POBLER TARGET ALLER TRADUCE DISTURBED AND A DESCRIPTION AND A DESCRIPTION OF A DESCRIPTION AND A DESCR

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC. THORS TIMPORMS

The City Amusements.

AT THE THEATRE COMIQUE & new piece, in four acts, adapted from Madame George Sand's Little Fadet, will be produced this evening under the title of Florette the Cricket. A dress rehearsal was held on Saturday afternoon, to which a number of the members of the press were invited, in order to give them an idea of the merits of the operetta in advance of its performance. Judging from Florette in ts rough state, we think that it ought to be a decided success. Sufficient dialogue is given to tell the story clearly, and Mrs. Galton has set it to music selected from some of the most popular composers. This portion of the work has been exceedingly well performed, the music is all good, and it is admirably adapted to the subject, so that the piece has none o the appearance of patchwork, as might be almost expected in an opera constructed in the way that this has been. 'The part of "Florette" is very well suited to Miss Susan Galton, and as she has never seen Maggie Mitchell's "Fanchon," her performance will be based solely on her own ideas of the character

This is the most ambitious work that the Galton troupe has yet undertaken, and as Miss Galton is now supported by a competent bass and tenor. Florette ought to prove an attraction that will fill the house for weeks to come.

On Monday evening next Miss Susan Galton will have a benefit, when three acts of Faust, with Messrs. Castle and Campbell in the cast, will be given, with other selections.

AT THE WALNUT Mr. E. L. Davenport will commence an engagement this evening, and will appear in his drama of St. Marc; or, The Soldier of Fortune. The performance will conclude with the farce of Uncle Sam. Mr. Davenport is an actor who has claims upon the regards of the public, and we hope that his present engagement will be a success.

A new drama entitled Hilda; or, The Pearl of Chivalry is announced as in preparation.

Mr. Joseph Jefferson will commence an engage ment on Monday evening next, appearing in Rip Van Winkle.

AT THE ABCH Mr. John Collins will commence an engagement this evening, and will appear as "Sir Patrick O'Plenipo" in The Irish Ambassador and as "Morgan Rattler" in How to Pay the Rent. Mr. Col lins is a genuine artist in his particular line of business, and as he has always been immensely popular in this city, he will doubtless attract crowded houses. especially as he has not appeared here for several years.

A drama entitled Black and White, by Wilkie Collins and Fechter the tragedian, is announced as in preparation.

AT THE CHESNUT the Elise Holt Burlesque Troupe will appear this evening in a new extravaganza entitled The Judgment of Paris; or, Taken from the Greek, in which Miss Holt will personate "Paris," Miss Weathersby "Mercury," and Mr. James Lewis "(Enone.

AT THE AMERICAN Master Clarence, a boy of five years of age, will appear this evening in some feats on the trapeze. A large number of other artists will appear in a varied and attractive bill of entertainment.

OLE BULL will give a grand farewell concert this evening at the Academy of Music, assisted by Miss S. W. Barton, Mr. Theodore Martens, Mr. William Macdonald and Mr. Benjamin Owens. A fine programme of first-class music will be presented, and as this will probably be the last opportunity our citizens will have to hear the greatest violinist of the day, the house should be crowded.

PROFESSOR JAMES MCCLINTOCK, M. D., will lecture this evening at Concert Hall on "The organs o special sense; the eye, the ear, nose, skin, hair, etc.'

MRS. F. MORDAUNT'S benefit at the Academy of Music on Saturday next promises to be a brilliant affair. The Arch Street Theatre company will appear in conjunction with a number of other popular artists, and a first-class performance may be expected.

MRS. FRANCES ANNE KEMBLE will read As You Like It, at the Academy of Music, on Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the Mercantile Library Association building fund. This entertainment ought to attract a crowded audience, independent of the merits of Mrs. Kemble as an interpreter of Shakspeare. The Mercantile Library is a popular and progressive institution, and with the completion of its new building it will commence a new career of usefulness. To raise the necessary funds for carrying on the work in hand, a literary entertainment of the highest character is offered, and our citizens should respond by filling the house and enabling the institution to net a handsome sum.

The letter-carriers of this city Have been deceived, oh! what a pity. If they had bought their clothes from Stokes They'd have been served like other folks. Sut such, alas! was not the case ; And now they look with doleful face Into their pocket books, and say

1 SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES

On easiest terms, by O. F. DAVIS, No. 810 Chesnut street.

THE VITAL STATISTICS OF THE UNITED STATES show that periodical fevers and acute and chronic disorders of the stomach and bowels are among the most prominent and fatal diseases in this country. Disobedience to the laws of health, as regards diet ; the use of permicious stimulants; and the wear and tear of business excitement, and of "fast life" generally, have much to do with the prevalence of these maladies in our cities; while in the West, and especially in the newly-opened districts, they are chiefly due to malaria, unwholesome water, and the exposure and privation incident to life in new settlements.

Now, IT IS A FACT that it is as possible to protect the human system against these maladies as to guard life and property against the incursions of assassins and thieves. Strengthen the vital organization with HOSTETTER's STO MACH BITTERS, and it becomes as capable of resisting the active principle of epidemic or endemic disease as a fireproof safe is of resisting the action of combustion. This is the experience of thousands who have remained unscathed by malarious disorders in the sickliest seasons. while their neighbors, who neglected to tone and regulate their systems with this unequalled medicinal stimulant. have fallen thick and fast around them. Weakness invites disease. Vigor repels it. Help nature to fight the good fight with infection, whether it be in the air, the water, or the soil, with this matchless preparation-a compound of the rarest vegetable extracts with the purest of all diffu a ve stimulants.

changes are: Catskill, Pittsburg, and Dubuque -3. A few other presbyteries expressed a willinguess or a preference for union on the simple basis of the standards. Some other minor preferences were also expressed, which we have not space to give in full.

The report was accepted and referred to a special committee not yet named. A delegation from the Old School was then introduced. Dr. Musgrave said that in 1870 there would be no two schools. A public reception will be given to-night to

THE INDIANS.

ST. LOUIS, May 24.-Colonel Robert Campbell, of this city, left last evening for Wash-ington, at the solicitation of the President through the Secretary of War, to meet severa prominent gentlemen selected from differen sections of the country, to confer upon matter looking to the amelioration of the Indians. The conference will take place in Washington on Wednesday next.

A despatch from Helena, Montana, says from 150 to 200 Santee-Sioux attacked the settlement on the Musselshell river on May S. Seventy white men remained in the stockade, and sixty sallied out on the Indians, when a desperate fight ensued, lasting seven hours, and thirty Indians were killed, including a half-breed, and thirty were scalped. The remainder escaped by swimming the river. One white man was killed. and another badly wounded. It is reported that reinforcements of 200 to 300 Santee-Sioux are coming up to attack Musselshell again, but the whites are prepared for them.

Desperadoes Stop a Railroad Train. MEMPHIS, May 24 .- On Saturday night last an armed band of desperadoes stopped the train from Louisville to Memphis, and attempted to murder Internal Revenue Officer Hohn, who had a prisoner on the train arrested for running an illicit distillery. An assistant of Mr. Hohn. name unknown, jumped from the train, was fired at, and was seen to fall. Mr. Hohn fired into the gaug, killing one of them, when the others poured a volley into the train, fortunately without injuring any one. The band is supposed to be part of a gang engaged in illicit distilleries, extending from East Tennessee to the Mississippi.
