MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements

Princess. And Miss without the state of Much Ado About Nothing will be performed for the last times this evening, to-morrow, Wednesday, and Thursday.

On Friday Miss Lizzle Price will have a benefit, and on Saturday Mr. Mackay will make a similar appeal to his friends.

At the Chesnut C. D. Hess & Co.'s burlesque company will appear to-morrow evening in Brough's extravaganza of The Field of the Cloth of Gold. This piece has been performed with great success in Chicago, and it is promised that it shall be put upon the stage at the Chesnut in bandsome style. Many of the artists in this company are old established favorites here.

At the Academy of Music Fraulein Fanny Janauschek will commence a short season of AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC Fraulein Fanny Janauschek will commence a short season of six performances of German drama this evening. Javauschek is one of the great actresses of the day; and those who admire dramatic art should make it a point to see her. Schiller's tragedy of Mary Stuart will be performed this evening. To-morrow Marianne; or the Woman of the People, and on Wednesday Cutherine the Second.

of the People, and on Wednesday Catherine the Second.

At the Theatre Comque the Japanese troupe will continue their wonderful performances during the present week. This house has been crowded every evening since the Japanese have been there; and as here are thousands who have not seen them, and who would be glad to do so, Manager Donnelly would probably find it profitable to induce them to prolong their stay indefinitely.

The Aranian Nights' Entertainment at Concert Hall is one of the most popular exhibitions ever given in this city. The performances are varied and attractive, and one hundred handsome gitts are distributed to the audience every evening, and at the matinees.

The Germania Orchestra will give a public rehearsal at Horticultural Hall on Wednesday afternoon.

At the American an attractive variety entertainment will be given this evening.

John B. Gough, Esq. will deliver his lecture on "Circumstances," at the Academy of Music, on Monday evening next, March 22. The sale of tickets will commence on Wednesday morning at Ashmead's book store, No. 724 Chesnut street.

Litterart and Dramatic Entertainment.

LITERARY AND DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.

—J. Leslie Gossin, Esq., the accomplished reader and personator of comic and sentimental characters, assisted by the brilliant and talented young American actor, Mr. F. A. Gossin, will give select readings and scenes from Shakespeare's plays, for the benefit of the Children's Home, Lancaster, on Thursday evening, 18th inst. Mr. Leslie Gossin gave a performance in that city some five years ago for the orphans, which was a success, and Mr. Gossin left a favorable impression as being a gentleman of excellent and rare qualities. Mr. F. A. Gossin is a leading artist of culture and ability, and an accomplished gentleman, who has (since he left the Arch Street Theatre in this city, where he was a popular favorite); held the leading positions in some of the finest establishments in the Union. We cheerfully recommend these gentlemen, as they will give a performance of true merit for a noble object, and one worthy of public patronage. LITERARY AND DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.

Communication. The following letter from Isaiah C. Wears, the well-known colored orator of Philadelphia, speaks for itself:-PHILADELPHIA, March 12, 1869.—Hon. Horace Greeley—Dear Sir:—I write to you because I know you would like to see justice done, and will, to the extent of your power, see that it is done; and though I hold that noble and patriotic action cannot claim reward, and often goes through the world uncared for, still it is a pleasure that I cannot forego to speak a word for the good and true men whose devotion to country and to the reforms through which we have just passed is so well and widely known. Having eagerly watched the friends of freedom during the strongle. I have concluded to avail myself, through your politeness, of the columns of the Tribune to say a word. My attention has been particularly directed to New Jersey. Here our triends were few and hestiant, our enemies bitter and mailguant. The first public man in the State to advocate, on the stump and in the Senate, against the wrongs of the oppressors, was the Hon. James M. scovel. I do pressors, was the Hon. James M. scovel. I do not know whether he would accept an office or not, gor do I care; but such men as he, who PHILADELPHIA, March 12, 1869.—Hon. Horace have borno the brunt of battle when courage and ability were necessary, should at least have the honor of an offer. This is the voice of thousands, that the name of James M. Scovel should not be forgotten.

WITHOUT A GOOD DIGESTION all other temporal blessings are comperatively worthless. The dyspeptic millionaire who has tried all the potions of the medical profession in vain, and believes his complaint to be incurable, would give half his fortune to be freed from the horrors of indigestion, and thus enabled to enjoy the other half. Of course he Perhaps Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been recommended to such a sufferer. Possibly he has turned from the friend who who made the suggestion with a speer, intimating that he has no faith in any "patent medicine," If this has been the case, so much the worse for him. H's incredulity dooms him ite a life of m'sery, All the luxuries which wealth can purchase are at his command. Not one of them can give him pleasure. His own irrational obstluacy is his bane.

The masses happily for them elves, are less skeptical. There is such a thing as bigeted unbelief, as we'l as bigored credulity, and a golden mean between the two, which men and women who are girled with common sense adopt and profit by. These are the class who patronias and recommend H stetter's Bitters. Way do they approve this famous anti-Bitters. Why do they approve this famous antidyspeptic and anti-billous preparation? Simply because they have not been too much the slaves of senseless prej dice to give it a fair trial, and navfound that when all other tonics, stimulants, and stomachia inside, it produced the desired effect.

"Strike, but hear," said the Roman sage, when his ignorant enemies were as aning him. "Doub, but try." says the man who has been cured of indigestiop, or billiousness, or intermittent fever, by the Bitters, as herefaires his experience of the medicine to his invalia friends. Whoever is so wed led to his own foregone theoretical conclusions as to decine to lest the procerties of a medicine endorsal by the testimony of intelligent men in every wals of life, and approved by the people at large deserves to suffer,
