Sixth Streets, 518 Market Street,

PHILADELPHIA,

AND 600 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

TWAS EVENING, when a weary traveller might have been seen dragging himself along the rough and rugged road leading to a quiet little hamlet nestling among the hills of Pennsylvania.

The golden beams of the setting sun lit up the scene in quiet splendor, and filled his soul with holy peace. Stopping for a moment to take a view of the beautiful panorama, he slowly resumed his tiresome journey, until coming to an old forgotten grave-yard at the outskirts of this obscure village, he entered the crumbling gateway, now filled with rank weeds and strag-gling wild flowers, and, turning to the right, he sought a rude grave in the southeastern corner of this dilapidated city of the dead. Finding with much difficulty the object of his search, he with uncovered head knelt beside the moss-covered slab, and with his knife removing the moss which years of neglect had spread upon the cold, discolored marble, he read by the faint light of the setting sun RPITAPH.

HERE LIES THE BODY OF JOHNNY NOAKS, when he lived among the folks, Bought all his clothes of CHARLES STOKES. He died from eating artichokes. When lying on his dying bed He to his friends around him said, Before I leave this world of woe I must tell you, neighbors, where this world of woe I must tell you, neighbors, where to go. In Chesnur Street, eight twenty-four, You'll find Charles Stores' Clothing Store.

Now, if you want to look your beet, In STOKES' clothes you must be drest. His cut and make is far ahead Of any in the land, he said; And father, I, and all our folks Always dealt His prices, you will find, with CHARLES STOKES. With the lowest anywhere. died; yes, honest John is dead.

DEAL WITH STOKES. LAST WORDS HE SAID

AN ABSOLUTE SAFEGUARD.-Invalids, broken down in health and spirits by Chronic Dyspepsia, or suffering from the terrible exhaustion which follows the attacks of acute disease, the testimony of thousands who have been raised as by a miracle from a similar state of prostration by Hos TETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is a sure guarantee that by the same means you too may be strengthened and restored. But to those who stand in peril of epidemics, to all who, by reason of expesure, privations, and uncongenial climate or unhealthy pursuits, may at any moment be stricken down, this paragraph is most particularly and emphatically addressed. You who are thus situated are proffered an absolute safeguard against the danger that menaces you Tone and regulate the system with this harmless medicinal Stimulant and Alterative, and you will be forearmed against the maladies whose seeds float around you in the air unseen. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BIFTERS are not only States, but they are accredited by the certificates of the nost distinguished citizens of the Union, to the people of all other lands. In Canada, Australia, and the West Indies, they are gradually taking the place of all other stomachies, whether native or foreign, and as surely as truth is progressive and demonstration overthrows doubt they will eventually supersede every other Invigorant and Restorative now employed in medicinal practice.

BINGHAM HALL CLOTHING HOUSE.—Those who would be suited in good clothing at the most reasonable prices should not everlosk the Bingham Hall Clothing House of Messrs, A. Brown & Co., No. 830 Market street. The stock of ready made goods and fabrics to make suits to order there is varied and extensive, and in all instances, the prices asked are such as to fully meet the wishes of the public. A specialty, just now, with the "Bingham," is a stock of black suits, white vests, etc., especially adapted for the use of Odd Fellows, in the approaching grand procession of the Order.

HOUSE CLEANING .- The present being house cleaning time, we would cordially recommend to the notice of housekeepers the advertisement in another part of our paper to-day, of Wincher, Hartman & Co.'s Washing and Cleansing Powder. This powder acts like a charm in cleansing paints, window glass, and household articles generally, and all abould have a supply of it. One trial will prove its efficiency and power. It can be had at the grocery stores and of Mr. W. H. Bowman, No. 1156 Frankford road.

AN EXTRA QUADRILLE PARTY will be given by Beck's Philadelphia Band, at Musical Fund Hall, on Wednesday evening, April 28. These parties are of the most select pharacter, and they are attended by the beauty and fashion of Philadelphia. The committee having charge of the entertainments exert themselves to make every one happy. and the uniform expressions of satisfaction testify how well their efforts are appreciated by the ladies and gentlemen

JEWELBY.—Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 12 S. Second street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of line Jewelry and Silverware in the city. Purchasers can rely upon obtaining a real, pure article furnished at a price which cannot be equalled. He also has a large stock of American Western Watches in all varieties and at all prices. A visit to his store is sure to result in pleasure and

THE STETSON HOUSE.—The Stetson House, No. 445 N. Third street, is a hotel fast winning its way into public favor. It is admirably kept, its rooms are large and airy, and no pains are spared by its attentive and obliging landlord to make his guests comfortable. Boarding, with an excellent table, can be had there for five dollars per week.

THE CLOSING BALE of Crystal Medallions, Paintings, etc., from the American Art Gallery, New York, will take place this evening, at quarter before 5 o'clock, at Scott's Art Gallery, No. 1020 Chesnut street.

How saper out of joint with these beautiful spring days must that man feel who is still going about in his unseason able and sombre winter garments! Nature has put on her spring suit, and all are rejoicing in her improved appear ice, and men should keep pace with her in this respect and make as great an improvement in their own persons, and make as great an improvement in their own persons, appearance, which they can easily do by simply domaing a ran-new suit of Oak Hall Spring Clothes. There is no example for not doing so, for the prices are exceedingly low at pransmaker a Brown's.

A Southce of Pleasure. It is a source of pleasure when we can recommend a bone fide article. Speer's "Standard Done Bitters" is a credit to its maker, and will be of incalculable benefit to suffering humanity. It is particularly good in cases of general debility. Pleasant and agreeable to the taste. It is simply the pure juice of the grape made bitter by herbs and roots. Sold by Drug-
