DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

A Whole Block of Buildings Destroyed. About half-past 4 yesterday afternoon a fire occurred at Sixth and Columbia avenue, which resulted in a greater destruction of property than has for some time past been witnessed in this city. The block bounded by Oxford street and Columbia avenue and Fifth and Sixth streets is composed almost entirely of manufacturing establishments and places of business, and threefourths of it is now destroyed. The fire origi nated in a large frame structure on Columbia avenue, above Fifth, occupied by Joseph Canavan, dealer in and manufacturer of skins. This was totally destroyed, and the flames extanding westward, set fire to the large five-story brick and stone factory structured on the structure of Sixth factory situated on the southeast corner of Sixth street and Columbia avenue, occupied by William McDaniels, manufacturer of curied hair, con-suming it entirely, and almost totally destroying the large furniture establishment of D. B. Slifer, situated to the south of it, on Sixth street. Adjoining this property was a three-story brick structure known as Richardson's Furniture Manufactory, and occupied by C. Hall, agent, and John Pcy, scroll sawyer. This establish-ment was apparently but little damaged by fire, though the loss from water must have been considerable. On Columbia avenue, east of the building in which the fire originated and adjoining it, was which the fire originated and adjoining it, was the caff, kid, and gaiter leather manufactory of Hermann Stracudel. It was a two-story frame building, and fronted on Fifth street. It likewise was totally destroyed. On Fifth street, adjoining this establishment, was the place of C. Schmitz & Co., leather manufacturers. This building was of brick, two stories high and of considerable length, and was completely burned out. The second story was occupied by Henry Reinecke. South of this structure were two two-and-a-half story frame dwellings, occupied by families in moderate circumstances, who at an early hour were compelled to flee, taking amines in moderate circumstances, who at an early hour were compelled to flee, taking with them such of their goods as could be re-moved. The interiors of the dwellings were destroyed. In the centre of the angle formed by the rear of the burning building, with au outlet on Flifth street, was situated the Phoenix tannery of C. B. Williams. The shedding and all the houses save those fronting on Fifth street were nearly totally destroyed, and a large number of skins that were soaking in the vats and undergoing the process of manufacture were rendered worthless by the quantity of water with which the ground was flooded.

On the west side of Sixth street, immediately above Oxford, is a row of three-story brick above Oxford, is a row of three-story brick houses, which were more or less damaged by fire. No. 1631, occupied by Nicholas Quary, was entirely burned out. The household goods were covered by insurance. Mr. McDaniels owned the premises. No. 1655, occupied by John Dofby, was slightly damaged by fire, and the furniture by water. Dwelling No. 1648 N. Sixth street, occupied by Henry Geissner, caught fire on the roof, and was partially destroyed. The entire household effects were damaged by water. No. 1650, occupied and owned by Sarah water. No. 1650, occupied and owned by Sarah Lawrence, was slightly burned, and the furniture damaged by water. The fence surround-ing the property of Ellis, Bunting & Ellis, sash and window-frame manufacturers, caught fire, but the flames were extinguished before they communicated with the lumber stored on the premises.

Dwelling No. 1642 North Sixth street, occupled by Mr. John Sterns, was entirely consumed The occupant suffers a heavy loss. The pro-perty adjoining, occupied by Mr. William Car-brey and Mrs. Engle, caught fire and shared a like fate. Also the property occupied by Mr. Michael Moran.

On Columbia avenue, between Fifth and Sixth streets, stands a large four-story building, used by the Philadelphia and Boston Salt Fish Com-pany. This caught fire, and before the flames were suppressed was considerably injured on the exterior, but the interior of the building escaped material damage. The row of threestory houses adjoining this was considerably

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Captain Loxier, late of steamahip Cricket, wrecked on St. Augustine bar, attributes the loss of his vessel to the fact that the channel leading into the Inlet has changed to the southward one-half a mile in distance. The direc-tion of the channel has changed some eight points within the last three months, although the buoys remain in their former location. The new channel lies one half a mile south of the old channel, where the buoys would in licata, and instead of the coarse being S.SW. It is W.NW., thus deceiving vessels bound in, half a mile in the distance and eight points in the coarse.
