THE ELECTION CONTESTS.

Conclusion of Mr. Sellers' Argument. COURT OF COMMON PLEAS-Allison, P. J. and Judges Ludlow, Peirce, and Brewster .-

After the close of our report yesterday, Mr. Sellers having finished his recount of the attacked divisions, concluded as follows:-Thus, may it please the Court, I have purged all the polls that the complainants attacked, charging to the respondents every vote that we have failed to answer for in the clearest manner, and we have left the following majorities:-Mayor. 1720 Solicitor. 893 Controller. 1729 Prothonotary 672 Dist. Attorney ..... 1491 Receiver ......... 314

Commissioner ... I have always thought in regard to this case, and I now think, that owing to the exclusion of so many naturalized citizens last year, these majorities ought not to be disturbed. If in this your Honors differ from me, still I think no triounal could urge these poils more rigidly than have done, and yet do justice to the cause. I candidly believe that the men returned as elected undoubtedly carried this county, and if there had not been such an enormous exclusion of naturalized citizens, they would have presented such majorities as would have induced the petitioners to desist from the expease and trouble of such a contest as this. Thanking your Honors for the patience with which you have heard me, and my learned oppo-nents for kindness and candor they have shown me. I now close. e court then adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

2.30 P. M.—Thomas Carson, of Hampton mine, and George Morgan, of Nanticoke, experienced and competent miners, with twenty men, have explored every part of the workings, and are satisfied that all the bodies have been recovered; but outside parties say two men are still missing. One hundred and eight bodies have now been taken out.

The following is a full list of the dead:

PLIMOUTH, Sept 9-It has from the first been hoped that Mr. Hughes, inside foreman, would have made some memoranda, which, being found would give information as to the time life was prolonged, and when his body was brought up his cont was off and his tools, time books, &c., were misswas off and his tools, time books, &c., were missing. After it was deemed certain that no more bodies remained in the mine, Mr. Benj, Hugues, general inside foreman of all the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Raliroad Company's mines, and brother of Evan Hugbes, taking four men with them, went down to search for his brother's cont. hoping to find in it the memorania so much desired. He found the cost 500 or 600 vards from where Mr. Hughes' body had been found, and outside of both barricades. It contained his compass and other tools, and two time-books, but no memoranda whatever, so that all hope of having a record of the last hours of the dead is lest.

of the last hours of the dead is lost.

No doubt all the bodies are now up, as thorough explorations of the mine reveal no more, and one hurdred and eight represents the total less of life. There are fifty-nine widows and one hundred and nine orphans made by this disaster. Numbers of the men have children living in the old country, and the destination here is great and requires immediate relief. The strike of three and one-hair mouths had reduced all the families to the verge of starvation, and the men not being at work long grounds to receive any nay, there never was a case starvation, and the men not being at work long enough to receive any pay, there never was a case that appeals more strongly to the charitable. The funerals have been going on all day.

Ptymourn, Sept. 9.—Please request each neighborhood that may wish to relieve the widows and orphans at Avondale, to immediately take such measures as they may think best to collect funds for that all the same are the same. for that object and forward the same as soon as practicable to W. #### THE STORM KING.

Fearful Hurricane Along the New England Coast.

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 9.—The gale last evening from four to five o'clock was the most severe known here since 1819, when the city was partially submerged. Throughout this State the damage is immercant several lines beyonder best Institute.

mense, and several lives have been lost. In this city the Hartford Railroad depot was demolished, and Rose & Walker's tannery partially blown down. The Oriental mill was unroafed, and two operatives badly hurt. The Chestnut street church steeple was blown down, and nearly all the other church steeple was played, ware bulged. church steeples were injured.

Probably one hundred buildings were unroofed. The Bristol Railroad will not be passable for several days. Many vessels are ashore in Narragansett and Mount Hope bays, but most of them will come off without much damage. A small new church on Narragansett pler was entirely demolished. The sloop kesolution went to pieces in Wickford harbor and two men were lost. Octavian Rice was killed in his barn in Warwick.

Great damage is reported in Bristol, East Greenwich, Newport, Pawtucket, Fail River and other

The papers of to-day contain four or five columns of details of the wrock and ruin by the storm.

The hurricane of last night extended over most of eastern Masachusetts. At Nahant a large dwelling and stable were blown down, and the the steamboat wharf was blown into the depet on the steamboat what was blown into the sea. At Hull every boat at anchor in the harbor was driven ashore or souk. The windows of the Marion House were blown in and the outbuildings unroofed. At Hingham the streets were blocked with trees, and barns and chimneys were blown down. The Agricultural Hall at Marshfield was levelled to the ground. In Abington three church steeples tell, and the large nail and tack factory in South Abington was unroofed.

At Braintree the steeple of the Congregational church was carried off.

At Newburyport, and towns further east, the gale Collseum organ is ruined. It had just been sold to Chicago parties for $5000. The big drum was also smashed. Nearly every vossel in Boston harbor dragged anchor, and many collided, sustaining damage.

At Marblehead Frank Barrett, of Nashua, N. H., The Sagamore House, on Nantucket Beach, was swept from its foundation, but the inmates were uninjured, having just left for safer quarters. The gale all along the eastern coast was the most terrific experienced for years.

Captain Smith, of the schooner J. T. Kuight, has been held in $2000 hall for trial, charged with easting away his vessel. The matchas been dis-

MISCELLANY.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal, of Wednesday, says—Intelligence reached this city yeakerday that the steam ship Pioneer, Capt. Sharpley, which cleared from this port for Philadelphia on Saturiay last, was ashore on Oak Island beach, just over the rip, but inside of the bar, between Fort Caswell and Cak Island lighthouse. The extent of the damage feared we were unable definitely to secretain. The tug boats are all down the river to assist the Pioneer, and we had hoped that some one of them would have arrived last night, when we could gain full particulars. The Messrs, Beery have been called on to assist, and are at the scene of disaster. No doubt the ship is being relieved of her cargo, and we trust she may be gotten off. The beavy sea which has prevailed off our bars for the post several days, has made it dangerous for vessels to put out.

for the post saveral days, has made it dangerous for vessels to put out.

A tengenpine despatch, under date of yesterday, says:

"The work of getting the steamship Pioneer off the beach is still going on with encatraging prospects."

Swedish correcte Josephine, Captain Ankarkronce, from Liebon June 25, via Western Islands, 32 days, at New York sh inst, mounts 24 gams, and has a crew of 312 officers and men, all told. The Josephine is bound to Boston. She has two scientific gentlemen on board, who discovered a bank in the Atlantic Ocean, fourteen miles hong and nine miles wide, bearing N.N.E. and S.S.W., in lat. 36 45, long, 40 10. The bank lies between America and Gibraltar, and in the track of vessels bound from England to Madeira. They named the Pank after the ship.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PROCLAMATION. OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA.
September 6, 1880.

WHEREAS, James J. Brooks, a detective officer in the service of the United States Government, and a resident of the city, whilst in the discharge of his duty, was this day cowardly shot, with the intent to assassinate him, by two or more wickedly disposed persons, in a store situated in the neighborhood of Front and Arch streets, about 230 P. M. The assassins hastened to a chaise with two horses attached, which was in waiting close by the scene of outrage, and which, after the dastardly deed was done, was driven furiously, the driver lashing his horses, up Front street to Callowhill street, thence to St. John street, thence to Euttonwood street, thence to Sixth street, thence to Spring Garden street, thence to Fairmount Park, where the trace so far has been lost-

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me. I do I crebs offer a reward of for information which will lead to the arrest and convition of the ; uilty perpetrators of this dreadful act. The attention of all good citizens is called to this outrage, and their assistance is most earnestly invoked.
