Further Particulars of the Loss of the Steamer G. A. Thompson.

MEMPHIS, April 12.—The Appeal's Little Rock special gives the following particulars of the steamer G. A. Thompson, commanded by Captalo France. tain Frazer, bound from Clacimnati to Little Rock and Fort Smith, laden with bacon, flone, agricultural implements and lime:

She had on board eighteen passengers, five of whom were ladies, including the captain's wife. She struck a snag at Erwin's Landing, forty miles below Little Rock, at two o'clock, and sunk immediately in pine fort water. The line sunk immediately in nine feet water. The lime slacked, which set fire to the boat shortly after sinking. An effort was made to throw the lime overboard, but the crew were driven away by the heat and flames.

After considerable difficulty in keeping the men back, the ladies were landed on a sand-bar; meanwhile the erew, who were excited, jumped into a boat, which swamped, causing the greatest loss of life. Seventeen lives were lost, eight of whom were white, including George Ely, first clerk; John Perkins, second clerk; the cook; A. Lance, cabin boy, of New Albany; Mr. Frondel, of Little Rock, and three others.

NASHVILLE, April 12.—Henry S. Foote replies in the Press and Times of this morning to a portion of ex-President Johnson's speech, in which he asserts that Johnson charged him with horselfucks. with ingratitude. He denies the charge, and avers that he owes nothing to the forbear ance or generosity of Johnson, who, he alleges together with Mr. Seward, treated him unkindly and cruelly. He denounces Johnson as a seces-sionist, to whom the people of Tennessee are indebted for disfranchisement; charges him with usurpation and tyranny; admonishes the people of the Southern States not to be conrolled by him, but to accept the legislation of Congress and have confidence in Gen. Grant, who, he assures them, is their friend, and desirous to restore them to prosperity and good government. He also charges that Mr. Johnson is opposed to negro suffrage and political equality, and refers to Mr. Johnson's interview with Frederick Douglass, in which he said these things would lead to a war of races to sustoin him. Ex-President Johnson is still in Nashville, having abandoned his proposed trip to Europe preferring to devote his time and energies in behalf of the disfranchised of the South. He will speak in all the Southern States. He leaves for Memphis on Wednesday.

CHAMPION SAFES!

PHILADELPHIA, January 18, 1969. Mesers. FARREL, HERRING & CO., No. 629 Chesnut street. Gentlemen :- On the night of the 13th inst., as is well known to the citizens of Philadelphia, our large and extensive store and valuable stock of merchandise, No. 902 Chesnut street, was burned. The fire was onesof the most extensive and destructive that has visited our city for many years, the heat being so intense that even the marble cornice was almost obliterated. We had, as you are aware, two of your valuable and well-known CHAMPION FIRE-PROOF SAFES; and nobly have they vindicated your well-known reputation as manufacturers of FIRE-PROOF SAFES, if any further proof had been required. They were subjected to the most intense heat, and it affords us much pleasure to inform you that after recovering them from the ruins, we found upon examination that our books, papers, and other valuables were all in perfect condition.

Yours, very respectfully,

JAS. E. CALDWELL & CO.

THE ONLY SAFES EXPOSED TO THE FIRE IN CALDWELL'S STORE WERE FARREL, HERRING & CO.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18, 1869.

Messrs. FARREL, HERRING & CO., No. 629 Chesnut street. Gentlemen :- On the night of the 13th instant our large store, S. W. corner of Ninth and Chesnut streets, was, together with our heavy stock of wall papers, entirely destroyed by fire.

We had one of your PATENT CHAMPION FIRE-PROOF SAFES, which contained our principal books and papers, and although it was exposed to the most intense heat for over 60 hours, we are happy to say it proved itself worthy of our recommendation. Our books and papers were all preserved. We cheerfully tender our testimonial to the many already published, in giving the HERRING SAFE the credit and confidence it justly merits.

Yours, very respectfully, HOWELL BROTHERS.

Gentlemen:—I had one of your make of safes in the basement of J. E. Caldwell & Co.'s store at the time of the great fire on the night of the 13th instant. It was removed from the ruins to-day, and on opening it I found all my books, papers, greenbacks, watches and watch materials, etc., all preserved. I feel glad that I had one of your truly valuable safes, and shall want another of your make when I get located.

Yours, very respectfully, F. L. KIRKPATRICK, with J. E. CALDWELL & Co., No. 819 Chesnut street.
