CONSUMPTION.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, for the cure of Coughs, Colds, and Consumption.

Dr. SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC, for the cure of Dyspepsia and all the Debilitated Conditions of the Stomach.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, for Discases of the Liver, or to act as a Gentle Purgative.

All of these three medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills assist in regulating the Stomach and Liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search through the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected.

These medicines are conscientiously offered to the public as the only safe, certain, and reliable remedies for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention.

The Pulmonic Syrup is a medicine which has had a long probation before the public. Its value has been proved by the thousands of cures It has made through a period of more than thirty-five years, in all of which time its reputation has constantly increased, and the most obstinate skepticism can no longer doubt that it is a remedy which may be used with confidence in all cases which admit of a cure.

If the patient will perseveringly follow the directions which accompany each bottle he will certainly be cured, if his lungs are not too much wasted to make a cure possible. Even in cases supposed to be incurable, when friends and physicians have despaired, the use of this medicine has saved the life of the patient and restored him to perfect health.

Dr. Schenck himself was cured in precisely such circumstances, and many others have been equally fortunate by judiciously making a timely use of Dr. Schenck's remedies.

Dr. Schenck does not say that all cases of Pulmonary Consumption are within the reach of medicine, but he emphatically asserts, that often when patients have the most alarming symptoms, such as a violent cough, creeping chills, night sweats and general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they are given up by their physician they may still be cured. No medical treatment can create new lungs, but when the lungs are very badly diseased, and to some extent destroyed, a cure may be effected by Dr. Schenck's medicines.

Also in Scrofulous Diseases these medicines are equally efficient. Dr. Schenck has photographs of a number of persons who have been nearly covered with running sores, and now all healed up. This shows its purifying properties. which must be done to heal cavities in the lungs.

In the treatment of Consumption, it is of the utmost importance to give vigor and a healthy tone to the system. Hence it is necessary to strengthen the appetite of the patient and improve the digestion. Proper nourishment is required, together with such means as will make the food easily digestible. The articles most suitable for the diet of consumptive patients are designated in Dr. Schenck's Almanacs, which are distributed gratuitously. In general, the most highly nutritious articles are to be preferred; but the digestive organs must be strengthened in order to make either food or medicine serviceable. This requirement is met by the Sea Weed Tonic, and for this purpose it was designated.

When the digestive powers are put in good perhaps there might be some virtue in Patent Medicines, and I bought several of them, which he took with no benefit, and we all came to the conclusion that there was no use trying anything else.

Mrs. Harvey, one of our neighbors, was speaking one day of the astounding results she had seen from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and insisted that we should try that. Her faith was so strong in that remedy that she purchased a bottle of it herself and presented it to my brother, who, more to please her than from any faith in it himself, commenced its use. The effect of that one bottle astonished us all; his appetite was better, and in every way he felt relieved, and concluded to continue the use of it. From this time he continued to improve rapidly, and in a few months, to our great loy and surprise of all who knew him, he was entirely restored to health. I assure you that als recovery was like one raised from the dead, and it is all attributed to the use of Hoofland's Bitters. Miss Burns, principal of one of the public schools, who was boarding with me at the time, said she looked upon the cure as miracu-

He is now living in Bucks county, near the Fox Chase Tavern, and is as hearty and healthy a farmer as can be found. Every time he comes to my house he asks after Mrs. Harvey, the lady who he says saved his life, by insisting on his taking Hoofland's German Bitters.

NEW-YORHISMS.

From Our Own Correspondent. NEW YORK, Sept. 4, 1869. Those

are coming along. I am certain of it. As I walked along Wall street yesterday morning I saw a man painting the glass door. If that is not corroborative of the fact, I don't know what is, The cabs were promised by the first of July. Then by the first of September. Now it is assumed that they will positively put in an appearance by the last of this month. They will probably be along by the first of January. The dynasty of the hack-drivers is nearly over. They regard the coming changes with profound disgust. But they have swindled and bullled a "patient public" long enough, and now the hour of retribution is at hand. Of course, the Hansom regime will bring along a train of abuses with it, and we shall discover that the miles for which we give our forty cents are exceedingly small ones. Neither will the Hansoms be very numerous. Probably they will not count up to more than one hundred in all. But the idea is not abandoned; for there, as I said before, is the Hansom Cab Company office on Wall street staring you in the face.

Mr. S. N. Carvalho

whose studio, at No. 765 Broadway, is one of the largest and handsomest in the city, has just completed a picture on a new American subject, entitled "The Grand Canon of the Colorado River." I said new, for I do not believe the subject has yet been treated in a picture. In order to understand it, it is necessary for the observer to remember that for three hundred miles the cut edges of the table lands of the Colorado rise abruptly, often perpendicularly, from the water's edge, forming walls from 3000 to 6000 feet in height. What is known as the "Great Canon" is the grand gorge which bisects that region, and which is surrounded by some of the most gigantic and beautiful geological phenomena anywhere to be seen. The enormously high, naked peaks which rear themselves, have been left ware by the gradual sinking of the water through countless geological ages. The scene generated amid such a variety of causes and circumstances is what Mr. Carvalho attempts to portray. His introduction of two human figures brings into proper contrast the grand proportions of the Canon without detracting from the profound sense of solitude into which the observer is betrayed. I was present yesterday afternoon at a private view of it, for which RUNY GRAT'S STRATEON, by Mrs. Ann S. Stophens, is the title of an entire new novel from the pen of this talented American authoress, now in press, and to be published on Saturday next, by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. The novels of Mrs. Stephens are productive of both pleasure and excitement. There is no previous work of Mrs. Stephens so full of her peculiar power and genius-none so absorbing in conception and develop-ment as "Ruby Gray's Strategy." order, the food has its proper effect, the system of the patient is invigorated, and the lungs begin to exercise their functions in a normal and healthy manner. Then the healing powers of the Pulmonic Syrup will complete the cure.

Pulmonary Consumption is almost always complicated with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are intended to remove obstructions from the liver and restore its healthy action. They have all the efficacy which is ascribed to calomci or "blue mass," and are warranted not to contain a particle of any mineral poison. These pills cure the most obstinate costiveness, sick headache, piles, bilious affections, and all other diseases which arise from a torpid or obstructed condition of the liver. One box of these pills will prove the efficacy of the medicine.

In Consumption, the Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are invaluable auxiliary medicines. They relieve the sufferings of the patient and assist the Pulmonic Syrap in effecting a cure. They have been found useful in advanced stages of Consumption, where the lungs were almost entirely destroyed, and all symptoms, according to the judgment of the physicians, indicated speedy death. The lives of patients who were actually in a dying condition have been preserved for months by the use of Schenck's three great remedies.

Dr. Schenck's Almanac, containing a full treatise on the various forms of disease, his mode of treatment, and general directions how to use his medicine, can be had gratis, or sent by mail by addressing his Principal Office, No. 15 N. Sixth street. Philadelphia, Pa.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1:50 per bottle, or $7:50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents per box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

THE MOST REMARKABLE Case ever known.

ASTOUNDING Results from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters.

Mrs. Annie Hoops, No. 1834 Master street, Philadelphia, states as follows:---

I am witness to a most remarkable cure of Liver Complaint, accompanied with general debility, cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. My brother, John F. Duff, several years ago, was taken with a severe pain in his side and breast, proceeding from a very bad cold, attended with a most distressing cough. He was working at the time at boat building, in Yardleyville, Bucks county, Pa. He continued working in this condition for a long time.

During this time he used a great many remedies, but received benefit from none of them; in fact, he continued to grow gradually worse, his cough and all other symptoms of disease increasing. He became subject to night sweats and aches and pains of almost every description. At this stage of his disease he was compelled to quit work, and call in a physician, who attended him for some time, without doing him any good. His disease had now advanced so far that it was deemed advisable to secure the advice of a consulting physician. He was under the care of these two doctors, the best in Bucks county, for several months, but was still becom-ing worke. He now became much discouraged, and began to think his case beyond cure, and came to my house, in this city, as all who saw him thought, to die. He was so weak and thin that he could not walk one square without sitting down on some door siep to rest and get his hreath.

Physicians having failed, I thought that tickets of invitation were issued by the artist. It is to be removed to-day to the Sixty-third Street Skating Rink, there to remain until after the great fair of the American Institute, to be commenced next Wednesday, shall be over.

The New York Correspondents

returned from Halifax yesterday, with the fire of health upon their cheeks, and the rose of victory in their eyes-or vice versa. Some of them, I fear, will discover changes that they little expected. At the daily Times for instance, there is a soft tumult and flutter. As 1 intimated in a prior letter, managing editor Conant became ex-managing editor a week ago. Mr House, the recent dramatic editor, folded his tent two or three days ago, and Mr. Shanks, the city editor, twisted up his blankets about the same time. Mr. Farrell, the recent city editor of the Herald, has also gone up in a balloon. But all these young fellows, possessing the parachute of talent, will be sure to come down on their feet. If they were less able, and less certain of making their own futures, I should say that, after having once escaped from the snares of Bohemianism, 12 was too bad for them to be flung back to it once again. A journalist in New York, however, need never despair of inaking a living. Perhaps he may not always get paid as well as the chap that does the "wench" business among the negro minstrels, but then look at the difference in positions!

Theatrical Items.

Next week will be a busy one among theatricals. At Niblo's they are straining every nerve to properly present Formosa on Monday night. Miss Lonsdale, as I recently signified, is to reappear, after an absence of eight or nine years. She is now, I believe, Mrs. Darcie, and is the only actress extant fitted to succeed the late Mary Gannon-in the opinion of herself and her husband. At the Olympic Uncle Tom's Cabin is to retake possession of the boards. Perhaps it would take better if the title were changed to "The True Story of Uncle Tom." At the French theatre Parepa-Rosa is pushing things in the Furitan's Drughter. Her business manager, De Vivo, who has just returned from an eighteen days' expedition to San Francisco, one who gets $250 per week salary for making his little game, is making himself fascinating to those dispassionate gentlemen who prepare criticisms. In connection with the French theatre I might mention the fact that Mr. Grau has lately experienced an addiction in the death of his father. The old gentleman suddenly felt ill while walking in the street, went into French's hotel, took a toom, and was found dead in his bed next morning. The Batemans, father and son, keep quiet. The daughter will arrive here in a few days now, and commence at Booth's immediately upon the termination of Mr. Jefferson's engagement. This week we have had quite a severe attack of autumn. The disease was acute, but threatens to become chronic. Summer has taken her leave, or become enronic. Summer has derived at the second se
