HAYTI.

Salmave's Entry into the Capital—Formal Retection of the United States Minister.

Correspondence from Port-au-Prince, dated Sept.

17, contains the following:—

On Monday, the 7th inst., our city was startled by the booming of cannon at Fort Bizaton, about three miles from the city, and soon after, and great enthusiasm, President Salmave arrived, accompanied by a portion of his staff and a small detachment of troops. As he traversed the streets the populace gathered in such masses, and were so demonstrative in their expressions of affection, that it was with some difficulty that the party made their way with some difficulty that the party made their way to the palace.

The meeting between General Chevallier and the President, old companions in exile as well as in the field, was enthusiastic and cordial, and as they clasped each other in arms, the scene was as affectng as it evidently was heartfelt on both sides. The following day the President formally accepted the resignation of his Cabinet, and appointed the followresignation of his Cabinet, and appointed the following persons.—General Victorine Chevallier, of Gonalves, Secretary of War and Navy; the Hon. D. Labonte, of Port-au-Prince, Secretary of State and Foreign Affairs; the Hon. N. St. Armand, of Gonalves, Secretary of the Treasury; the Hon. M. Hippolyte, of Cape Hayti, Secretary of the Interior. All of these gentlemen are well known and esteemed. Immediately after the appointment of the Government, the President communicated to the American Legation his readiness to accord an audience and Legation his readiness to accord an audience, and on the following day Mr. Hollister and Mr. Bassett presented themselves at the Palace at 4 o'clock, the our designated—the former to present his letter of call, and the latter his letter of credence. The audience took place in the grand reception hall of the National Palace. The President was surrounded by his Cabinet and military staff, and Messrs. Hollister and Bassett by the attaches of the American Legation. Mr. Hollister, in presenting his letter of re-call, made a few appropriate remarks, to which the President replied cordially, after which Mr. Bassett was formally introduced, and placing in the hands of the President his letter of credence, delivered the

Mr. President: I have the honor to place in the hands of your Excellency a letter of credence ad-dressed to you by His Excellency the President of the United States, and accrediting me as Minister Resident and Consul-General of the United States near the Republic of Hayti, and I avail myself of the opportunity to fulfil a charge entrusted to me per-sonally, as well as officially, by the President of the United States, and to assure your Excellency, in the name of the Government and people whom I have the honor to represent, of their sincere desire to cultivate the cordial relations now happily subsisting between the two Governments, United States and Hayti were the two earliest republics of the New World. First the one and then the other shook off the older systems of government and adopted for themselves those higher forms which the grand march of the human race towards a homeous destiny must eventually vindicate to nanations that great and liberal principles of government incorporated into the Constitution have seemed to lie temporarily inoperative. This has been the case with my own country; it may be so with others. But I pray your Excellency to observe that I am sent here in the official capacity named in my letter of credence, partly to give assurance y presence, of the practical recognition of a t principle in the United States—the principle or which our ancesters were among the first in the New World to contend when they founded the Haytien Republic, and by which all classes of men, under the broad shield of my Government, stand equal before the law. And now, in delivering to your Excellency my letter of credence. I desire to express the hope that the two nations may continue march side by side in a career of enlightenment and civilization.

Your Excellency, I am of the same ancestral origin as yourself and the people over whom you preside, and I offer this as an additional guarantee of my cordial desire, during my residence near your Government, to strengthen between the two Republics the friendly intercourse which my predeces sors have so successfully cultivated.
