NEWS SUM TARY.

City Adairs. A large meeting of the members of the Philadelphia Produce Association was held yesterday afternoon, at their rooms, on South Delaware avenue. After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the previous meeting a report was presented by the secretary, stating that several persons had been reported as doing business without a license, and their cases had been referred to the Solicitor of the Association, G. Morgan Eldredge, Esq., Mr. Barnes, Collector, and J. L. Kerns, Distraining Officer of Internal Revenue of the First district, who referred the matter to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. It was also reported that, on inquiry at the Highway Dopartment, it had been ascertained that cart venders were under the necessity of having their carts registered and numbered, in neglect of which the drivers were liable to arrest, It was reported that several parties other than those referred to were doing business without license. The election was then held for officers to serve the ensuing year, resulting as follows:—President, A. B. Detwiler; Vice-President, J. A. Hopkins; Secretary, Harry Carr; Treasurer, William H. Powell; Directors, J. W. Worth, Stephen Cox, R. A. Shetzline, C. W. Taylor, Solicitor, J. T. Pratt. -Revenue officers Heilman, Hause, Herr, and Ghegan paid a visit to the Twenty-fifth ward on Tuesday, to search for illicit distille-ries. They had a file of marines with them to prevent an attack by the populace, and the presence of the soldiers kept the evil-dis-posed in check. One still was found in the rear of No. 1622 Richmond street, and one still, with two barrels of whisky and eighteen hogsheads of mash, back of William street, above Edgemont. The whisky and stills were removed, and the mash was destroyed.

—The marble cutters' strike, which commenced on the first of June, terminated yesterday. They demanded an advance of one dollar per day, the working day to consist of nine hours on the first five days of the week and eight hours on Saturday. The employers would not grant the demand, and the journeymen have resumed work at the old rate of wages, ten hours to be the working day.

—A number of temperance men in this city have issued a call for a convention, to be held on the 4th of August, at Concert Hall, to form a party in favor of prohibiting, by law, the sale of intoxicating drinks.

St. Louis, July 14.—Despatches from Omaha give reports from General A. E. Carr of his operations against the Indians. On the 11th instant, he says, we surprised a village of Dog Soldiers and Cheyennes, under command of Tall Bull, killing fifty-two, and capturing seventeen women and children, among them the wife and daughter of Tall They had two white women, taken in Sabine. They murdered one, whose first name is said to be Susanna. We captured three hundred and fifty animals, lodges, rifles, pistols, etc. The names of the chiefs captured are Good Bear, Whistler, Powder Face, Pretty Bear, Stain Face, and Bull Thigh, We followed them ten days, and found them south of Platte, near Valley Station, when they fell back towards the head of Frenchman's ford. They still have many animals. Our horses entirely gave out, some dying, and will require several weeks' rest.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The Platform Adopted by the Convention-The Candidates and the Bailots. The following is the platform adopted by the Democratic Convention at Harr sburg also the ballots for the candidates for Gov.

The Democracy of Pennsylvania, in convention met, do unanimously declare:-First. That the Federal Government is limited to the grants contained in the Federal Constitution; that the exercise of doubtful constitutional powers is dangerous to the stability of the Government and the safety of the people; and the Democratic party will never consent that the State of Pennsylvania shall surrender her great right of local selfgovernment

Secend. That the attempted ratification of the proposed affecth amendment to the Federal Constitution by the radical members of the last Legislature, and their refusal to sylvania is opposed to conferring upon the negro the right to vote; and we do emphatically deny that there is any right or power in Congress or elsewhere to impose negro suffrage upon the people of this State in opposition to their will.

Fourth. That reform in the administration of the Federal and State Governments in the management of their financial affairs is imperatively demanded.

Fifth. That the movements now being made for the amelioration of the condition of the laboring men have our most cordial co-oper-

Sixth. That the legislation of the late Republican Congress, outside of the Constitution, the disregard of the majority therein of the will of the people and sanctity of the ballot-box, in the exclusion from their seats in Congress of Representatives clearly elected, the establishment of military governments in States in the Union, and the overthrow of all civil government therein, are acts of tyranny and usurpation that tend directly to the destruction of all republican government and the creation of the worst forms of despotism.

Seventh. That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory, must be gratefully remembered, and the guarantees given in their favor most faithfully carried into execution.

Eighth, Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens, at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example of encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and undi-

Ninth. That the present internal revenue and taxing system of the General Govern-ment is grossly unjust, and means ought to be at once adopted to cause a modification thereof.

On motion of General Coffroth, nominations were made for a candidate for Governor. The following were named:-

George W. Cass, of Allegheny; Daniel M. Fox, of Philadelphia; Asa Packer, of Northampton; General William McCandless, of Philadelphia, and General W. S. Hancock, Mr. Wallace submitted a letter written by

General Hancock on May 21, 1869 (addressed to some personal friends in Northampton county), declining to permit the use of his name in connection with the gubernatorial nomination, and suggesting that some one more experienced in the affairs of State, and identified with its interests, should be se-

Mr. Ancona, who nominated General Hancock, asserted his purpose to support him for the candidacy notwithstanding his decli-

The balloting was then proceeded with:-FIRST BALLOT.

After the first ballot the name of General McCandless was withdrawn, and the second ballot resulted:-

SECOND BALLOT. Cass ......47 Judge Packer was then declared the nominee for Governor. JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT. The convention then proceeded to ballot for Judge of the Supreme Court, which resulted in the nomination of C. L. Pershing, of Cambria county. Why Hancock Did Not Consent to be a Can-didnte.

As our Harrisburg specials intimated yesterday, General Hancock forwarded some time ago to his friends a letter prohibiting the use of his name in the nominations for a Gubernatorial candidate. This is the text of the communication:

Sr. Paul, Minn., May 21, 1869 .- Dear Sirs :- I had the pleasure to receive your favor of May I last just before leaving Washington for the West. My occu-pations and duties prevented me from promptly repations and duties prevented me from promptly re-plying to your communication, and such is to be re-gretted, for I was as well prepared to express to you my views then as now, and by 'having promptly written I would have avoided the appearance of hesitation. My views on the subject concerning which you address me have never changed, and I have freely expressed them to all persons who have in any form communicated with me to that end. I am averse to obtruding myself upon the public, and have therefore avoided writing anything for publication, although I have authorized my correspondents to make any other proper use of my sentiments. I write to you with the same limitation as to the purpose to which my letter may be applied, and for the me reasons.

I feel highly honored by the preference shown me I feel highly honored by the presence shown me in old Northampton, as expressed in your letter; but notwithstanding the high honor which you propose to confer by casting your influence for me in the nominating convention for Governor, now close at hand, I must state, and without reservation, that under existing circumstances I cannot permit the use of my name in that connection. Were I in circle. under existing circumstances I cannot permit the use of my name in that connection. Were I in civil life, no distinction would be more agreeable to me than to be Governor of Pennsylvania. I have, how-ever, followed the profession of arias since boyhood, and now that I have acquired considerable rank, do not wish to abandon it and enter upon a life for which I am much less prepared by experience or

In declining to permit the use of my name, I have onsidered that no injury would result to the State, for there are numbers of distinguished men, knowing its interests far better than myself, whom the people would be pleased to honor, and who could render more efficient services to the people of Pennsylvania than myself. I am truly your obedient servant,

To Messrs, G. H. Gundy, William Mitchell, Charles BMeade, William H. Hutter, James Veal, H. Merryman, B. B. Weish, and Z. Hagerman, Beth-

VIRGINIA.

What was Said During the Interview Between Grant and the New Go cernor. From the Washington Republican, July 13.

Grant and the New Go'crnor.

From the Washington Republican, July 13.

Hon, G. C. Walker, Gover for elect of Virginia, called at the Executive Ma islon yesterday morning, for the purpose of paying his respects to the President at once entered into conversation with the Governor, and the result of the visit; but the President at once entered into conversation with the was freely and the result of the campaign in Virginia was freely and the President was highly gratified at the overwhet ming majority in favor of the Constitution, as well as the vote cast against the disfranchising and test cath clauses, Mr. Walker said he hoped the Punninstration would sustain the State Government of Virginia in perfecting what had been so auspleiously begun. In reply, the President expressed himself without reserve, in favor of encouraging in every way the only policy that could be of any avail in the reconstruction of the South, viz.; an unlimited confidence in those who would mert it, as the people of Virginia certainly had. It was clear to the President that the people of the Southern States must stand unequivocally on the platform which the issues of the war had made. Virginia, it seemed, was ready to do so, and he hoped a spirit of conciliation would spring up among her people that would wield as great an influence in re-establishing the prosperity of the South as had been misdirected against it during the Rebellion. He received the promise that the President would aim to consummate the policy inaugurated, and to the best of his ability direct all the influence of the administration in be half of the best interests of the State.

In the course of conversation the President said he had read Mr. Walker's speech on the occasion of his serenade in Richmond after the election, and he approved the sentiments uttered on that accasion. Governer Walker stated to the President that he would not permit himself to be influenced by the old politicians of the State. It was his purpose to carry out submit the same to a vote of the people, was a deliberate breach of their official duty and an outrage upon every citizen of the State, and the resolution making such ratification should be promptly repealed, and the smendment submitted to the people at the polls for acceptance or rejection.

Third. That the Democratic party of Pennsylvania is opposed to conferring upon the Democrat. He then stood on the same platform with General Rosecrans, who, he regretted to know, had now become the Gubernatorial candidate of the Vallandigham party in Ohio.
