MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC the Richings troupe will conclude their season at the end of the present work. This evening Kreutzer's grand opera of A Night in Granada will be given for the first time in English. English.

English. To-morrow evening Mr. Alfred Stimmell, the popular doorkeeper of the Academy, will have a benefit, when II Treeators will be performed. Mr. Stimmell has many claims upon the regards of our opera goers, and we hope that he will be compli-mented by a full house. On Wednesday Mr. J. F. Zimmerman, the treasurer of the Richings troupe, will have a benefit, when Gounod's opera of Faust will be performed, with an increased chorus and orchestra. Miss Edith Abell will appear as "Marguerite." It should be remembered that this is the last sea-son of the present organization.

son of the present organization. AT THE ARCH Mr. Barton Hill will have a farewell benefit this evening, and will appear as "Elliott Grey" in the popular drama of Rosedale. Mr. Hill, who is about to leave for London, where he will have the stage management of Mr. John Wood's Theatre, is one of our most accomplished and scholarly stor A clore of our most accomplianed and scholarly stock actors, and his departure will leave a vacancy in the Arch Street Company that it will be difficult to fill. We hope that the lovers of the drama will testify to their appreciation of Mr. Hill's merits by crowding the house this evening Mr. L. L. James will have a benefit when Coste and Jackad de H Har will have a benefit, when Caste and Ireland As It Was will be performed. Mr. Craig's benefit is announced for Friday. On Monday next Mr. John Collins, the popular Irish comedian, will commence an engagement. AT THE WALNUT Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watkins will commence an engagement of six nights this even-ing, and will appear in a new Irish drama entitled Trodden Down; or, Under Two Plags. AT THE CHEENUT the Elise Holt burlesque troupe Will appear this evening in Lucretia Borgia, M. D. Punchmetto and the comedicita of A Rainy Day will be given this evening. On Friday, Mr. Thomas Whiffin, the popular comedian of the troupe, will have his first benefit. Ching Chow Hi and a new operetta entitled 'Jeanstte' Wedding will be given on this occasion.

AT THE AMERICAN A number of interesting novel-ties will be presented this week, and the entertain-ments will combine such a variety of attractions as to suit all tastes.

ments will combine such a variety of attractions as to suit all tastes. THE NEW YORK CIRCUS will commence its second and hast week to-day, on Eighth street, above Race. This is the most extensive organization in the coun-try, and the performances are of a highly entertain-ing character. The circus attracted crowded audi-ences last week, and there is no doubt that it will continue to be as popular as ever. The organization has been completed by the celebrated manager, L. B. Lent, with great care, and he has succeeded in sclecting for it the most celebrated equestrians, acrobats, clowns, and general performers in the country. The stud of horses, too, is large and well trained, and the whole exhibition is one that can be heartily enjoyed without fear of offense. There are few persons that cannot appreciate a good circus per-formance, and the large audiences that have been in attendance at the New York Circus during the past week sufficiently demonstrates its popularity. Mr. And the feats of horsemanship are certainly remark-able, and they appeal to the sympathies of a large number of persons who do not care for the ordinary run of entertainments. The piece which received the first prize was ten yards long and one wide, weighed only 3 oz. 2 dwts., and could be passed through a very small ring." What marvellous inge-nuity and delicate touch must be required for the production of such an infinitely fine piece of work-manship; If such a remarkable web were owned by any of our readers, with what jealous care any of our readers, with what jealous care would it be preserved from injury, and with what exultant pride would it be displayed to wonder-ing friends! We have not Dacca muslins under our ing friends! We have not Dacca muslins under our care, but we have control of an incomparably finer piece of workmanship—the human form. Our bodies are most delicate and highly organized. In a square inch of the hand there are 3500 sweat tubes and 28 miles in length in the whole body. Should not it be our greatest privilege to learn how to preserve so complicated a machine in proper working order? A GRAND CONCERT for the benefit of St. Joseph's Church, Seventeenth and Stiles streets, will be given on Thursday evening at Concert Hall, under the direction of Mr. T. E. Harkins, who will be assisted by Madame Sophie Mozart, Miss Caroline McCaffrey, Mr. George Simpson, and Mr. Thomas A'Beckett, Jr. MRS, F. MORDAUNT has been tendered a complimentary benefit, to come off at the Academy of Music on Saturday evening, May 29. Mrs. John Drew and the entire Arch Street Theatre company have volunteered for the occasion, together with a number of other eminent artists, and the perform-ance promises to be exceptionally brilliant. Mrs. Mordaunt is well known is an actress of ability and Mordannt is well known is an actress of ability and a very estimable lady, and we hope that this benefit will be'a genuine success. WHITSUNTIDE FESTIVAL.—A grand local sænger-fest takes place to-day at Engel & Wolf's farm, ander the anspices of the Mænnerchor, Sængerbund, Young Mænnerchor, and Leidertafel Societies. A GRAND REUNION of the George Downey Literary Association will take place at National Guards' Hall this evening. A very pleasant entertainment may be expected. this evening. AMATEUR PERFORMANCE—On Saturday evening a large and fashionable andience was in attendance to witness a performance at the Amateur Drawing Room, on Seventeenth street, above Chesnut. A Lesson in Acting and Jeanneatte's Welding were acted in a very spirited manner by Miss Schaumburg, Colonel d'Epineuil, and other prominent actors, and the entertainment was, in all respects, a gratifying success. The performance was given for the benefit of the Formale Beneficial Association; and as the of the Female Beneficial Association; and as the object was a very worthy one, we are pleased to know that a handsome sum was realized.

THEOW HER OVERBOARD !! - The highly talented com pounder or contounder of hash called Washington gossip, in the Sanday Dispatch of May 16, made a reell-paid-for mt s take in her description of McCord's Alarm Baton. She describes it as a child's rattle, ornamented. It is strange that his Honor Mayor Fox, as well as the Police Committee, couldn't see it in that light. Their eves were not bedimmed looking through greeaper, that's why. McCord's Alarm Baton has been apred by the Mayor and the above mentioned committee. and, in fact, by every sensible person who has seen it. I wish the public to run over the closing but brilliant remarks of this correspondent, signing herself "X.," and hen, when convenient, call and see the article and judge for themselves. No family should be without one. JOSEPH MCCORD, Inventor and Patentee. William Alexander & Co., Stationers and Printers, No 140 South Third street, sole Agents for the sale of Mc Cord's Alarm Baton 517 A HOUSEHOLD ELINIR ADAPTED 'TO ALL CLIMATES -It would be a happy thing for the world if all the excitants at present used in the practice of medicine could be swept out of existence, and HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BIT-TERS substituted in their place. There is a probability, too, that this desirable substitution may one day be accomplished. Certain it is that the GREAT VEGETABLE TONIC is gradually displacing them, and that the confidence of the people in its sanitary and saving properties increases with every passing year. "Figures that cannot lie" show this to be the fact. No medicinal preparation enjoys the like popularity among all classes and conditions in every section of the country. As an appetizer, a general invigorant, a remedy for indigestion, a cure for intermittent and remittent fevers, a gentle cathartic, a specific for flatlency and sour stomach, a gentle diuretic, a nervine, a blood depurent, a specific for sick headache, a mild anodyne, and above all, as a mOTECTION AGAINST EPIDEMICS, it is unquestionably the STANDARD MEDICINE of the whole United States. In the towns and cities it is literally a HOUSEROLD STAPLE. Mothers believe in it. They find it a "present help in time of trouble"-a safe and pleasant remedy for the various ailments to which their sex is exclusively subject. Men believe in it because it refreshes and invigorates the body and the mind, and tones both without aciting either. SUMMER CAMPAION FULLY INAUGURATED. ## Olive Logan's Opinion of the Theatrical Pro-

MISS OLIVE LOGAN, actress, lecturer, and woman's rightist, has taken advantage of the opportunities afforded her in the last-named capacity to comment upon the modern theatrical tendencies in a rather upon the modern theatrical tendencies in a rather pointed manner. In a speech at Steinway Hall last week ane "pitched in" rather strongly on the subject of burlesque, leg business, and the bleached, blonde Britons who are now reaping a golden harvest by displaying their charms to admiring American andiences. Against the golden-halred interpreters of burlesque, Olive has her special grievances. Their hair, if rumor be true, is dyed yellow, while the golden tint of her waving curls is the gift of nature; they are padded, while she does not require any such extraneous aids to eke out a meagre array of perthey are padded, while she does not require any such extraneous aids to eke out a meagre array of per-sonal charms; and last, but not least, they succeed on the stage and she did not. This last fact is of itself sufficient to account for the fact of the fair Olive's antipathy to the theatrical profes-sion, and her statements therefore must be taken eum grano safa. The following spicy card was elicited by the comments of the New York Times on Miss Logan's speech, and the exaggerations which distinguish it are certainly characteristic of the new line of business that Olive has lately taken up. She is a new convert to woman's rightism, and her zeal in the cause has therefore all the ardor of the novide. Of buriesque we have had enough and to spare of late, but it is very certam that in no theatre in the late, but it is very certain that in no theatre in the country are any such questions as Miss Logan suggests, asked or even hinted it.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Times:—In your issue of to-day you are pleased to accuse me of "slandering" the dramatic profession by certain remarks which I made at Steinway Hall on Wednesilay evening. This is a strange charge to bring against a woman who has suffered as much as I have for insisting that who has suffered as much as I have for insisting that there are virtue and honor among the members of that profession. On one notable occasion I stood up before an audience of 2000 of the most puritanical people to be found in New England, and tried to interest them in the career of a virtuous young actress. I signally failed, and I can only express my profound regret that I ever was so foolhardy as to draw upon myself the condemnation of intelligent people by advocating the cause of a profession which is now disgraced by its recognition of these indexent women. indecent w

The cases you cite of successful players who still rotain decency in the dramatic profession, are those of Janauschek, Ristori, Mrs. Lander, and Miss Bateman. Janauschek has always played to empl benches at the Academy of Music. Ristori, as benches at the Academy of Music. Histori, as a natural result of skilful manipulating by an astute manager, drew almost as well as a circus for a few weeks, but when the furor died out, she played for the pleasure of playing, apparently, for she had to pay for the privilege. Mrs. Lander, a true artist and a lady, is, it is well known, as unprofitable a "star" as the country affords, even when backed by two or three strong subsidiary players, whom she takes with strong subsidiary players, whom she takes with Miss Bateman's success was before the advent ther. Miss Bateman's success was before the advent her. Miss Bateman's success was before the advent of the yellow-haired nudities. Besides, even if it were quite different, the persons you pame are players who have toiled for many years in this profession, and who have acquired world-wide celebrity. I referred the other night to decent young women who are not celebrities-merely honest, modest girls. Whose parents have left them the not very desirable heritage of the stage, and who
