HAVANA, Sept. 24.—The Havana press, reviewing the situation, conclude that a majority of Cubans are loyal, and cite in proof the solicitude of the Cuban Junta in New York to enlist American filibusters to fight the battles of the rebellion, the rebel officers being unable to obtain recruits among the natives. The Spanish element in the island is unanimously of the opinion that the Washington Government has no right to interfere in Cuban affairs, and that insur-rections never admit of mediation.

They pried open a window shutter, and then one of them stationed himself outside, while two others clambered in. They took a couple of bags with them to carry of the plunder. While en-gaged in their operations Sergeant Alman, of the Seventh district, happened by, and discovered that the place was open. He jumped through the win-dow and found a couple of fellows, alarmed by his sudden entrance, hidden under a pile of leather. He arrested them. Their names are James Ran-dolph and George Yard. At the same time Offleer McElhone captured the third man watching outside. His name is William Ross. The trio will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon.

ten times the man he was painted us by some, he would ask for him the same law that would apply to one as white as snow. Turning to the practice in this State, Mr. Sheppard cited many cases from ISI down to the cases of Hester Vaughan and Chauncoy Johnson, showing that the Governors had all sactioned the annexation of conditions to pardons. Passing from the practice to the law, he took the broad ground that in all matters, other than of impeachments, the pardoning power of the Governor is as absolute as words can make it. These conditions were not executive coercions, banishments, or expatriations, as the prisoner's counsel had attempted to prove. they were contracts voluntarily accepted by the grantess. They owe it to the Concern, of whi they are the honored custodians; they owe it to t parties who stand implicated by their agency, and the public which manifests so much interest in t question. If this is all a farce, set on foot to r certain private and party interests, just at this thm while the Conferences are voting on Lay Delegatic it is quite important to know it. Rumor says the the edition of the Christian Advocate stopped to press last Tuesday morning to deny the astound statement of the Times, and that Dr. Lanahan wor not allow it. If this is true he must endorse the y-ports in circulation, and cannot hesitate publish just what he knows on the subje if he will not do it, perhaps Mr. Carlta the principal agent, will feel interest cloud in the suffering parties, embracing the tim-honored Book Concern, to state whether not there has been any such defalcation as is leged. It is certainly time for that agency to spe-out and relieve the public mind of the damage suspicions it has created. After waiting a few da for further developments from headquarters, I p pose to take such measures to vindicate mys against every published rumor implicatory of y character and administration as circumstances m require, which I can do by the books of the Concern and the agency is of the concern and the agent in Methodist Book Concern —Amount of Coal transported on the Philadelpi and Reading Pailtons during weak ending Thurse -Amount of Coal transported on the Philadelp and Reading Railroad during week ending Thursd Sept. 23, 1609;-
