Broadway Architecture.

It is impossible even for the indifferent man to walk along Broadway for any distance without being pricked into admiration of what Joe Gargery would call the "architectooralooral" improvements going on. An extremely industrious architectural Midas seems to be at work, transforming everything, not into gold but into marble and granite. At the corner of Broadway and Cedar street, for instance, the New York Equitable Life Insurance Company are putting up a building of giant proportions and built of Concord granite. Each of the immense front windows of this structure has an area of nearly two hundred square feet. You might exhaust the thesaurus of cyclopic terms in endeavoring to convey a just idea of the proportions of the several parts. The general vestibule, for instance, is larger than that of any other insurance company in the world. The building is expected to be occupied early in the spring, and the interest on its outlay will be more than realized in the rents. At the corner of Leonard street and Broadway is another superb structure, erected at the expense of one million dollars, and shortly to be occupied by the New York Insurance Company. It is built in the English Renaissance style, and the Broadway front is of white marble. The only departure from the general magnificence of the building is the Cathevine lane front, which is partly of brick. Upon these two buildings, which are intended by the respective companies that are to occupy them as rivals to one another, about three million dollars have been expended. Like most great rivals, it is impossible to give the preference to either. Both are very beautiful acquisitions to Broadway. The Equitable Assurance pretends to more dignity and repose; the Life Insurance to the greater grace and liveliness. The interior appointments and toilet appliances of both include the most delicate and luxurious inventions of the present day; and if a clerkly life were a notoriously happy one, I think I should not hesitate long as to which company I should honor by accepting a sinecure there.

Cash Down.

These are the only terms upon which meals are provided at a certain restaurant which has just been opened on Broadway. Its proprietor has evidently, some time or other, fallen a victim to one of those artists in dinner-getting who are in the habit of ordering everything on the bill of fare, and handing the cashier ten cents in payment therefor. At any rate, he has opened shop on the principle that you tit. You order whatever you desire, and upon its aid before you, you are expected to show the ir money before conveying a morsel to mais, you perceive, is a great testfirk it you stigmatize yourself as a She shown the door with ignominy. If your character is saved, and you cat with the consciousness of having de-

Good Time for Thieves.

The opportunity which the thieves of New York have been waiting for so long has come at last. One of the first acts of the new captain of the Broadway squad was to remove from the Broadway stages all special detectives, who were in the habit of riding up and down, for the purpose of detecting diamond thieves and pickp ckets generally. Henceforth, these gentlemen-the pickpockets, I mean-will have no difficulty in pursuing their profession. All they will have to do will be to jump in the car or the stage, as the case may be, to snatch whatever they fancy, and to jump out again. The accomplished thief need not fear being selzed by any well-dressed detective, for that institution has been done away with, at least so far as the cars and stages are concerned, and the business of purse-snatching promises to become casy and lucrative.

Amusements.

Mr. Maurice Neville, who, if memory is faithful to her seat in this distracted globe, was, two or three years ago, a member of the stock company at the Philadelphia Walnut Street Theatre, is, I perceive, announced as "the young Hungarian tragedian, from the Imperial Theatre, Vienna," and will soon make his appearance as "Otheilo," at the Stadt Thea-

SUNNYSIDE ORIGINALFIELPLACE STOVE AND WARM-AIR FURNACE COMMINED. The only Fire Place Stove ever invented that will warm the room in which it is situated.

All others fail in that particular. We have embodied in THE SUNSYSDE all the LATEST and DEST-KNOWN PRINCIPLES of consuming coal with ECO-NOMY, and have discarded all the numerous imperfections that are being used in the Baltimore and New York Fire-Place Heaters.

THE SUNNYSIDE will produce MORE WARM ATR with LESS FUEL than any other Stove, and is acknowledged, by all who are using them, to be supreion in eveny parti-CULAR to the Baltimore and New York Fire-Place Reators, which they had heretofore used.

Do not be deserved by misrepresentations in regard to THE SUNNARDE, but call and examine it, and see the large number of testimonials from those who have them in use, which will convince any person of its superiority to all others, at the Warming and Ventilating Warerooms of GEORGE P. SHOCH & CO., No 333 N. Second street.

Two on THREE COLDS in succession will, with many constitutions, securely establish the seeds of Consumption in the system, thus converting what was originally a simple, curable affection, into one generally must not only pay for what you cat, but before you fatal. While ordinary prudence, therefore, makes it the business of everyone to take care of a Cold until it is got rid of, intelligent experience fortunately presents a remedy in Dit. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT, they roughly adapted to remove speedily all Coughs and Colds, and one equally effective in the primary stages of Consumption, Asthusa, and Bronchitts. Sold by all Druggiste.

THE GREAT VURALIZER, -This title may be fairly given to a restorative which has taken precedence of all other tonic and alterative preparations for a period of nearly twenty years. During that long interval HOSTETTER's STOMACH BITTLES may be truly said to have enjoyed unrivalled popularity. Many preparations have been got up to compete with it, but they have all fallen into its wake or sunk into oblivion for lack of patronage. From the first this now world-renowned Vegetable Tonic has been both medicinally and financially successful. Every year has added to the number of its friends, and the demand for it. based solely upon the experimental proofs of its excellence as a preventive and curative, seems to have no assignable limit. The medical profession sanction and approve its use, and it is now at the head of the class of medicines to which it belongs, the admitted, undisputed Soveneness TONIC OF THE AGE. The statistics of the United States Revenue Department will verify the statement that it stands alone and unapproached in the magnitude of its tre in this city, where they are at present supporting German opera bouffe. The German debutants whom we have lately had here are not very great successes, but I hope Mr. Neville will be an exception. The critics are divided here as to the merits of Mary Warner as a play, although they all agree as to Miss Bateman's representation of the title role. That is eminently fine throughout-quite melting enough to overcome the old-time objection to her acting as being occasionally cold. A Carbonle Acid Gas Extinguisher.

To-morrow afternoon, at three, an experiment of a novel nature is to be tried at the Battery. It is nothing less than an attempt to extinguish fire by the use of carbonic acid gas. The Empire Fire Extinguishing Company is to perform the experiment, and is confident that it will succeed.

Father Hyacinthe Fatigaed.

Fatigue has been the condition of Pere Hyacinthe ever since his arrival on these shores. Al attempts of newspaper people to view or interview him have thus far been unsuccessful. The ranks of all the newspaper staff were canvassed, and those men were selected who spoke French and had cheek. It was all no use. To every one the same answer was returned :- "Father Hyacinthe was reposing after his ocean voyage, and could not be disturbed." A distinguished cattle-yard reporteress sent up a pretty little pleading, scented note, but even she got shown the cold shoulder. The good father has thus far shown more moral courage than was anticipated even from him; he has succeeded in passing his first day in America unseen by mortal ALI BABA. newspaper eyes.
