City Affairs.

At a meeting of the American Sunday School Union, held on the 11th instant, the following gentlemen were elected Managers to serve for the ensuing year:—Joseph H. Dulies, James Bayard, David Lewis, George H. Stuart, Alexander Brown, Alexander Van Rensselaer (New York) der Brown, Alexander Van Rensselaer (New York), George Nugent, Henry Croskey, Nelson Kingsbury, W. Dwight Bell, J. Livingston Erringer, and Alexander Whilldin. The board consists of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and thirty-six Managers, twelve of whom are elected annually. The society is national and catholic, and adopts the union plan—the better to be able to reach localities where antagonisms are after and whose denominational effort is inare rife, and where denominational effort is inoperative. It has had some seventy-five missionaries in the field during the past year, located in twenty-three different States of the Union, exclusive of thirty-eight student missionaries and Bible-readers employed in New York city, under the auspices of our auxiliary, the New York Sunday School Missionary Union. Hundreds of new schools have been organized, and tens of thousands of children have been reached who, without this agency, would be growing up

OBITUARY.

Commodore Henry A. Adams. Commodore Henry A. Adams, who died at his residence in this city on Tuesday last, after an liness, caused by paralysis, of nearly two years, in the sixty-ninth year of his age, was born in this city, and entered the naval service on the 15th of March, 1814, receiving his first appointment in this State. He was in the sca service a little over twenty-two years, on shore duty over fourteen years, and unemployed eighteen years and upwards. He was appointed fleutenant on the 18th of January, 1825, and in 1831 was attached to the receiving ship in Baltimore. In 1834 he was ordered to the rendezvous in this city, and in 1838 and 1839 was attached to the sloop-of-war Concord. he was sent to the receiving 1840 ship in New York, but returned to Philadelphia in 1841, and was stationed at the Naval Asylum. He was assigned to the steamship Mississippi in 1846, but was again placed in command of the Naval Asylum in Philadelphia in 1851. In 1852 he received his appointment as Fleet Captain of the East India fleet, which position he filled until 1855, when he was assigned to special duty under the State Department, and in 1858 was ap-pointed Inspector of Ordnance. He was com-mander on board the Sabine in 1859, and held that position until 1861, when he obtained leave of absence. In 1863 he was detailed for special duty at Philadelphia, and in 1864 as Commodore n this city. In 1866 he was placed on waiting orders, and so continued until 1868.

THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW,

Letter from General Batler Relative Thereto. At a meeting of the Springfield armorers on Monday evening, the following letter from Ceneral Butler, giving an account of his interview with the President in relation to the eight-hour law, was read:— Lowell, May 7, 1869.—Mr. Fellx Chilling-worth—Dear Sir:—Your note was not received mtil yesterday, owing to my absence from my office. The exact facts are these:—On Monday week ago I called to take leave of President Grant on my return from Washington, and in the course of the conversation suggested the difference in regard to the opinions of the two Attorneys-General on the Eight-hour law. It was remarked that if the law was a bad one, the best way to repeal an obnoxious law was to have it enforced; that it was plain that it was the true intent and meaning of Congress that eight hours should be a day's work for mechanics in Government employ, and that that day's work should be paid for as days' works or what-ever length of hours were ordinarily paid for in the same employments by persons not doing Government work in the neighborhood. General Grant assented to this proposition of mine, and said that he had it in his intention to issue an order which should make the action of all the departments uniform on the subject of hours of abor, as they were dissimilar now, and should carry out what seemed to be the clear intention of the law. I understood him to say that it would be done as soon as the gentlemen of the Cabinet who were absent should return, and I left him with the full understanding and belief that such an order would be issued at once. I during the election. (Henry Iseminger is No. | liberty to mention it, and did mention it on my return home on the following Wednesday. It lelieve I have fully answered all your liquity. and have the honor to be, very respectfully yours,

THE MARY LOWELL.

Capture of the American Brig by the Spaniards
-How England Regards It.

The London Daily News of the 1st instant has an editorial on the capture of the American brig Mary Lowell by the Spanish authorities. The act it denounces as an insult to England, totally unjustifiable, and one which should claim immediate attention on the part of the British Gov-ernment. General Dulce's proclamation is severely criticized, and his instructions to his subordinates have tended to place all concerned in this high handed act in a very awkward position. The article concludes:-In this unpleasant business there is only one redceining feature, and that is, that if a quarrel is to occur it is much better for the Spaniards to have it with us than with the Americans, who seek a casus belli for the purpose of annexing Cuba. In this very case of the Mary Lowell the Yankees are most auxious to claim her as their own, and they maintain that she was selzed on the high seas, and that they have a right to de-mand her restitution to them. This we deny, and there is ample evidence to prove that the wrong done was inflicted on England. And thus in one sense we do a service to Spain by quarrelling, for we save her from a much mor dangerons enemy. There is no doubt that it the Americans could find a good cause for hostilities they would make quick work with Cuta, and despoil Spain in a very brief campaign of a possession which the Yankee appetite for acquisition has long marked out as a most toothsome and inviting morsel. As it is, the Ameri-cans are straining every point to maintain the insurrection in Cuba. Wherever they can pierce the blockade maintained by the Spanish cruisers they pour in men, arms, money, and all supplies the Alabama claims they cannot do this avow-edly; but there is abundant proof that they do it effectively: and it is out of the excessive irritation of the Spanlards at this systematic fillbus-tering that the affair of which we treat has sprung. General Dulce, in a passion, seems to have lost his head, and his subordinates followed suit in a ready, angry manner; and thus it comes that the cannon of the Defense, Doris, Favorite, Jason, and other ships of the West India squadron may possibly have some powder-sent message to convey to the forts of Havana. It is, of course, clear that, however angry the Spaniards may be with the United States, and however justifiable their anger, their ampleasant frame of mind is no excuse for violating international law and making captures in British waters, We have, therefore, to demand from them the immediate surrender of the Mary Lowell, with a satisfactory apology for her seizure. If this de-mand be not complied with, Commodore Phillimore will proceed to discuss the reason why. We hope that he may be spared this unpleasant alternative, and that the Captain-General may yield to the dictates of law and reason. The news from the West Indies will be anxiously looked for, and it will be most welcome if brings tidings that we shall hear no more of the Mary Lowell.

NOTICE.—THE UNDERSIGNED
would call the attention of the public to his
NEW GOLDEN EAGLE FURNACE.
This is an entirely new heater. It is so constructed as to once commend itself to general favor, being a combination of wrought and cast iron. It is very simple in its construction, and is perfectly air-tight, self-cleaning, having no pipes or drams to be taken out and cleaned. It is so arranged with upright flues as to produce a larger amount of heat from the same weight of coal than any furnace now in use. The hygrometric condition of the air as produced by my new arrangement of evaporation will at once demonstrate that it is the only Hot Air Furnace that will produce a perfectly healthy atmosphere.
Those in want of a complete Heating Apparatus would do well to call and examine the Golden Fagle.
