

CITY ITEMS.

NEW STYLES FALL CLOTHING.—Ready made, in stock and being daily received. Superior in style, fit and workmanship.

A FACE.—The originator of Laughing Gas not only derives the greatest economy of the press, but the highest thanks of the public.

GAY'S CHINA PALACE, No. 1022 Chestnut street, have just received by ship Shakespeare an immense stock of Lava Goods, all new designs, which they are offering at unprecedented low prices.

Mrs. Henry Wood's New Book.—"Roland York," A Sequel to "The Charmings," by Mrs. Henry Wood, author of "East Lynne."

THIS evening's paper contains an announcement of the "Opening" of Wanamaker & Brown's fall trade. We have been looking for this, and, together with hundreds of our readers, we will cheerfully embrace this opportunity of seeing ourselves in the matter of Fall and Winter Clothing.

JEWELRY.—Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 13 South Second street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of fine Jewelry and Silverware in the city.

GAY'S CHINA PALACE, No. 1022 Chestnut street, have received all those Fine Show Pieces bought by Mr. Gay in Europe; they were all purchased under factory prices and will be sold correspondingly low.

WE advise all persons having Dishevelled Hair to try Professor Christy's celebrated Hair Lotion. It is put up in a bottle and a box. Ladies who once commence to use Lotion discard every other preparation, as it is the most perfect Hair Dressing in the world.

GAY'S CHINA PALACE, No. 1022 Chestnut street, have just received by ship Madagascar, 47 cases White French China the celebrated Palm shape. Will be sold at their usually low prices.

A LONG-NEEDED WANT.—Believing that our customers and the public generally have long needed a centralized Clothing Store, where they can purchase every article of woolens for men's and boys' wear, including all varieties of Ladies' Cloakings, Beavers, Sackings, etc., and also all Tailors' Piece Trimmings, we will open on Monday next a branch of our well-known Cloth House at the S. E. corner of Eighth and Market streets.

THE REASON WHY.—Why have those safes been broken through of late? We hear so much about it? Be candid, you that know the facts, and state, Where they are the best ones out?

Why blame the thieves for trying what they know to be some old-fashioned bit, Which might have answered twenty years ago, To trust your small cash in?

There is a limit 'e'en to burglars' skill, A safe they wisely fear; Too strong to batter, much too hard to drill, Unless they take a year!

Let every man inform himself and see That progress has been made As well to reach impregnability, As in the burglar's trade.

Whoever is supplied with MARTIN'S BEST PROOF against scamps and scorchers, I can claim security unimpaired, Untouched by tools or torches.

Be wise to-day, and buy an invincible Safe of MARTIN & CO., No. 721 Chestnut street.

GAY'S CHINA PALACE, No. 1022 Chestnut street, have just received by ship Southern Queen, another large invoice of Bohemian Glassware.

They have now the finest assortment of that class of goods ever seen in Philadelphia. If you don't credit our statement, go and see for yourselves. Show-room open till 9 o'clock at night.
