-Two young colored men, named James
Moore and Middleton Hazle, were before Alderman Kerr yesterday, charged with daving street thefts. Several ladies testified that Moore had met them on the street, snatched their portemonnaies from their hands, and ran off with them, Sergeant McCarthy testified to the arrest. Hazle was arrested by Policeman Cody, and Lydia McStocker testified that the prisoner seized her portemonnale, which was hanging by a chain to one of her arms, and escaped with it. Both the prisoners were committed for trial.

The annual primary elections of the Repub-lican party take place next Tuesday evening. One delegate is to be elected from each division to each of the following Conventions:—Coroner, City Treasurer, Recorder of Deeds, City Commissioner, Clerk of Quarter Sessions, Prothono-tary of the District Court, and in the First Senatorial district. There is also to be elected one delegate from each division to a Representative Convention, and two delegates from each division to a Ward Convention.

—A large meeting of carpet weavers was held last evening at Friendship Hall, Norris and Sep-viva streets. Reports were received from a number of manufacturing establishments, a majority of whom were opposed to the price demanded by the weavers for their wages, 19, 20, and 20 cents per yard, clear of winding, and an addition between the public debt of on the 1st of June, 1869: Debt bearing coin interest: of two cents per yard when the employes pay for the winding. A motion prevailed that all weavers not receiving the full price demanded should quit work on Friday, and that a commit-tee of three be appointed to ascertain how many looms are in use at the full price, and the same be published, and an invitation extended to all men working at the reduction to join in the —A fire broke out last evening in the second story of the building No. 68 N. Third street, occupied in the second and third stories by Charles Cawley, whip manufacturer, and in the basement and first floor by George W. Severin, dealer in tobacco. The fire did not extend beyond the room in which it originated, and die but little damage there. Mr. Cawley's stock was damaged by water, but to what extent could not be determined last night. His insurance o thought, cover his loss. Mr. Severin's stock was damaged by water.

-A meeting of house-carpenters was held las evening in the hall at the northeast corner Broad and Arch streets, for the purpose of organizing unions in all parts of the city. Joseph Matlact presided and William H. Weller acted as Secre tary. To facilitate the object, and in order tha different organizations may not clash, th city has been divided into five sections, in each of which a union will be formed. Reports of the various committees were received, showing highly satisfactory progress of the movement several of the new organizations having obtaine rooms, and their rolls of members showing a gratifying increase. The meeting then adjourned to meet at the call of the officers.

Foreign Affairs. Madnin, June 2 .- It is officially announced that the Queen's birthday is to be celebrated at Madrid. General O'Donnell, while speaking in the Cortes seized with apoplexy, and died in the chamber. The Cortes is engaged in signing the constitution, which will be promulgated on the 6th instant.

MADRID, June 2.—The Constituent Cortes, last night, finally adopted the new constitution by a vote of 214 to 55. After the vote was declared, Figueras, amid enthusiasm, announced that the Republicans, though opposed to the monarchical clauses of the constitution, would support and follow them. A motion made by the Republicans, that the standing army be reduced from 85,000 to 25,000, was lost by a vote of 173 against 56. Admiral Topete informed the Cortes that 600 political prisoners from Cuba, now at Fernando Po, would soon be transported to the Canaries.

PARIS, June 2 .- General Dix, the retiring American minister, at the banquet last night, regretted that he was compelled to separate from his countrymen in Paris, and referred to the many erroncous impressions with respect to the United States. He said the true mission of that country was to subdue the wilderness and convert it to the abode of civilization. He traced the succession of events leading the colonists from the valleys of the Atlantic first to the basin of the Mississippi, and thence to Colorado and California; still another century would be required to complete the work. The policy of America was not war, but improvement; not devastation, but fraternity; not aggression, for the accession of territory was certain by friendly arrangements and not by injustice or violence.

HAVANA, June 2 .- The property confiscated between April 19 and June 1 produced $70,000. The city is terribly excited since yesterday. Volunteers are arming, and serious riots are expected. A heavy engagement has taken place between the bays of Nifre and Baros. The official report aunounces that four cannon have been captured by the filibusters.

HAVANA, June 2e-The agitation in the city has partially abated. Dulce resigned this morning, and Dow Esperier is acting as Captain General, and will continue to do so until the arrival of Caballero de Rodns.

The city is tranquil, but disorder threatens to break out at any moment. The volunteers are greatly incensed at General Pelaze, who has disappeared. A feeling of great anxiety prevails in the city. The Vascongade volunteers arrived in port to-day.

LONDON, June 2 .- The Times, reviewing the correspondence between the English and American governments on the Alabama claims, &c., says: "Although we were well aware of the frankness and desire for a good understanding, which characterized two successive British governments, we knew not the lengths to which conciliation was actually carried, and how completely it was their own propositions and their own acts which the Americans repudiated through their Senate. When we compare the spirit of America with the conceding temper of England, and consider that all that was yielded was insufficient to prevent the rejection of the treaty, we despair of the success of any negotiation in which England maintains a due regard for her own rights and honor."

LONDON, June 2 .- In the House of Commons. last night, Mr. Seely urged that in future contracts for carrying mails to the United States be made for no longer time than three years, and that payments for service be regulated by the amount of mails carried. He advocated ocean penny postage, and hoped negotiations would be entered into with the United States for its establishment.

The Marquis of Huntington defended the late mail contracts. Although he sympathized with Mr. Seely's sentiments, he was opposed to his proposals, which, if carried into effect, would tend to uncertainty in the service and to disinclination on the part of the steamship companies to compete with each other. He thought the present contracts would be the last which would be made with a fixed subsidy, but was altogether doubtful of the success of any negotiations for the establishment of penny postage across the Atlantic. The theme was then dropped.

Mr. Moore moved that a special committee be appointed to inquire into the treatment of untried Irish political prisoners.

Mr. Fortescue, Chief Secretary for Ireland, believed the complaints made of the ill treatment of these prisoners were exaggerated, but he thought political prisoners awaiting trial should be held under the supervision of government officers, and not kept in county jails.

After remarks from Mr. Gray and Maguire, condemning the present system of holding untried prisoners in confinement, the House divided on the motion, and refused to appoint the committee-20 against 84.

SOFA BED. HOVER'S PATENT COMBINATION SOFA BED

is decidedly the best Sofa Bed ever invented. It can be extended from a Sofa into a handsome French Bedstead, with hair spring mattress, in ten seconds of time. It requires no unscrewing or detaching, has no separation between back and seat, no cords to break, and no hinged foot attached to the top of the back to support it when down, which is unsafe and liable to get out of repair. It has the conveniences of a bureau for holding clothing, is easily managed and it is impossible for it to get out of order. Price about the same as an ordinary sofa.
