-At the afternoon session of the Fifty-third Annual Conference of the African M. E. Church, which commenced yesterday morning in Bethel Church, the annual sermon was preached by Rev. James M. Williams. The text selected was from the 26th chapter of Acts, 16th, 17th, and 18th verses, referring to the apostle's own conversion and his going forth to the ministry of his own motion, feeling himself called so to do. Upon this point he arged his hearers to do all in their power to christianize their fellows. Kindness and Christian charity towards each other would tend much towards that end. said that sympathy did not call men to the ministry, nor did piety or education. They must be called by God, and if qualified for the mission could under His protection perform labors that would surprise themselves. The unity of the ministers of the Church was one of the most important features in connection therewith, and could not be too strongly urged. The sermon throughout was well composed and delivered in an impressive manner. The conference voted their thanks to Rev. Mr. Williams, and the service concluded with prayer by Rev. James Hollin.

Foreign Affairs.

LONDON, May 6—Midnight.—In the House of Commons this evening Mr. Otway, Under Secretary for the Foreign Affairs, in reply to an inquiry from Mr. Gourley, said that instructions had been sent to the British Minister at Madrid, in regard to the seizure of the Mary Lowell, but they would not now be made known. The House resumed the consideration of the Irlsh Church bill. Sir George Jenkinson (Conservative) moved that the clause providing that compensation for Maynooth College, from the Church fund, be Mr. Gladstone protested against the incon-sistent conduct of members, who voted for the grant to the Presbyterians, and who opposed compensation for the Catholics, consenting to make use of religious prejudice in their endeavor to defeat a government which was dealing ont equal justice to both. A protracted discussion ensued on the advisability of drawing compensation for Maynooth College from the consolidated or church funds. Mr. Bright opposed placing any additional burden upon tax-payers. Mr. Disraell supported the grant, but urged that it be paid out of the consolidated funds. Finally a division was had on Jenkinson's amendment, and it was rejected for, 192; against, 318. Mr. Aytown (Liberal) moved an amendmen that compensation to Maynooth College take the form of annuities instead of a capitalized sum. After a long discussion the house di-vided—for the amendment, 198; against it, 305. Other amendments which had been proposed were then withdrawn, and clauses 39 and 40, in regard to the College of Maynooth, as originally introduced by Mr. Gladstone, were adopted.
