MEWS SUMMARY.

-The United States steamer Juniata, which has been under repair at the Philadelphia Navy Yard for some months past, was put in commission yesterday, and will sail in a few day on a cruise up the Mediterranean. She is under command of Captain Luce.

-The first river regatta will take place on Thursday morning next. There will be four classes of boats and four prizes and the championship of the season to be contested for. They are as follows:-Class 1-Eighteen feet decked boats and under. Class 2-Gilling skiffs, eighteen feet and under. Class 3-Fifteen feet decked boats. Class 4-Gunning skiffs, of the same dimensions or under. The flag-boat will be stationed in the New Jersey channel, convenient to Point Airy island. The distance run, the vessels starting in their several orders, to the Horse Shoe buoy, below Gloucester Point, N. J., to return and repeat. The time of starting is fixed for 10 A. M. The novelty of the introduction of the fifteen feet decked boats is exciting much attention. They are all new, and were built at Cooper's Point, N. J.

-For several days past workmen have been engaged in pulling down the old building S. E. corner of Ninth and Market streets, preparatory to the erection of a new structure for Cooper & Conard. This occurred at four o'clock, and notwithstanding the fact that seven or eight men were at work, not one was killed, and only one slightly scratched. The escape is due to the manner in which the wall fell-settling instead of falling outward or inward. A portion of the flooring also retained its position, and gave the men some shelter.

-Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Stephen Gurk, a resident of Doylestown, met with a painful accident while driving in this city He had reached Twelfth and Wood streets, when the axle of the carriage broke, throwing Mr. Gurk to the ground, and breaking his leg immediately above the ankle. He was taken to the house of Mr. Johnson, in the neighborhood, and, after receiving medical attention, was removed to the Girard House. A lady who was in the carriago with Mr. Gurk escaped unhurt.

-The alarm of fire last night about quarter to twelve o'clock was caused by the burning of the cooper shop of Frederick Heilig, situated on Hutchinson street, below Columbia avenue.
