THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, MAY 20, 1869.

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

-In consequence of the want of proper accommodations in many of the want of proper ac-commodations in many of the halls now used for the meeting of lodges, the movement to creet a more commodious building for the purpose of meetings of members of the Order of Odd Fellows in this city has been revived. A call for a committee of delegates from lodges and encampments, to meet on Saturday evening, 22d inst., at the hall, North Sixth street, has been issued. The I. O. O. F. have ample means at their command to creet a first-class hall.

- The will of Margaret Christie, admitted to probate Thursday, contains the following be-quests: $200 to the Central Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, for the poor of said church; $200 to the Orphans' Society, and $200 to the In ligent Widows and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia. of Philadelphia.

-Andrew Noble and Robert A. P. Moore, po-licemen, have been detailed by the Mayor to see that the street contractors fulfil their contracts, and that the ashes is taken up on the days speelied in the contracts, and in covered carts. —The contested election case was resumed yesterday afternoon, before Examiners Batturs and Messick, the testimony being directed to the Seventh division of the Seventeenth ward.

Revenue Officer Heilman, accompanied by Assistant Assessor John Hanse, paid a visit to the old Richmond district yesterday, and found back of No. 1143 Monmouth street a large tin still, with mash set, and everything in readiness for distillation. The still was destroyed, but the officers carried off the copper worm. The mash was destroyed. A thorough search of the district was made, and evidences discovered at several places of the hasty removal of stills, showing that the visit of the revenue officers had become known to those engaged in illicit distillation.

I in concluding a convention, save that such an agreement might protect our commerce hereaf-ter from such depredations as those committed by the Alabama. A convention, not cordially accepted by the Americans as a full discharge of their supposed grievances, would be valueless, and the execution of such a compact, if made at the present time, would be exceedingly doubt-ful. An honest and faithful exposition of the views of each nation will pave the way to conciliation and settlement.
