, the Rev. John P. Hudson, by filing both basket and store. In a long-continued sickness Mr. Hudson has received the utmost sympathy and kindness from his congregation, for which they will by no means lose their reward.

The Rev. F. B. Hodge was installed pastor of the Presbyterian church of Wilkesbarre, Pa., on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23. The Rev. A. H. Kellogg, of University Place Presbyterian Church, New York city, preached the sermon, Dr. Newlin, of Hazleton, delivered the seraion, to the pastor, and the Rev. J. Belville, of Mauch Chunk, the charge to the people.

—The Church of the Covenant, New York,

Rev. George L. Prentiss pastor, was organized some six years ago, and at the commencement of this year had a very fine church, chapel, and parsonage at the corner of Park avenue and Thirty fish street, and also a debt of $52,500. This last they have, since the middle of January, raised the money to pay. The total cost of their buildings is about $160,000. The New School General Assembly are to meet in this church in May next. -Seventy persons were received into the Cohockstok Presbyterian Church, in this city, on last Sabbath; about sixty of these making for the first time, a profession of faith in Christ. These were, for the most part, the fruits of a revival in the church during the past winter. The Rev. Mr. Mutchmore, the pastor, purposes, we understand, to leave for Europe in the early part of May. Mr. Matchmore and the Rev. Dr. Alexander Reed, of Philadelphia, are delegates from our Assembly to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland,

-The Baptist laymen of New York have formed a Social Union, like that of Boston and Four years ago the Free-will Baptists organized a home mission and freedmen's committee to operate in the West. They have organized, from Cairo as a centre, eleven churches, with 990 members. They have also a prosperous mission in West Virginia, with several small

-A correspondent writes from Chicago:-While there is no general revival in Chicago, yet there is a quickening in several of the churches, Baptist and others. Some extra meetings have been held, but not with decided success. Motgan Edwards has been preaching three or four weeks in the South Church, Rev. J. N. Williams, pastor; and in the Fifth Church, Rev. N. F. Raylin, pastor; a few have been converted. The meeting in the latter church still continues. Brother Raylin is a hard and succeastel worker. The spacious house in whose ample basement the growing congregation now meet is a monoment of his taith, real, and perseverance, scarcely equalled. Monthly additions are made to the churches, the result of the labors of the pulpit and the Saboath School."

—A Saptist gentleman who has recently visited that interesting and beautiful land, lially, writes in a private letter: -"The Liaitau people are all awake, and the Christian mind of fishy pasking. Lord, what wiit thou have us to do? Let us hope that Gol will soon raise up a leader there, as he raised up Onexen in Germany and Wiberg in Sweden. And how did He orect them but by the simple truth brought in a written and published form to their minds?"

-Eignteen were baptized at a place in Kurland Russia, in September last, under circum-stances of great personal risk to the admini-trator, who passed directly through an incensed brown to the place of baptism, calmly addressed the persecutors, performed the ordinance, and left his enemies standing with their clubs and stakes on the bank of the stream. Atterwards they followed to witness the close of the solemnity, but uttered no more even a reproachful word. The Lord restrained them. Two days afterwards, at another station in Kuriand, twelve more followed the Lord Jesus in His appotnted ordinance, in the presence of five or six hundred speciators.

EPISCOPAL.

-The Episcopalian ministers of this city have sent to Bisnop Coxe a communication thanking bim for his pastoral letter rebuking immodest dances and entertainments, and the "blood-guistiness of aute natal in anticide." —The Pro es and Churchman makes a voluntary explanation to the effect that it has been misinformed in reference to the case of Bishop Potter and Rev. Alvab Guien. Its explanation itself peeds explanation, but exoperates Bishon Potter from any disposition to deprive Mr. Guion unjustly of his seat.

The B shop of Ripon shows in an address that the Establi hed Church has been gaining strength in York-hire. In his own diocese efforts, for church parposes, within the last three years. Forty one new churches had been erected, endowed, and consecrated, twenty-nine of them being entirely new churches, in the past six years. The church is undoubledly in a much healthier condition in the porthern province than in the province of Canterbury, Its clergy are for the most part Evangelical, and the power of Evangelicalism is shown, as might be expected, in the attachment and zeal of the laity.

-The Tull correspondence is published between Bishop Whitehouse of Illinois and Assist ant Bishop Commins of Kentucky. Bishop Whitehouse begins his first letter with the words:-"An effort has been recently made in this city to establish a society entitled 'For the Promotion of Evangelical Religion in the Northwest,' I am obliged to regard this as a movement designed to disturb my diocese, and factious in its character!" No doubt the attempt to promote evangelical religion would disturb the bishop. He therefore arge 1 Bishop Cummins to refuse the sanction of his presence to a movement which was regarded as "schismat'cal and injurious." This letter, and Bishop Whitehouse's vigorous opposition, caused the proposed meeting to be put off. But, while correspondence on this subject was going on among the friends of the movement, Bishop Commins received a second letter from Bishop Whitehouse, saying that if the former should, as reported, speak in various dioceses in behalf of the Church Missionary Society and the other moluntary evangetical organizations, it would be regarded as a serious offense. To this the Bishop of Kentucky replied that he should visit Chicago, Feb. 21, to sol cit oderings for these societies, and claiming his right to do so not withstanding the objection of the incumbent of the diocese, and begging bim not to imperil the welfare of the church by opposing these recognized organizaof Illinois informs his brother that he has sent to the presiding bishop a protest against his in-trusion "within the jurisdiction of another bishop." - For a year past there has been a bitter religlous war raging in St. Paui's Church, Williamsburg, New York, between the Ritualists and anti-Ritualists.

The battle, it now appears, is to be decided by an election, and the following extraordinary manifes o has been issued by the kitualists. It speaks for itself:—
To the Members of the Congregation of St.

Paul's Church, Williamsburg, L. 1. - Should the undersigned be elected as wardens andvestrymen of St. Paul's Courch, Williamsburg, L. I., tney individually pledge themselves to carry out the following resolutions:-

First. That the weekly offerings shall always be counted by the wardens before leaving the church, and then handed to the treasurer, and on the first Sunday in the month to the rector. Second. That the treasurer hereafter be a per son distinct from either the senior or junior warden of the church.

Third. The neither the rector, church wardens, or vestrymen be allowed; to increase on their own personal responsibility the indebtedness of the parish; but whatever expenses are incurred for the interests of the church, they shall invariably be first sanctioned by the ma-

Fourth. That the treasurer be instructed to pay, in every instance, the rector's salary besettling any other account; to render a quarterly return to the vestry of all moneys passing through his hands, and in no case to assume the responsibility of cancelling any in-debteoness without the authority of the rector, wardens, and vestrymes.

Fitth. That the liturgical services, as now solemnized in this church, be continued, and no changes in ratualistic ceremontal be intro-

Sixh. That every legitimate means be at once devised for cancelling the indebtedness of this parish, and thus redeem it from the damaging imputation of fraudulently incurring debt without the means of liquidating the same. Seventh. That it be deemed inexpedient to make any change at the present time in the mode or sustaining the ministrations of this church by the remail of pews and the weekly presentation of the offertorial gift. Those, however, who conscientiously object to hiring a pew, and prefer to consecrate, either by weikly or quarterly subscriptions, their offerings to the church, may do so, without for etting the right of occupying their accustomed seat in the house of God.

A Cord from the Rector.—A change in the wardens and vestrymen of the church is requested by the rector for the following reasons: First. Because during the past year it has been almost impossible to obtain a quorum the vestry for the legitimate transaction of business.

Second. Because, while he gratefully acknow-ledges many acts of kindness and liberality from individual members of the vestry, that vestry, in consequence of want of unanimity, has, as a corporate body, done little or nothing for increasing the finances of the church in order

Third. Because, should all the members of the present vestry be re-elected as officers of this church, the sacred relationship which now exists between the rector and the congregation may, sooner or later, be sundered. Fourth. Because the rector has been mainly indeb ed tothe undersigned candidates for war-dens and vestrymen for counsel, sympathy, and pecuniary aid, in what has already been done for the interests and prosperity of this parish. Fifth. Because the rector has the most implicit confidence in the purity, catholicity, and loyalty to the church of these whom he recommends—believing them to hold the cardinal doctrines of God's word, as interpreted by the creeds, the articles and the liturgies of our Church, and repudiating the corrupt enlargements of those doctrines, as authoritatively ca-forced by the Church of Rome.

Sixth. Because every rec or, by virtue of his hish office, has a legitimate right to designate whom he should prefer to act as war lens and vestrymen of his church, that in all meetings of the vestry there may be harmony of reeling and

-The First Congregational Church, Enfield, Coun., at the annual sale, March 1, sold slips several hundred dollars in advance of pravious years. Its contributions for benevolent objects during the last year have greatly exceeded those of former years; and it is supporting one of its members in teaching the freeumen at Audersonville. A number of recent hopeful con-versions and additions are reported.

-Rev. B. D. Northrop went to London, in 1862, by request of a number of gentlemen in-terested in efforts to reach the masses of poor in the eastern section of the metropolis. He organ zed a Congregational Ichurch, built an ediace with 1200 sittings, and gathered a congregation which filed the place to overflowing. The church has prospered, and, having outgrown one edifice, is about to open another capable of boilding 2500 persons. Mr. Northrop has been invited to revisit his former charge and labor again amongst them, but finds it impossible to leave his important work in New York,

CATHOLIC. -An appeal was made in St Michael's Church last Sunday morning, by Bight Rev. Bishop Lyuch, of Charleston, in behalf of the wants of his suffering diocese.

—The Pope has sent a complimentary letter to the Bushop of Montpeller, who has entered into a cru-ade against schools for girls, except as they are under the charge of the Church of Rome. -The Œcumenical Council will meet in the right transept of St. Peter's, Rome, which will accommodate over 2000 people. Subscriptions are to be called for to pay the expense of $50.000 in providing stalls for the accommo lation of the prelates, as well as the other enormous expenses.

Next Wednesday, 17th instant, being the antiversary of Ireland's patron saint, it will be commemorated with much and becoming solemnity in St. Patrick's Church, in this sity, where Solemn Pontifical Mass will be celebrated by Right Rev. Bishop Wood, and the panegyric of the saint will be preached by Right Rev. P.

N. Lynch, D. O., Bishop of Charleston.

-The Pope is now establishing a blind asylum—a charity till now wanting in Rome, and in which he takes a great interest. He gives very numerous audiences, and continues to get through immense quantities of bisiness. He also takes great interest in artistic and antiqua. rian matters, and especially in the recent exca-vations at the Aventine, which have so providentially been given to Rome at the moment when the pressing needs of the Holy See would have been a serious obstacle to the restoration of the churches of the city. It is now hoped that the Basilica of St. Paul will be brought to a successful termination. Twenty immense granite columns, quarried on the Simplon, have attived in Rome for the portico .- Mandard.

-The mission at St. Francis Church, in this city, which has been so ably and successfully given by Father Maguire, S J., and his assiciates, closed on Sunday evening. Over 8000 persons received Holy Communion, a most unprecedented number, considering the bounds of the parish. On Sunday afternoon Rt. Rev. Bishop Wood confirmed 440 persons, among whom were 17 converts. On the evening of the termination of the mission, Father Maguire delivered the closing sermon, after which the Rt. Rev. Bishop congratulated both pastor and peor le on the success of the mission, and expres-td the gratification it afforded him.

-The Catholics in Auburn still refuse to

The Catholics in Auburn still refuse to yield to the arbitrary action of Bishop McQuaid, in removing Father O'Flaherty. On Sunday, February 27, the Bishop, with his appointee, prepared to open the services; when Mr. O'Fisherty appeared, in cassock and cap, within the altar enclosure. The people applicated their old pastor, while the bishop commanded him to leave the place, but received the reply that he was the lawful pastor and in his proper place. The congregation cried out, "We will have Father Flaherty;" and the blahop, seeing it was of no use to proceed prounced that there would be no Mass said and that the church would be closed until they were ready to obey the commands of their bishop. The people met again the same day, and seemed unanimous with their pastor in resi-ting the tencroachments of episcopal autho-11ty .- Independent.

A New Movement - During the sessions of the Conference of the East Pennsylvania Synod, held in this city during this week, the subject of a reunion of the Church was introduced. Dr. Stork said there were hopeful tendencies to union. He referred in terms of favor to "Insulanus," in the Lutheran and Mussionary, suggesting a reunion. He also referred to the "Charch Bock," and thought all Lutheraus could use it if they used any liturgy. He also reserved to Dr. Krauth's explanation of the Lord's Supper, in his notes upon the Augsburg Confession, and thought that most Lutheraus would be able to unite on that explanation After these allusions, he offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:— Resolved, That a committee be appointed from this Conference to invite the appointment of a similar committee from the Conference of the Synod of Pennsylvania, to delib rate upon the expediency and desirableness of a reconciliation and reunion of all Lutherans on this territory. The committee appointed consists of Revs. Messrs. Stork, Albert, and Dimm and Messrs. Belsel and Stein. JEWISE.
