OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN.

Unconverted Teachers. Andrew is a picture of what all disciples of Christ should be. This first successful Christian missionary was himself a sincere follower of Jesus. Is it needful to make that observation? Nay, will it ever be needless, while so many make a profession of a faith which they do not possess? While so many will wantonly thrust themselves into the office of Christ's Church. having no concern for the glory of his kingdom. and no part or lot in it, it will be always needful to repeat that warning. "Unto the wicked God saith. What hast thou to do to declare my statutes?' Men who have never seen the beauties of Emmanuel are not fit persons to describe them to others. An experimental acquaintance with vital godliness is the first necessity for a useful worker for Jesus. That preacher is accursed, who knows not Christ for himself. God may, in infinite sovereignty, make him the means of blessing to others, but every moment that he tarries in the pulpit he is an impostor: every time he preaches he is a mocker of God: and wee unto him when his Master calls him to his dread account. You unconverted young people, who enter upon the work of Sanday School instruction, and so undertake to teach others what you do not know yourselves, do place yourselves in a position of unusual solemnity and of extraordinary peril. I say of "extraordinary peril," because you do, by the fact of being a teacher, profess to know, and will be judged by your profession, and, I fear, condemned out of your own mouths. You know the theory only of religion, and of what use is that while you are strangers to its power? How can you lead others along a way which you yourself refuse to tread? Besides, I have noticed that persons who become active in churchwork before they have first believed in Christ, are very apt to remain without faith, resting content with the general repute which they have gained. Oh, dear friends, beware of this. In this day, hypocrisy is so common, self-decelt is so easy, that I would not have you place yourselves where those vices become almost inevitable. If a man voluntarily puts himself where it is taken for granted that he is godly, his next step will be to mimic godliness, and by-and-by he will flatter himself into the belief that he really possesses that which he so successfully imitates. Beware, dear hearers, of a religion which is not true; it is worse than none. Beware of a form of godliness, which is not supported by the fervor of your heart and soul. This age of shams presents but few assistances to self-examination, hence am I the more earnest that every one of us, before he shall seek to bring others to Christ, should deliberately ask himself, "Am I a follower of Christ myself? Am I washed in His blood? Am I renewed by His Spirit? If not,

Christ's Church, Plymouth, that he must not officiate in any Protestant Episcopal church within the diocese of Massachusetts. This is supposed to be on account of Mr. Fisse's ritualistic proclivities.

-The Protestant Episcopal Church has in this city 65 churches (an increase of four in the ecclesiastical year); 15,676 communicants (an increase of 1160); 24,462 Sunday scholars (increase 1460). The contributions amount to $434,396. The whole diocese numbers 20,196 members.

—At the recent Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Western New York, held in Rochester, Bishop Coxe announced his intention of giving his valuable private library, consisting of several thousand volumes, to the diocese, under certain conditions, as the nucleus of an Episcopal library for the use of the bishops of Western New York for ever. -The Bridgeton (N. J.) paper of last week contains a very pleasant notice of the entrance of the Rev. Dr. W. W. Spear upon his duties as rector of St. Andrew's Church in that town. Extracts are also given from the Altoona Tribune and from the Vindicator. All speak in one strain of the acceptableness and usefulness of the Rev. Doctor's labors among them. Much sympathy is expressed for him, because the delicate state of health of some of the members of his family renders a milder climate indispensably necessary for their restoration to health, and the hope is cherished that the change may be serviceable. Dr. Spear preached a farewell sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association of Altoona, and an opening sermon to the Bridgeton congregation, both of which were appropriate and well received.

Rev. J. W. Healy, who is now spending a few weeks in Massachusetts, gives a most hopeful account of the progress of the Congregational church at New Orleans, of which he pastor. Prejudice is wearing away, and it is beginning to be possible for men to join the congregation without losing their business or their social standing. Mr. Healy has just been elected President of the New Orleans Uni-

This impression is unfounded, as no such change is contemplated. The surplus funds of this society are used to build edifices and carry on outlying missions, and it is proposed to establish a third mission, when a suitable site can be secured."

FIRE AND BURGLAR PROOF SAFE

HERRING'S CHAMPION SAFES.

THE BURNING OF EARLES' ART GALLERY.

PHILADELPHIA, September 1, 1869. MESSES, FABREL, HERRING & CO., No. 629 Chesnut street.

Gentlemen:-We have just examined, with the very greatest satisfaction, our Safe, purchased of you some years ago, and which passed through our destructive fire of last night.

We find the contents, without exception, entirely anharmed, merely slightly damp, and we feel now in a condition to commence our business again, having every book perfectly safe. We shall in a few days require a larger one, and will call upon you.

CHAMPION SAFES.

PHILADELPHIA, August 27, 1869.

MESSES, FARREL, HERRING & CO. Gentlemen:-In the year 1856 I unfortunately was in business in the Artisan Building, which was destroved by fire on the 10th of April. I had then in use what I supposed was a Fire-Proof Safe, but upon opening it I found everything destroyed, and fire burning therein.

You will recollect, gentlemen, there was several of your Safes in that fire, also several in the fire at Sixth and Commerce streets, the next May, five weeks afterwards, all of which upon being opened proved they were fire-proof indeed, for I witnessed the opening of the most of them, and in every case the contents were preserved, while Safes of other makers were partially or entirely destroyed. I at once concluded to have something that I could depend upon, and purchased one of your Safes. The safe I purchased of you at that time was subected to a white heat (which was witnessed by several gentlemen that reside in the neighborhood) at the destruction of my Marble Paper factory, 924 Wallace street, on the afternoon and evening of the 24th inst. After digging the safe from the ruins, and opening it this morning, I was much pleased to find everything, consisting of books, papers, money and silverware, all right. I shall want another of your safes as soon as I can get a place to continue my business in. I could not rest contented with any other make of sales.
