Confirmation of Scripture.

Layard's explorations of Nineveh have furnished some striking confirmations of the Scriptures. Take the following coincidence:-"The Bible tells us that Hezekiah rebelled against the King of Assyria; that in the fourteenth year of Hezekiah's reign Sennacherib came up against all the fenced elties of Judah, and took from Hezekiah three hundred talents of silver and hirty of gold. Now, compare this with the historical inscription on Sennacherib's palace:-Because Hezekich, King of Judah, dld not submit to my voke. I took and plundered forty-six of his strong fenced cities, and innumerable smaller towns, but I left him Jerusalem, his capital city; and because Hezekiah still refused o pay homage, I attacked and carried off the whole population which dwelt around Jerusalem, with thirty talents of gold and eight hundred talents of silver.' "

Joyous is the Word of God.

There is no other book in which reigns such calm peace, overflowing in joy unspeakable and full of glory. Here shines a light which triumphs over every darkness, and breathes that tope which is full of life (1 Pet. i. 3) and trength. Paradise was not yet closed when the voice of a Saviour God interrupted the dread dlence which sin had introduced, by the pronise of redemption and victory; and throughout he whole Bible we hear the joyful sound, that God hath given to us sinful men a Benjamin's portion-double for all our sins (Isa. xl.), even abounding grace and infinite love.

The triumphal song of heaven and eternity. Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory," is already heard, though we are still rying in this vale of sorrow and temptation. 'Deliver us from evil." Here sound the peals f marriage-bells, even the marriage of the Lamb and the bride. Here is revealed to us God as our exceeding great joy. Glad tidings are here, such as even angels, accustomed to the liss of heaven, call very joyous. Here is the gift of God-His own Son to be ours forever. Ie whom the Father regards as most precious and glorious, whom He loves, and to whom He nath given all things. Is the gift of God to us-a gift never to be recalled. Forever Jesus Christ s our Lord and Head.

The word of God is joy from heaven to the ouls which are in darkness and the shadow of leath. It speaks of sin, but in order to declare ull pardon; of our misery and bondage, to leclare our redemption; of death, to announce esurrection-life; of our nothingness, to bring o us the All-in-all-Christ.

When people accept God's word they rejoice. Oh! that in all declarations of God's message we may be pre-eminently evangelists! and that the rominent as well as the deep impression of our reaching may be, He has brought us good news rom a far country. He has spoken to us of the vonderful salvation of God, far exceeding all ur thought and all our hope. He has spoken f God rejoicing over the sinner redeemed and estored; and of Jesus Christ dying for the unodly, and living in the heart of the believer. Ie has shown us that we are now in heavenly laces, accepted in the Beloved, complete in lim, and sealed with His Spirit; and that we are o be manifested with Him in glory. Then is our testimony scriptural, when it testifies of esus as the Lamb, of God as the Father, of the pirit as the Dove; when it speaks to the heart Jerusalem, declaring grace and glory; when t has its source and end in this:-"God is OVE.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

-Rev. Grosvenor W. Heacock, D. D., the well-known pastor for many years of the Lafay-ette Presbyterian Caurch, of Buffalo, New York, has consented to supply the pulpit of the How-ard Presbyterian Church during the three months of Dr. Scudder's vacation, his church granting him leave of absence for that purpose. —There is a revival of religion in the Church of Thyatira, Concord Presbytery, Preaching continued for eight or nine days, and about forty-five persons were added to the church, whilst others are still deeply concerned. The pastor and friends of religion are greatly en-couraged. Thyatira is under the pastoral charge of the Rev. S. C. Pharr, D. D.

-A discussion is going on in the columns of the Observer in regard to the supposed tendency among the ministers and people of the Reformed (Dutch) Church to unite with the Presbyterians. Chancellor Ferris, after a ministry of over forty years in that church, says he does not know of one member, clerical or lay, who is in favor of it. The Observer publishes his note, with a comment, and adds:

"Since writing the last line we have received two letters from clergymen in the Reformed (Dutch) Church, both expressing the strongest desire for union with the Presbyterian Church. We will pro-bably publish them both next week."

-There was recently quite an interesting meeting at Euphronia church, N. C. Services commenced on Friday before the second Sabbath in August, and closed on the evening of the third Sabbath, lasting ten days. The services were conducted mainly by Rev. M. McQueen. Through his faithful ministrations and the prayers of God's people, it has pleased God to manifest His power and mercy in raising many, it is hoped, to life, who were dead in trespasse and sins. During the meeting about fifty (white and colored) were met and conversed with in the nquiry meetings. About thirty of this number expressed the hope of having met with a change of heart, leaving at the close of the meeting about twenty who were still inquiring the way of life.

EPISCOPAL.

There are 330 communicants of the Episco pal Church among the Santee Indians, Nebraska, --At a recent meeting of the Minnesota Board of Diocesan Missions, thirteen missionaries were appointed, and it was resolved to raise $3000 the

-The Rev. W. J. Boone, son of the late Bishop Boone, has been appointed missionary to China. This gentleman has been for several months serving the church in Enfaula, Alabama

-The Rev. William Henry Rees, D. D., for-merly officiating clergyman of St. Philip's Church, Newark, New Jersey, died suddenly week before last. He was highly respected in his Diocese.

-It is said that mission stations have been established in "every single town" in Dakotah. The Churchman says:--""The Church' is everywhere recognized throughout Dakotah as the pioneer religious body." —The American Churchman says:—"While appreciating the feeling which prompts the rellglous press of the country, almost unanimously to deprecate the interference of civil courts in ecclesiastical trials, we desire to relieve the Church from the odium of Judge Jameson's connection with it. Being a vestryman does not make a man a Churchman.

-The Episcopalian, in a very pointed edito-rial on the course of Bishop Whitehouse, says:-"One of the Chicago papers advises the im-peachment of the Bishop; but we think the impeachment lies against the prelatical principle which is at the bottom, and the outgrowth and enforcement of which have caused the actions which we behold. Let us impeach that, and show it to be contrary to the Word of God, and so model our constitution and all its fixings that there shall be no more place for its existthat there shall be no more place for its exist-ence or rise. Then we shall not have the sean-dal of iron-clad bishops; and then our dioceses and churches will continue to be as 'unwalled villages,' in which the people dwell in freedom and at ease. They can go from one to another to consult, to help, and to profit themselves and each other." each other. BAPTIST.

-In Rhode Island there are sixty Baptist churches, forty-nine pastors, and a total mem-bership of nine thousand three hundred. The large-t church is the First Providence, numbering four hundred and twenty-eight members. -The Rev. William Hague, D. D., is to take -The four Lutheran churches at Fort Wayne, Indiana, have united in establishing a hospital, open for the poor and sick of every creed, color and country. A site of twelve acres has been purchased at a cost of $3600, and suitable build-

-The Latherans in this country contemplate the establishment of five new theological semi-naries—one for the Swedes at Genesee, Ill., for the Norwegians at Manhalitown, Wis., for Texas, for the South, and for the West. The Lutkeran Observer says:--"The Texans must have a seminary, because of

"The Texans must have a seminary, because of their remotences; the Southerners, to perpetuate their 'fdiosyncracles;' the Swedes, to maintain their mational and ecclesiastical peculiarities; the Nor-wegians to foster their recently-developed symboli-cal tendencies; and the Western General Synodists, because of the necessity and pressure which the policy of establishing a theological school for every literary institution brings with it. When will our divisions cuase, and the folly of spending tens of theoremust for the establishment of unnecessary inhousands for the establishment of unnecessary in

- We have before the and the devoted in the mountain province of Chota Nagpore, India. During the past twenty years they have baptized more than ten thousand converts to the faith. Circumstances have led these devoted men and most of their converts to desire to received into the Church of England. Their application to the Bishop of Calcutta for admis-siou into the English Church was supported by the Calcutta Committee of the Berlin Missionary Society, which had collected most of the funds for the maintenance of the mission, and by a petition signed by all the resi-dents of the neighborhood of the mission. The Bishop has granted this request, thus adding seven thousand Christians to his flock. On Sun-day, April 18, the Revs. F. Batsch, H. Batsch, and H. Bohn were ordained deacons and priests, and Wilhelm Luther, a native pastor, was erof about cleven hundred, of whom about half received the Holy Communion: forty-one natives were baptized, and six hundred and thirty-three confirmed .- Spirit of Missions.

CATHOLIC.

- The Catholies of Ottawa, Ill., are about to roct a new church that will cost between $75,000 and $100,000.

You will recollect, gentlemen, there was several of your Safes in that fire, also several in the fire at -A sum of £800, under the head of restitution to the State, has been paid into the French Treasury, through a priest of the diocese of Versailles

-The Ape Iblea, an excellent Catholic journal of Palermo, has been obliged to suspend its issue. The editors have been informed by the authorities that they must either give up their paper or go to prison

-The Pope is said to have remarked in an andience which he gave recently to an eminent foreigner, that he was firmly convinced the world would be regenerated by the coming council

-In the United States, in the year 1860, there were one Roman Catholic bishop, fifty-three pricets, and 60,000 members. Now there are even archuishops, forty bishops, 3000 priests, sixty-five colleges, 200 convents, and nearly 5,000,000 members.

-The Cathedral of the Immaculate Concep-tion, in the diocese and city of Portland, was olemnly dedicated on the feast of the Netivity of the B. V. Mary, Wednesday, the 8th of Sep-tember. The Right Rev. Bishop of the diocese performed the ceremony of the dedication, and Right Rev. Bishop of Boston sung the Mass

-The Rev. Father Tuffen, of the Baugalore mission, died at Madras on the 2d of July, on board the French steamer Meinam, half an hour after his embarkation. This clergyman was on his way to Marsellles for the intended benefit of his health. His remains were brought back to shore, and the flag at the office of the Messageries Imperiales was half-masted until sunset.

A lot with suitable buildings has been purchased, and the Rev. N. M. Crawford, D. D. has been elected President.

-The "West New Jersey Baptist Association" and the "Philadelphia Baptist Association" have adopted the same plan. The first numbers 8271 members; ten cents per member would vield $827.10. The Philadelphia Association numbers 17,471 members; ten cents per member would yield $1747-10. Let each church send the ap-portionment named. One or two earnest rethren and sisters in each church can accomplish the work readily, or a collection could be made publicly, -- National Baptist, -The Baptist Church Building Loan Fund grows in favor as its utility is proved. The North Philadelphia Baptist Association has aided three hurches .-- Gwynedd, Bridgeport, and Davis ville. Last year Gwynedd refunded the fifth instalment, and added $3.70 as a gift; Bridgeort sent the third instalment, and $17.40 as gift: Davisville sent the first instalment, $40, and $10 as a gift. Let each church send, this year, an amount equal to ten cents for each member; those who omitted last year can send twenty cents per member.

CONGREGATIONAL.

Wis., August 22. A new meeting house was dedicated at Jamestown, N. Y., August 18. Cost, $28,000. —An attempt is being made to raise $50,000 or the theological department of Oberlin Col-

-The Rev. David Murdock, D. D., of New Milford, has received a call from the Third Con-gregational Church in New Haven. —The ten thousand dollars bequeathed by

Mrs. Warburton to the Centre Church in Hartford will be used to support Warburton chapel, and the income of a further bequest of three thousand dollars will be used to purchase books for the teachers' library. —The Rev. J. C. French's Central Congrega tional Church at Brooklyn has grown, during the dozen years of its existence, from a member ship of twenty-seven to the great aggregate of five hundred. They have twice enlarged the house of worship, and next year will begin the crection of a still greater tabernacle, to cost at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and contain sittings for fifteen hundred hearers. —From the minutes of the last meeting of the General Association of Illinois, we learn that there are in that State 247 ministers, 235 churches and 17,426 church members. There are 24,289 members of Sunday schools. The increase for the year is 11 churches and 947 members. The missionary contributions aggregated $26,210.08. The total amount expended for church expenses was $868,292-35.

TO.

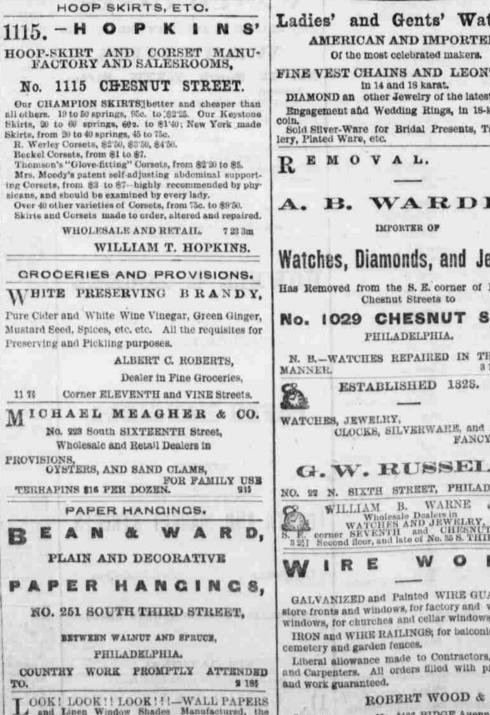

-In the Mount Vernon Church, Boston, Sabbath week. Dr. Kirk's resignation of that pastorate which he has filled with great acceptince and success for twenty-seven years was read. Growing infirmities have for some time admonished him that the work of such a parish and pulpit is too much for his strength, but, in connection with a junior pastor, it is hoped that he will be able to labor on for many years to come.

LUTHERAN.

-The corner-stone of the Gotwald Memorial Chapel, Lancaster, Pa., was laid August 29. -The corner-stone of a meeting-house was laid, September I, on Muncy Hill, Columbia county, Pa.

-A house of worship was consecrated at Mott-ville, Mich., August 21. It is 36x54 feet, and | cost about $4000.
