

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. Among the many guests expected to be present on the occasion of the banquet given in honor of ex-Governor A. G. Curtin on Saturday evening next, are President Grant and his Cabinet, Major-General Meade, of the Army, and Admiral Taylor, of the Navy.

Senator Oliver P. Morton, of Indiana, and Senator Buckingham, of Connecticut, the only two living War Governors contemporary with Governor Curtin, will also be present. The Russian Consul-General at New York, Baron Bodisco, ex-Governor William A. Newell, of New Jersey, and the Judges of our city and State courts, have signified their intention of gracing the festival by their presence.

The Hon. Henry Williams will respond to the sentiment of the "Judiciary," and Senator Scott to that of "President of the United States."

Messrs. W. P. Messick and R. M. Batters, examiners, held another session yesterday afternoon. HAVANA, June 9.—The emigration of Cubans from the island has again commenced, and large numbers are leaving. The Commission of Volunteers met yesterday and adjourned without taking any action. It is reported that Minister Roberts telegraphed from Washington to the authorities of Havana, warning them of the precarious position.

THE INDIANS. The Last Battle—Contest on the Musselshell River—A Fierce Engagement—Savage Warfare by the Whites.

On the eighth day of May the town of Musselshell was attacked by a party of one hundred and fifty Santee Sioux, armed with guns and revolvers, on foot. The first intimation had of their presence was the firing upon and driving in of a small party who were out bringing in firewood.

On the eleventh day of May the Indians were again victorious. The Santee Sioux, on the morning of the eighth, and although the settlers were outnumbered more than two to one, and the Indians well armed, they determined to wipe the red devils out or leave their scalps to adorn the wampums of the "noble" red men.
