What if we were at War with England?—Horrible Massacre in Spain—Sir Samuel Baker's Expedition to Egypt—A Berlin Scandal Case—General News Summary.

We take the following extracts from files of European journals which have just reached us.

Frightful Massacre in Spain—Barbarities Sanctioned by the Government. A letter from Madrid gives us some of the details of a frightful massacre which, for downright atrocity, can hardly be excelled.

In half an hour discharges of firearms were heard, accompanied by terrible shouts, which silenced as it were other cries.

The English paper says Dr. Gedze, of Bury St. Edmunds, has accepted the post of superintendent of the medical staff in Sir Samuel Baker's expedition to Lake Nyanza.

The Naval Defenses of Great Britain—How an American Enemy Could Operate. A letter from London, dated August 16, contains the following:

It is not possible to imagine that, in the event of a war with England, America were to despatch a large fleet of iron-clads to Ireland.

At Sheerness we have a dockyard and a few men-of-war, but no iron-clads. From Sheerness a few men-of-war, but no iron-clads.

When there was a change of wind it should take place exactly at the moment, he would in all probability fall into the hands of his enemy long before he could return.

Under date of July 31, the Minister of War issued the following to the Captains General of districts:

Place yourselves in accord with the civil government, that they warn energetically and determinately the Alcaldes that they lend all possible assistance and aid in the persecution of the rebel parties.

He Makes a Mile in 2:23 1/2 to a Road Wagon. Yesterday afternoon, in presence of about one hundred members of the Prospect Park Association, of Brooklyn, Dexter made the greatest performance that any horse ever accomplished on a trotting track.

FROM BALTIMORE. A Blow at the Maryland Democracy—Base Ball. BALTIMORE, Sept. 1.—The workingmen held another important meeting last night, and appointed persons to regulate affairs in every ward, determining also to organize thoroughly, and run an out and out workingmen's ticket for local and State officers. This is a serious blow to the Democracy, who greatly fear it.
