Next week will be devoted to benefits, that of Miss Annie Graham being announced for Monday. Money and Ray Elas will be performed. At the THEATRE COMPLE Miss Sugan Galton will appear for the last times this afternoon and evening. At the mattice La Rose de St. Fizur and Lischen and Fritzchen will be performed. In the evening Mr. Kelleher will have a benefit, and "66" and Les Deux Accarles will be presented. At THE ARCH the new drams by Wilkie Collins and Charles Fechter, entitled Black and While, will be performed this evening. Humply Dumply will shortly be produced at the Arch Street Theatre in grand style. This pantomime has had a most extraordinary success, having run in New York longer than any place ever produced on the American stage. It is admirably saited for a summer entertainment, and will no doubt be warmly welcomed.

AT THE AMERICAN AN Altractive variety entertainment will be given this afternoon and evening. The De Lave Sisters will appear on both occasions.
