NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

-George Hoffman, aged eighteen years, re-siding in Bridge street, below Thirty-fifth, West Philadelphia, accidentally shot himself on Satur-day night, about 12 o'clock, causing death soon after. It appears that he had an old pistol which he kept in the bureau drawer in his room, and while searching for something his clothes caught while searching for something his clothes caught in the lock, causing the weapon to discharge, the load taking effect in the head. The Coroner was notified to hold an inquest. —The following have been admitted to the Pennsylvania Hospital:—Martin Bralden, twenty-three years of age, residing at No. 804 South Fifth street, badly cut about the head with a razor. Michael Hagen, aged thirty-two years, residing at No. 504 Hurst street, badly beaten about the head by some unknown persons about the head by some unknown persons. Robert Manley, colored, fifty-five years of age, residing in New Jersey, badly beaten by some unknown person,

-Between 1 and 2 o'clock on Sunday morning one of the officers of the Sacond district encoun-tered a covored mate running at full speed. through the Shippen street market, followed by several men. The policeman took charge of him, and found that he had been severely cut in the face and neek with a sharp cutting instru-ment. He was taken to the Southwark Hall, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Cantrell. He was then suffered to go to his home in Har-mony street. Subsequently it was ascertained that the colored man, who is named Daniel But-ler, was charged with cutting and severely wounding Michael Redden, at the restaurant corner of Fifth and Schemen streads and Sev corner of Fifth and Shippen streets, and Ser-geant Whalin arrested him and locked him up for a hearing. Butler's story is that he went into the restaurant to procure some refreshments, and found several men at the bar. He was asked to take a drink, but refusing, a glass of whisky was thrown into his eyes; that he then resisted and tried to defend himself, and in the affray Redden was cut. Redden was taken to the Hospital. The matter will undergo an in-vestigation this afternoon at the Central Station.

satisfied, would make good officers. The Federal appointments were pretty evenly divided be-tween the two factions, much to my gratifica-tion, as I still hoped to see harmony brought about.

The radicals (E. J. Davis wing) charged, while in Washington, that the conservative Re-publicans (A. J. Hamilton wing) had entered into a coalition with the Democrats of the State to support A. J. Hamilton for Governor, and in turn to be permitted by him, if elected, to exert their influence with the new State Government. I then offered to denounce this coalition to you on the production of satisfactory evidence that it existed. The evidence was not produced. I said nothing on the subject, returned to Texas, and I have endeavored to keep myself well in-formed on all questions of public interest, and especially those affecting the reconstruction of the State. the State.

I travelled from New Orleans to Galveston with Judge J. H. Bell, who is one of the leading men in the A. J. Hamilton faction. He is an ex-Confederate judge. In conversation about Texas politics, 1 urged upon Judge Bell that all Republicans should attend the convention that had been called by the ardicals to meet at Galveston on the 10th of May, and there to barmonize, bring out their candidates, and cement the party in the State. He emphatically opposed such action. The same course of con-duct was pursued by A. J. Hamilton, Governor Pease, Colonel Haynes, and all the leading men of that wing. The convention met in Galveston on the 10th of May, and, without transacting much business, adjourned to meet in Honston on the 7th

At this last convention E. J. Davis was nomi-At this last convention E. J. Davis was nomi-nated for Governor. A. J. Hamilton, Pease, Bell, Haynes, Langley, and many other con-servative Republicans, were in Houston at this time, but took no part in the proceedings of the convention. I am assured by parties in whom I place reliance, that overtures were made at this convention by the radicals and re-iseted by the conventions.

jected by the conservatives. A ticket with A.J. Hamilton for Governor and E. J. Davis for Lieutenant-Governor might have been nominated then and there, and would have produced harmony in the Republican party, but for the persistent opposition of the A. J. Hamilton (conservative) faction.

This convention might have been larger, or another one held but for the same opposi-tion, and to-day the only organized Repubilcan party in Texas is that headed by E. J. Davis.

The conservative action have opposed all organized concert of action in the Republican party. It is believed that the reason for this action is found in the fact that although the Democrats will not openly affiliate with the conservative Republicans, many Democratic papers advocate the election of A. J. Hamilton for Governor. Some of them place his name at the head of their papers; others do not announce his name, but support him.

The conservative Republicans who pretend, especially when in Washington, to stand on the Reconstruction laws of Congress, nevertheless come right to Texas, and in their district conventions nominate men to office who cannot qualify according to these very laws. (Examples are Stribling, of San Antonio, for Congress, and McFarland, of Austin, for State Senate), They denounce such men as General William

T. Clarke, who was nominated for Congress by a convention, but not of A. J. Hamilton men. No fault has been found with such men as William T. Clarke, whose military and civil records are without blemish. No reason can be given for any Republican to oppose such men as Clarke, unless, to be sure, they are included in the class that A. J. Hamilton has denounced from the stump and called carpet-baggers and scalawags.

The circumstances all considered. I am constrained to believe that the coalition which has been charged as existing between the Conservative or A. J. Hamilton Republicans and the De-mocrats (generally ex-Rebels), does actually exist. The platforms of the two wings of the Republiean party are precisely the same. The radi-cal wing act out their professions of adherence to the Reconstruction laws of Congress, and pre-sent for office men who are qualified under these laws.

The conservative wing frequently nominate men for office who are known to be disqualified under the Reconstruction laws, but who are also known to be acceptable to the Democrats. The success of the A. J. Hamilton faction, as it will be produced by Democratic votes, will be the defeat of Republicanism in Texas, and will during the entire period of the Rebellion, exerted every nerve to destroy the Union, and who have uniformly opposed the Reconstruction laws with a persistency worthy of a better cause. This letter is already too long. Use it as you Believe me, very truly, yours, J. J. REYNOLDS, please.

"the second on the list is a New York lawyer of great ability and popularity; the third is a man of color, who will carry the colored vote; the fourth is an ex-Confederate, who will bring over that element to our side; the fifth is a Federal officer, to counterbalance him, and I myself, according to the testimony of my opponents, am the prince of carpet-baggers, so all carpet-

Daggers ought to support me." —Twelve Kentucky Democratic papers op-pose the Louisville Courier-Journal's proposition to drop the old issues, -Hon, J. B. Grinnell is to join John Gillaspy the Democratic candidate for Governor of Iowa in debate during the remainder of the canvass, lf the latter consents.

-There is a rumor, probably false, that the Know Nothing party is being revived in Massa-chusetts, and that the Boston lodges already contain several hundred members.

- Two representatives elect to the Maine State Legislature bear the name of J. Q. Adams. Both are Democrats. One is from Biddeford and the other from Mayfield.

-A Democratic stump speaker in the recent California canvass immortalized himself by as-serting that the "Republican party is pledged to give negro suffrage to the African.

-Commissioner Delano and Hon. John Alli-son. Register of the Treasury, will take the stump in this State during the closing weeks of the campaign. —It is reported that General Wickham and other prominent Wells Republicans in Virginia denounce the approaching radical convention as factious opposition to the incoming State administration. -The Minnesota Republicans nominated a Swede for Secretary of State. The candidate, Hans Mattson, was put forward by the Scandi-navian Convention, which met a few weeks ago. as their representative man.

CONNECTICUT.

NORWICH, Sept. 26 .- The whaling schoone Cornelia has arrived at New London from Cum berland Inlet, with three men belonging to Dr. C. F. Hall's expedition in search of Sir John Franklin. Dr. Hall is a passenger on board the ship Ansel Glbbs, for New Bedford. He has a number of articles belonging to Sir John Franklin, including some spoons and a chronometer He was also successful in finding the skeletons of many of his men, and the remains of several of their boats.

The skeletons and other relics were found at King William's Land. The Cornelia brings an ancher found at the extreme north, marked E. S., 1776, which is supposed to have belonged to the first explorers. Dr. Hall found a native, who claimed to know all about the party. He says the ship was stove, and the crew took to their boats and went ashore, where their provisions wore exhausted and they died from starvation The ice and snow prevented Dr. Hall from making full explorations, and he will return next summer and still further prosecute the search. The Ansel Gibbs will arrive in a day or two.

NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 26.-Dr. Hall, the Arctic explorer, with Ebierbing and Tookoolito, two Esquimoux and their daughters, arrived at this port to-day, in the ship Ariel Glbbs, from Repulse Bay, on August 23.

Dr. Hall brings us, among the results of five years' residence in the Arctic regions, the most interesting intelligence in regare to the death of Sir John Franklin and his companions, and con-clusive proof that some of them even reached Montreal Island. He saw natives who were the

The Political Situation from (Reynolds' Stand-

HEADQUARTERS FIFTH MILITARY DISTRICT STATE OF TEXAS, Sept. 4, 1869. - To the Presi-dent of the United States-My Dear General: -After your summer recreation, I have determined to add to your fall labors a few words on the political situation in Texas. You will remember that about the 4th of March last there were present in Washington two delegations of Texans, both claiming to be representatives of the Republican party of Texas. One of these delegations, headed by General E. J. Davis, these delegations, headed by General E. J. Davis, was appointed by the Constitutional Convention; the other delegation, headed by General A. J. Hamilton, was self-appointed. Pursuing the policy which I had decided upon in October, 1867, upon my arrival in Austin, of always endeavoring to produce harmony among all classes of Republicans, I decilined to permit myself to be identified specifically with either faction, but frankly told their leaders (E. J. Davis and A. J. Hamilton) that I would recom-mend for office men of both factions who, I was

SPAIN.

Our Relations with Her Discussed in the Cabinet.

It is now definitely ascertained that Cuban matters were fully discussed by the Cabinet meeting on Friday. No conclusive action was taken, it being thought best to wait a few days and settle upon some action at the next regular meeting.

Minister Sickles did not exceed his instructions. Acting at all times under instructions from Mr. Fish, he presented the Cuban propositions at Madrid, and offered the mediation of the United States. The mediation was accepted, but the Cuban propositions were replaced by a set offered by Spain. They were rejected at once by the Cubans and the original propositions again urged, but Spain has not yet acted upon them. They are still before the Spanish Government, and the trouble lies just in a few words said by Minister Sickles, with full knowledge of Mr. Fish, in reference to the delay. Gen. Fickles' note con-tained in substance the following: "The mediation of the United States has been kindly accepted by Spain. The American people cannot understand the cause of your delay in acting upon the propositions offered by their Government on be-half of Cuba. Public opinion in the United States may force my Government to recognize the belligerent rights of the Cubans." This ac-tion was decided upon at Cabinet meeting on August 31st, and by reference to my despatch of September 1st, it will be seen stated there that General Sickles was ordered on that day to ask for final action on the Cuban propositions in pursuance of the action of our Cabinet, and the reasons for demanding early action given in the above note were furnished by Mr. Fish, with full knowledge of the administration. The secret of the noise and hubbub created by General Sickles' note lies in the fact that in Spain the leaders rule the people, while here the people rule the leaders, and Spaniards cannot appreciate the difference in the two forms of government. The boast of the Spanish leaders that 24,000 regular troops must be sent to Cuba is claimed by the Cubans to be a mere dodge to frighten Mr. Fish and test the probability of an alliance of the great powers. They cannot be spared from Spain. The Regency party, the Carlists, the Isabellaninos, and the Republicans must be managed by the strong arm of the govern-ment, and a militla cannot be raised that will unite in putting down either party in case of a rise. Spain has lost 75 per cent. of the regular troops sent to Cuba. Last winter, at the beginning of the campaign, she had 27,000 on the island. Even should 24,000 be sent now, she would still have less available force in Cuba at the beginning of this winter campaign than she had last year at the same time. Meantime the rebellion has assumed three times its then proportions, and gains strength daily. By the time of the next Cabinet meeting the smoke will probably have cleared away, and the people of the world will have begun to know the real state of affairs.
