have a complimentary benefit at the Academy of Music on the 29th inst. Mrs. John Drew's Arch Street Theatre Company have volunteered their services on the occasion, as well as a number of other prominent artists. A very attractive bill will be presented, and we hope that the affair will prove a brilliant success. Mr. Contass, the celebrated Irish comedian and Vocalist, after an absence of five years, will commence a short engagement at the Arch street Theatre on the 25th instant. Mr. Coilins was always a great favorite with the Philadelphia theatre going public, and we predict for him a very successful engagement. the occasion, as well as a number of other prominent Messes. E. & G. G. Hook, organ builders, of Boston, have contracted to furnish a large and powerful organ for the Collseum, to be used at the National Peace Jubilee. It is intended that the instrument shall be one of such strength and power as shall sustain the vast chorus and orchestra, and fill the build-ing with sound. The builders will confine them-selves to such features as are absolutely needed, and, to avoid the occupation of any more space than is positively required for the pipes and mecha-nism, there will be no attempt at mere display.

Maving been appointed the Sole Agents

For the sale of the balance ($750,000) of the above

bonds, we offer them as in our judgment, A Most Reliable and Satisfactory Investment. The St. Louis, Vandalia, and Terre Haute Railroad s building to connect the cities of St. Louis and

Terre Haute, forming part of the Great Through Line from St. Louis to Philadelphia and New York, Controlled and Operated by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The whole amount of the mortgage is $1,900,000, about two-fifths of the cost of the road, and the bonds have in addition the guarantee of payment of principal and interest of the Terre Haute and Indianapolis Railroad Company (a corporation having no debt, and with a large surplus fund), the Columbus, Chicago and Indiana Central Railway Company, and the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railway Company, the last two endorsements being assumed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company by contracts which are matters of record. There is also a Sinking Fund created by the mortgage of $20,000 per annum, to pay the principal of the bonds at maturity.

These bonds bear interest at Seven Per Cent. per annum, payable January 1 and July 1, in New York, and are offered for the present at NINETY PER CENT. and accrued interest.
