NEWS SUMMARY.

Local Affairs.

-About half past 6 o'clock last evening, a old bombabell which had been placed in the furnace at Baird's foundry, Fitteenth and Hamilton streets, exploded, causing serious injuries in the right arm of Hugh Parker, which it is thought will render amoutation necessary, and slight injuries about the face to James McGork. The annual meeting of the managers of the Howard Hospital and Indirmary took place last evening at the Hospital, in Lombard street near Fifteenth. The annual report read on the occa-sion showed that during the year 7182 patients had been relieved, and 21,457 patients had visited the institution. Number of male pa-tients, 2752; females, 4430; adults, 3551; minors,

-Yesterday afternoon a meeting of the Board of Guardians was held at the Almshouse, President John M. Whitan in the chair. The House Agent reported the census of the House for the week ending Saturday, March 27, 1869, at 3649; same time last year, 3444; increase, 196; admitted within the last two weeks, 179; births do., 10; deaths do., 38; discharged do., 279; eloped do., 39; and indentured do., 6. Number granted lodgings within last two weeks, 306; meals do., 1026. The House receipts were reported at $218.67, and the Our door Agent notified the board that he had collected for support cases the sum of $164.75. H. H. Dessaw, Joseph H. Jimenez, H. W. Elmer, W. G. Porter, and J. C. Hall were elected Resident Physicians of the house, after which the board adjourned.

-The mouthly meeting or the Young Men's Christian Association was held last evening, Peter B. Simons, Esq., President, in the Rev. Dr. Mears read an essay on the Public Morality of the Statesmen of the Greek Republics. After the essay, the question was dis-cussed, "Is a republican form of government favorable to the bonesty and nigh character of statesmen and office-holders? Fifty-nine new Fifty-nine new members were elected to the association. During the evening an interesting report from Board of Managers was read. The effort started last year to obtain by subscription, from the friends of the association, the purchase money for their present building, has been so far successful that but $5000 remains to secure the whole amount. At this data $30,000 has been pledged, contingent upon $35,000 being

-Yesterday the efficers of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, received information that a cock and dog fight was to take place in the evening, at the saloon No. 1911 Market street, kept by one Michael Thompson. Notice was sent to the police of the Seventh district, and the Lieutenant in command, with thirty men, started after due pre-paration, for the scene. At about the time when the first encounter between the "birds" was commencing, the policemen had surrounded the building, and at a preconcerted signal a party of them entered it. The amphitheatre, in the rear of a two-story frame house, was densely packed, over one hundred and lifty men being in the circular seats surrounding pit. These people, at the first onset the police, made a dash for the rear doors, but were met by officers detailed on the rear. In the confusion many of them escaped the police managing to seize forty-two of them only. Three of the towls were also confiscated. President Baez, of San Domingo, has refused to allow the organization of expeditions in aid of the Cuba rebels.

The Diario publishes the following news:-In Cienfuegos district, Government troops have completely surrounded the rebel forces under General Ballou, at La Valladolid. General Puelle, with 3000 regulars, left Cienfuegos yesterday to attack the insurgents in the mountains near Siguanca. He expects to effect a junction near that point with a column advancing from Trinidad under General Escalante. New York, March 29 .- A Havana special says a large party of insurgents were defeated on Saturday, near Trimidad. Telegraphic comnunication with Ctenfuegos was restored on Sunday. Troops were arriving there and departing for the interior. Twelve hundred troops arrived at Santa Cruz on the 20th from Puerto Principe, for supplies. They were to return on

The above case was resumed yesterday afternoon by Examiners Messick and Batturs. The box containing the papers of the Seventh division of the Eleventh ward was opened and the papers offered in evidence.

John McCullough was recalled, and testified that he had examined and compared the list of voters and the list of taxables of the First divisicn of the Fitth ward; on the former were 54 names that do not appear on the latter.

William Miller testified that he was clerk of the Republican inspector of the Seventh division of the Fitteenth ward; the voting was very rapid; John Donohue, the Democratic inspector, took the votes; the judge kept the list of taxables; he would look for the names of voters, but witness could not say whether he found them; after voting got slack, he marked off the names of men that he knew had voted; from a dozen to twenty natural zation papers were shown during the on; eighteen or twenty-five voters were sworn on conlienges; there were not many challenges on either side; as a general thing, if a man effered to vote woom people there said was a voter, they took his vote without any reference to the book or swearing him.

Hornes D. Gaw was recalled and produced the list of voters of the First division of the Fifth ward deposited in the Prothonotary's

John O'Grady, No. 117 Lombard street, testified that about 43 men were b arding at his house at the October election; kept a sailors' boarding house; there were tweive alceping apartments; have had 73 men there at one

Henry Ledbeater testified that he was at the olls of this division; there were many chatlenges, and when a man would say "I vouch for this man," his vote would be taken; as a general thing, the one challenged was not sworn; but very tew were sworn; the Republican inspector, Mr. Palmer, was threatened with being torn on; of the window and having a head put on him, if he did not quit challenging there was a considerable crowd about the polls and many strangers during the day; the a sessors refused to assess witness; when be offered to vote he was told that he lived in the Sixteenth ward; he had his vouchers there and a tax receipt, but his vote was refused, and they rejused to swear and examine his vouchers; they said that Judge Allison had decided that witness had no right to vote there; had no difficulty in voting there in November; the judge was there then; witness now lives in the Twenty-eighth ward; before August last he lived in the Sixteenth ward; did not vote anywhere in October; his family, from which he had separated, was not living in the Fifth ward at this election: Judge Allison told witness afterwards he had not said that witness must vote where his wife lived, as alleged; he did not know at that time where his family lived, but he learned af erwards that it was in the Twelfth ward; had never voted there before; paid his taxes in the Sixteenth ward; was on the police force in the Fifth ward for four years, and was tamillar with that section of the ward, James Callaban testified that he was at these polls all day, with the exception of one hour; kept the outside window book; the voting was so very fast that he could not find the names on the book; about 25 or 30 challenges were made; generally papers are produced and pronounced all right; on other challenges vouchers were generally produced; had lived in that division for nearly twelve years; a great many strangers were about there all day; could not say whether the Republican vote was the larger in that division; was not on the police force that day, but was the day previous and the day atter.

Thomas Furey testified that he was clerk of the Democratic inspector of this division; kept the list; a list of voters (list exhibited); thought that was the one, but was not positive; of the names on the first page all were written by him except two; thought one of these was written by the inspector: the votes came so fast that he had to scribble the names down, and could scarcely read them. Adjourned.

After an animated debate in the United States Senate yesterday afternoon, the motion to re cede from the modification of the Civil Tenure bill by the Senate was lost by the following

EMPIRE SLATE MANTEL WORKS.—J. B.

PHILADELPHIA, January 18, 1869. Mesers, FARREL, HERRING & CO.,

No. 629 Cheanut street. Gentlemen:-On the night of the 13th inst., as is well known to the citizens of Philadelphia our large and extensive store and valuable stock of merchandise, No. 902 Chesnut street was burned.

The fire was one of the most extensive and destructive that has visited our city for many years, the heat being so intense that even the marble cornice was almost obliterated.

We had, as you are aware, two of your valuable and well-known CHAMPION FIRE PROOF SAFES; and nobly have they vindicated your well-known reputation as manufacturers of FIRE-PROOF SAFES, if anyfurther proof had been required.

They were subjected to the most intense heat, and it affords us much pleasure to inform you that after recovering them from the ruins, we found upon examination that our books, papers, and other valuables were all in perfect condition.

Yours, very respectfully, JAB. E. CALDWELL & CO.

THE ONLY SAFES EXPOSED TO THE FIRE IN CALDWELL'S STORE WERE FARREL, BEREING & CO.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18, 1889. Messrs, FARREL, HERRING & CO.,

No. 629 Chesnut street. Gentlemen:-On the night of the 18th instant our large store, S. W. corner of Ninth and Chesnut streets, was, together with our heavy stock of wall papers, entirely destroyed by fire.

We had one of your PATENT CHAMPION FIRE-PROOF SAFES, which contained our principal books and papers, and although it was exposed to the most intense heat for over 60 hours, we are happy to say it proved itself worthy of our recommendation. Our books and papers were all preserved. We cheerfully tender our testimonial to the many already published, in giving the HERRING SAFE the credit and confidence it justly merits.

Yours, very respectfully, HOWELL & BROTHERS.

STILL ANOTHER. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19, 1869. Messrs. FARREL, HERKING & CO.,

No. 629 Chesnut street. Gentlemen:-I had one of your make of safes in the basement of J. E. Caldwell & Co.'s store at the time of the great fire on the night of the 13th instant. It was removed from the ruins to-day, and on opening it I found all my books, papers, greenbacks, watches, and watch materials, etc., all preserved. I feel glad that I had one of your truly valuable safes, and shall want another of your make when I get located.

Yours, very respectfully, F. L. KIRKPATRICK. with J. E. Caldwell & Co., No. 819 Chesnut street.
