THE EVENT OF THE WEEK.

The Clothing Exhibition announced for the coming Thursday will attract more attention than anything else likely to happen in Philadelphia this week.

JEWELRY.

Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 13 South Second street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of fine jewelry and silvers in the city.

WE ADVISE ALL PERSONS HAVING DISEASED HAIR.

To Professor Christy's celebrated Hair Lotion. It is put up in a bottle and a box. Ladies who once commence to use Lotion discard every other preparation.

KEEP THE BODY IN GOOD REPAIR.

It is much easier to keep the system in good condition than to restore it to that condition when shattered by disease. The 'Horns of Life,' like other houses, should be promptly propped up and sustained wherever it shows any sign of giving way.

A wholesome vegetable tonic.

The stimulating properties of which are modified by the juices and extracts of anti-febrile and laxative roots and herbs—something which will regulate, soothe, and purify, as well as invigorate—is the medicine required by the debilitated.

THE STOCK OF FINE CLOTHING WHICH NOW, AFTER MONTHS OF PREPARATION.

we are about to offer to the public, is so vast and varied, so superior in style and beautiful in material and make-up, that we are at a loss to describe it. We simply say "come and see," assuring all that any time spent in examining our new clothing store will handsomely repay them.
