CITY INTELLIGENCE. THE RED MEN.

A History of the Order-Its Celebration of Tammany's Day-The Procession, the Roste, Hte., Etc.

To-morrow the Improved Order of Red Men cele will be a parade, an oration, and a ball. There will be a parade, an oration, and a ball. The most extensive and careful preparations have been made to leasure the success of all three, and no doubt need se entertained but that the Red Men will worthly do be entertained but that the Red Men will worthly do benor to the time and the occasion.

In this connection an epitome of the origin and history of the Order may not prove uninteresting.

There exists in the recollection of some of the elder members of the present day an early tradition, ence popular, which points to Fort Minlin, on the Delaware river, as the birthplace of the society, and some time during the period intervening between the year 1812 and 1814, as the time of the kinding of its first council-fire. At the close of the war this council-fire was necessarily quenched, the garrison disbanded, and the volunteers returned to their homes. But recollections of the past, the charms of an association so patriotic in its origin and purpose, and which had been so productive of good in the past, when the dark mantle of adversity hung like a pall upon the country, with the natural desire to perpetnate and extend it, were the incentives to revive the society. Accordingly a call was inserted in one or more of the newspapers of Philadelphia for a Council of the Red Men, which resulted in the organization of what was subsequently known as the Tribe of Columbia of the Society of Red Men of Pennsylvania.

Seech in brief is the traditional history of the origin of Pennsylvania.

Such, in brief, is the traditional history of the origin of the order, but there is in the records of the society presumptive, as well as contemporaneous external evidence that it originated at a much earlier day and it is as probable that it took its rise during the Revolutionary war as during that of 1812-15, and the origin attributed to the society at Fort Mifflin may have been but the reorganization of pre-existing fra-ternal elements by the volunteers for kindred pur-

Tammany, Tamany, Temany, or Tamened, as the mame is variously written, was a Delaware chief, who fourished toward the end of the seventeenth century. He is mentioned by Thomas, in his "Histor, of New York," published at London in 1757, and by Heekwelder in his "Account of the Indian Nations The latter refers to him as a chief who never had his equal, and states that when Colonel Morgan, or Princeton, in 1776, by direction of Congress, visited the Western Indians, the Delawares conferred on him the name of Tammany, "in honor and remembrance of their ancient chief, as the greatest mark of respect of their angient chief, as the greatest mark of respect which they could show to that gentleman, who they said had the same address, affability, and meekness as their honored chief." As early as our Revolu-tionary war societies called after Tammany were in existence. His admirers dubbed him a saint, and, under the name of St. Tammany, proclaimed him the patron saint of America. the patron saint of America.

His name was inscreded in some of the calendars, and his festival celebrated on the 1st of May in every year. On that day a numerous society of his votaries walked together in procession through the streets of Philadelphia, their hats decorated with buck-tails, and proceeded to a handsome rural place out of town and proceeded to a handsome rural place out of town, which they called the Wigwam; where, after a long talk or Indian speech had been delivered, and the calumet of peace and friendship had been duly smoked akey spent the day in festivity and mirth. It must be borne in mind that the society rested upon a national basis; that whether the theory be adopted that it originated among the value of the control of th adopted that it originated among the volunteers at Port Minim in 1812-15, or regard it as the successor of a still earlier society existing among the soldier of the Revolution, national politics formed a conspi-cuous feature of the organization. Down as late as 1817, and even to 1827, this feature is clearly visible

In an old copy of by-laws, preserved in the ar-chives of the Great Council of the United States, the complexion of the political bias, indicated thus early in the order, is clearly shown by a provision disqualifying persons who were not citizens, or who either held or owned slaves, from becoming

Thus far the society was no doubt political, taking Thus far the society was no doubt political, taking the rise among military men, who were thoroughly imbred with American sentiments, and prior to the evelopment of the intensely bitter animosity and local prejudices! which at a later day grew out of the agitation of the slavery question; it was considered national without being considered political in any partisan sense, and hence the injunction already quoted from the early ritual.

Great Incohonee :-I am in possession of facts which warrant me in asserting that prosperous results of a character not heretofore realized by our order have crowned the labors of the closing grand sun. For a full statement touching the condition of the Wampum Belt, and the numerical standing of the institution, I must refer you to the reports of the Great Chiefs of those special departments. But in reference to the former, I may say its condition is gratifying; and of the latter, that our hunting grounds now contain more great councils and tribes, and a larger membership by far, than During the past grand sun in every "assigned tract," with a single exception, the augmentation in tribes and membership has been gratifying; whilst tribes and membership has been gratifying; whilst in some hunting grounds the accession, in both tribes and membership, has been so rapid and extensive as to lucrease the number of Red Men over that of one grand sun ago by several thousands. Tribal council-fires are now brightly burning in seventeen jurisdictions, whilst the future is pregnant with most anspicious promises touching their being kindled elsewhere. The capacity of the order for the accomplishment of its great moral and intellectual purposes has been highly improved and its usefulness largely extended. Tribes have been organized during the past year in Louisiana, Indiana, Texas, and California.

The founders of our institution, inspired with a grateful recollection and admiration of the pure and iofty character ascribed to one of America's noblest chieffains, ordained that his natal day—the 12th of chleriains, ordained that his hatal day—the 12th of the Flower Moon—in each succeeding great sun, should be celebrated as a holiday.

In the changing vicissitudes of time, which bore beavily upon our early brethren, this admirable obrvance was suspend After the lapse of thirty odd great suns, the Great Council of the United States, with a view of re-storing the ancient "landmarks our fathers had set," re-established Tammany's day as the annual festival of our order.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA .regular monthly meeting of this society was held last evening. President Wallace in the chair, and Samuel Smedley acting as Secretary.

The committee to raise means for the purchase or erection of a new hall made a very encouraging report.

Among the objects of interest contributed to the Society, not previously reported, is a copper plate engraved in England, for the purpose of the manufacture of postage stamps for the Confederate States, presented to the Historical Society by Peter C. Ellmaker, Esq., late United States Marshal. This plate, together with a large quantity of stamps (specimens of which were received with the plate), was found on board the steamship Bermuda, captured off the poard the steamship Bermuda, captured off the board the steamship Bermuda, captured of the Island of Alaco, on the 27th of April, 1862, by the United States steamer Mercedito, Captain Stellwagon, sent to this port as a prize, and subsequently condemned. The plate is well executed and in a good state of preservation.

Mr. Shrigley's report showed an increase of three hundred and forty-eight books and pamphiets during the month. A bust of the late Rev. Dr. Brainerd, which is very well executed and thought to be very correct, has been presented to the society by one of his friends. The increase in books and other articles of interest during the past few months has been quite large, so great that the society has been under the necessity o procuring an additional room in which to deposit the books and other valuables. Colonel Snowden, the Corresponding Secretary, reported that arrangements had been made with the Hon. David Paul Brown to deliver an eulogy, on the 28th of September ensutug, on the late Joseph R. Ingersoll, President of the Historical Society. Frederick D. Stone, from the Committee on Elections, reported the names of ten gentlemen, who were unanimously elected members of the society. On motion of R. L. Nicholson, Charles S. Ogden was elected a member of the Finance Committee in place J. L. Fenimore, deceased. The meeting then adjourned. OBSTUARY .- The funeral services of William C McIntosh, Esq., an aged and highly respected gen-tleman, took place on Friday last, at S.P. M., at his late residence in Christian street. The event drew together a large number of citizens. Mr. McIntosh was well and favorably known in the southern part of the city. He was a firm supporter of the Govern-ment during the Rebellion; a warm friend to the soldier and sailor, and contributed often and largely to their wants. As a Christian he was deeply interested in giving the Scriptures to the destitute, and especially to the heathen. His contributions to this cause alone amounted to thousands of dollars. He cause alone amounted to thousands of dollars. He was one of three Christian gentlemen of this city to support in Burmah, as an instructor, Rev. Dr. Binney, formerly President of Georgetown College, D. C. This involved a heavy expenditure of his means, but was freely given. The religious services were conducted by Rev. Jared H. Peters, of the Third Baptist Church, fassisted by Rev. Dr. Kincaid, a returned missionary. The body was immediately taken to Greenwood Cemetery. N. Y., for interment, next day. At the grave Rev. Dr. Wykoff and Rev. Dr. Buckley made short addresses.

Refunding of Taxes Paid by Aliens -Arrangements for Carrying the Pacific Mails.

First Invoice of Goods from Japan for the East.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph. Refunding Taxes.

WASHINGTON, May 11 .- The Secretary of the Preasury has prepared a circular defining the rules to be observed in refunding the taxes paid the Government from dividends, interest, or profits due to non-resident aliens. All that is necessary to get the money refunded is to produce affidavits showing that such tax has been paid, and that the person who paid them is the same as the one who puts in the claim. It is estimated that the amount of money to be paid on this account will reach six hundred thousand dollars. Despatch to the Associated Press.

The Pacific Mails. The Post Office Department has received a telegram from Promontory Point, stating that the mails have been delivered at that place to the Central Pacific Railroad, and that a through line has been regularly established. The Butterfield Company were last week informed that their contract would close on the junction of the roads. The cost by the Butterfield route was $1100 per mile, and by the railroad $200 per mile. per annum.

FROM NEW YORK.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph.

Consolidation of Financial Boards. New York, May 11.—Consolidation among the financial people of Wall and Broad streets now appears to be the order of the day. A call for a special meeting of the members of the New York Stock Exchange and the members of the Gold Room is made for 8 o'clock to-day, and there is now every indication that a consolidation of both these boards will be agreed on on Monday.

There is understood to be a little dissatisfac tion among some of the members of the Open Board of Brokers, who assert that the recent consolidation of their organization with that of the New York Stock Exchange was not ratified by two-thirds of the members. It is probable, however, that all will be amicably settled in a few days. The members of the Open Board were very happy yesterday afternoon over the new arrangement, and celebrated it by carrying their President, seated in his chair, over the heads of the members, through the street into Delmonico's, where a jollification took place.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

The Completion of the Union Pacific Railroad. SAN FRANCISCO, May 10 .- The Union Pacific Railroad was completed to-day. At 11.45 A. M., San Francisco time, the last tie and rail were laid and the last spike driven. Telegraph wires were attached to City Hall, in this city, and a fifteen-inch gun at Fort Point fired at each stroke on the last spike. In this city guns were fired, bells rung, and other manifestations of joy indulged in. The news created great enthusiasm in the interior towns.

First Invoice of Japanese Goods Shipped East. The first invoice of Japan teas by the Pacific Railroad was shipped for St. Louis to-day, inangurating the overland trade with China and Wrecked Fishermen. QUEBEC, May 11 .- The ship Cairngorm has arrived her with 16 men belonging to the crew of the French fishing brig Jeanne, picked up at sea. They have been placed under the charge of the French Consul, who will send them home, Ensign Whittaker. The body of Ensign Whittaker, who was killed by young Chaloner, was embalmed and sent home on the Nestorian. The troop ship Crocodile sails to-day with two battalions of artillery and the 78th Highlanders.

A Protest. OTTAWA, May 11 .- In the House of Commons, last night, Mr. Harrison moved an address for petitions regarding the seizure of the schooner Mazeppa, at Detroit, in 1854, the owner of which vessel has never been compensated by the American Government. The motion was carried. Mr. Savary moved for copies of the proclamations, etc., requiring an assimilation of currency, and urged that the Government pass a bill making the United States or British currency the standard in the Dominion.

Mr. Rose said that France, England, and the United States would probably make a uniform currency on the basis of the English sovereign. and he thought it best not to make any change until these countries came to a definite understanding in the matter. The motion was with-

The Alabama Question Again. LONDON, May 11 .- The Morning Standard

(Conservative) of to-day has a leading article on the Alabama question and the speech of Mr. Sumner in the United States Senate. In opposition, the writer reviews the relative positions of the United States and Great Britain, and asserts that raids and other outrages perpetrated by the American Fenians in Canada during the past few years more than overbalance the depredations committed by the Alabama on American commerce.

The Government of Great Britain, in consenting to submit the mutual international grievances to arbitration, did more than could be fairly demanded, and to yield further would be an act of cowardice and irreparable degradation.

Removals from Office in Washington.

Instructions to the Treasury Clerks.

WASHINGTON, May 11 .- The President has appointed Mr. Pixley United States Attorney for California

About thirty clerks were removed to-day from the office of the Sixth Auditor of the Treasury, and several other dismissals in other bureaus are to take place immediately. The Appointment Clerk has issued stringent instructions to the subordinates in his office, forbidding them to give any information whatever concerning the removals under his supervision, either previous to or after they have been made. This is to prevent any of the parties designated for removal from annoying that official with importunities to be reinstated.
