—A formal opening of the extensive museum attached to the Hahnemann Medical College, at No. 1105 Filbert street, took place at noon yes terday. Quite a number of the attaches of the institution, with their friends, were present, and after viewing the fine collections of specime partook of a collation served by Caterer D. H. Burton. The museum is an elegant affair, and comprises over two thousand specimens of skeletons, dried preparations, elastic, papier mache and wax models, osteological and comparative anatomy—specimens wat preparations surgical apparatus, materia medica cabinet mineralogical cabinet, and numerous plates, in cluding all those published by the Sydenham Society. The elastic models were imported from France, and lu themselves form a valuable collection. In addition to the museum, there are two lecture-rooms in the building, each capable of seating three hundred students. At the rear of the college a room has been specially fitted up with beds, for the accommodation of patients desiring surgical operations. This college is rapidly gaining an enviable reputation for its thorough course of instruction. The method of instruction at this college is similar to that in vogue at Yale and Harvard Colleges. -Last night about 9 o'clock a fire broke out on the roof of dwelling No. 1414 Sansom street. occupied by Mrs. Stewart and owned by Miss Edwards. The alarm was not given for some time after the discovery, consequently a consid-erable period clapsed before water was got on the burning building. However, when once the aqueous fluid was started, there was a perfect deluge, and the flames were soon extinguished. The roof of No. 1412, owned by the Union League and occupied as a shoe manufactory by Edward Meakim, was also burned off. The lower portion of these two houses, and dwelling No. 1416, occupied by Kate Melville, suffered from water. Building No. 1412 is insured for $2000 in the North America Company, and the damage sus-tained to the stock of Mr. Meakim is covered by insurance- During the course of the fire the firemen found an intoxicated woman lying in the second story of No. 1414. She was taken down stairs and from thence to the Fifth district sta-

Whereas, The people of Pennsylvania are again called to the serious duty of electing a Governor, a Judge of the Supreme Court, members of the State Legislature, and the members of the State Legislature, and the local officers of the respective cities and counties; and whereas, the question is again presented whether the political party which was arrayed against the Government during the Rebellion, and declared the war for its suppression a failure; which assailed the national credit, and has more recently sought to repudiate the and has more recently sought to repudiate the national obligations and nullify the acts of Con-

Resolved, That we are opposed now, as we have ever been, to the elevation of men to public office, who adhere to the political party which encouraged and strengthened the Rebellion by its unconcealed sympathy with its leaders and their doctrines, and which continuously sought to embarrass the National Government in the resecution of its just and necessary measures for the restoration of peace and the perpetuation

Resolved, That the persistent efforts of the Democratic party to open anew the exciting questions which were settled by the success of the national cause and the election of General Grant to the Presidency, strongly tend to disquiet and embarrass all the business relations of the country, by weakening the public confidence in the stability of our institutions, and should be strenuously and persistently resisted and condemned. Resolved. That the large reduction of the national debt since the inauguration of President Grant, and the annual diminution of the State debt during the administration of Governor Geary, and the reviving prosperity of the comtry under the just and liberal policy of the Re publican party are practical results which appeal to the intelligence of the people in favor of the Republican cause and the Republican candidates

Resolved, That an executive committee of twenty-five members of the League be appointed by the chairman of this meeting, for the purpose of adopting such measures in relation to the approaching election as may be consistent with the proort of these resolutions.

She now lies on muddy bottom, with 11 feet of water aft and 8 feet forward. Capt. Mershom himself was steering at the time, assisted by one of the bands. Everything was done to avoid the secident and threatened collision that was possible under the circumstances.

HERRING'S CHAMPION SAFES.

THE BURNING OF EARLES' ART GALLERY.

PHILADELPHIA, September 1, 1869. MESSES. FARREL, HERRING & CO.,

No. 629 Chesnut street. Gentlemen:-We have just examined, with the very greatest satisfaction, our Safe, purchased of you some years ago, and which passed through our destructive fire of last night. We find the contents, without exception, entirely anharmed, merely slightly damp, and we feel now in a condition to commence our business again, having every book perfectly safe. We shall in a few days require a larger one, and will call upon you. Very respectfully,

CHAMPION SAFES. PHILADELPHIA, August 27, 1869.

MESSES, PARREL, HERRING & CO. Gentlemen :- In the year 1856 I unfortunately was in business in the Artisan Building, which was destroyed by fire on the 10th of April. I had then in use what I supposed was a Fire-Proof Safe, but upon opening it I found everything destroyed, and fire burning therein. You will recoilect, gentlemen, there was several of your Safes in that fire, also several in the fire at Sixth and Commerce streets, the next May, five weeks afterwards, all of which upon being opened proved they were fire-proof indeed, for I witnessed the opening of the most of them, and in every case the contents were preserved, while Safes of other makers were partially or entirely destroyed. I at once concluded to have something that I could depend upon, and purchased one of your Safes. The safe I purchased of you at that time was subjected to a white heat (which was witnessed by several gentlemen that reside in the neighborhood) at the destruction of my Marble Paper factory, 921 Wallace street, on the afternoon and evening of the 24th inst. After digging the safe from the ruins, and opening it this morning, I was much pleased to find everything, consisting of books, papers, money and silverware, all right, I shall want another of your safes as soon as I can get a place to continue my business in. I could not rest contented with any other make of safes.
